RALEIGH, FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1891:

NO. 108

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Peaches getting scarce and rather inferior.

Register Mial says the matrimonial market is exceedingly dull.

Our firemen have returned safe and sound.

A few more days and we will have a chance to go whizzing by electricity.

No tidings of the cool wave yet. It has been indefinitely postponed in this section.

Pave the walks around the capitol square. It has been delayed over a reasonable time.

The poles are being fast put up on the extension line of the electric railway to the exposition grounds.

The Monroe Fire Company were in the city today on their way home from Durham.

A force of hands are engaged in clearing grass from the sidewalks around Moore Square.

The Bretsch bakery and confectionery store on Fayetteville street is being neatly painted and fixed up.

So far as can now be ascertained, there has been no serious damage to bridges in Wake county, from the recent heavy rains.

It is said that some of the companies of the State Guard will go into camp in this city during the exposition. The Durham Sun says so.

The Records of Col. W. A. Turk's office have been removed to Charlotte and all the office force will leave here tomorrow.

Mess. Barbee & Pope contemplate painting up and renovating their store. They will present a neat appearance and have a store full of all the good things of life when the Exposition meets.

Messrs. Yancey & Stronach will have quite a large sale tomorrow at 11 o'clock of carriages, horses, furniture and groceries. They will offer for sale a carriage that cost $600, all in good order. Read ad.

The Ashboro Courier has changed hands, Messrs. Wiley Rush and W. C. Hammer are the new editors and proprietors, and it is a four page 24 column paper.

Dr. T. J. Williamson, Eustis, Fla., says: The bottle of Bradycrotine you sent me was given three ladies who were suffering from headache. They said the effect was instantaneous and very satisfactory. aug 25 6t

This has been a day of unusual dullness in official circles. The officers of the several departments of the State government, the city officials and the court house officers all report a perfect state of quiet.

Alderman M. A. Parker arrived home this morning from a two months' tour through the leading cities of the Old World and New England States. His familiar face will be seen again on the cotton market. The Visitor accords to him a most cordial welcome back to his home.

Special attention is directed to the advertisement of Mess. H. A. Littman & Co., of the Great New York bargain house, at M. D. & J. D. Edward's old stand, 265, Fayetteville street. The bargains being offered at this establishment are unsurpassed, and the inducements to purchasers are of the best. Give them a call and be waited on.

We have repeatedly called attention to the fact that the south east corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets is so blocked up at times with loungers as to prevent persons from passing except at great inconvenience. This is especially the case on Saturday afternoons when ladies are often compelled to walk out in the streets to get by. This is a nuisance that ought to be looked into. There is much complaint about it.

The N. Carolina Car Works are booming. Work far ahead.

Mr. Bell, the financial clerk of the State Business Agent of the Alliance has resigned.

The improvements at the Citizens' National Bank will soon be completed.

Mrs. G. W. Sanderlin, left for Statesville yesterday afternoon to attend the bedside of her husband.

The washouts on the Raleigh and Augusta Railroad have all been thoroughly repaired. There have been no detentions of trains.

Our boys won "golden opinions" at Durham from all whose opinions are worth having. Braggarts and rowdies can take back seats.

Can't we get all the members of the cabinet to pay us a visit during the exposition? We might make another trial for the President also. He said he would come if he could, and we know he can if he so desires.

Our firemen were the recipients of a grand reception last night on their return. The drum corps met them at the depot and marched up town amid the blaze of fireworks. Here's luck to our gallant boys. They know how to behave themselves on all occasions and return home full of glory.

There is complaint that the holes dug for putting in posts for the electric railway between St. Mary's and the fair grounds are left open at night, much to the danger of pedestrians. They should be covered with boards until the poles are put in.

Married.

At Cary, on the evening of the 25th inst., by Rev. Dr. N. B. Cobb, Mr. Hugh Campbell, of Asheville, to Miss Eva Andrews, of the former place. The bridegroom is a Wake county young man, and has a job on the Vanderbilt mansion near Asheville, as a brick mason.

Alex Kreth's Durham Dressing Record.

Threw cover off, jumped out of bed, dressed, and ran 57 yards and 7 inches with heavy rubber boots. Time for all this, 14 seconds. This is a remarkable quick record.

Funeral Services.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral of the late J. Marshall Betts, at the First Baptist church, yesterday afternoon. The exercises were conducted by Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, and the following gentlemen acted as pall bearers:

Messrs. B. F. Parks, J. B. Jordan, J. H. Alford, W. J. Young, Thomas Bunch, J. C. Marcom, F. A. Hatch and R. T. Bishop.

Save money by buying your sugar from C. O. Ball & Co.

Don't fail to call on Schwartz for your beef, none better ever seen here. Nothing like it.

King's Royal Germetner is harmless and pleasant to take. Try it. A. E. JORDAN, Agt.

The Meetings Last Night.

Two very important meetings took place last night. At the request of Rev. J. B. Boone, financial agent of the Baptist Female University, there was a meeting held in the Mayor's office for the purpose of discussing the financial question in connection with the proposed subscription for locating the institution at Raleigh. We regret to say that there was a slim attendance and the proceedings were not of the most encouraging character for the object in view. Mr. F. H. Briggs presided and the object of the meeting was explained by Mr. W. N. Jones. He said that only $21,000 of the amount of $30,000 had been secured.

Mr. N. B. Broughton suggested in view of the small number of persons present, that the meeting adjourn to some future time.

Mr. Jas. Briggs said that he desired the entire matter to be referred to the Chamber of Commerce on the 2nd Tuesday in September.

Maj. Vass objected. He said that the Baptists should depend mainly upon themselves in this matter. He knew that Raleigh was by far the most suitable location for the University and the denomination was agreed upon this point; therefore it was time to use the money subscribed in Raleigh and then take the cause to the Baptist State Convention and prepare for a thorough canvass of the denomination throughout the State for the additional funds needed.

Mr. Broughton, in view of the situation, advised that a complete surrender of the institution be made by the Baptists of Raleigh to the Trustees at their meeting next Monday so that the Trustees should be fully relieved of all obligation to locate the University in Raleigh. Raleigh is the most suitable place for the school, and no doubt it will be finally located here, and then much more money would be raised than has yet been subscribed.

Dr. Boone said that in making his canvass of the city he had found but a few Baptists who really desired the school here, and a large number were indifferent. Some were absolutely opposed to having it in Raleigh.

Maj. Vass said the mistake was in putting the University up to the highest bidder.

Hon. John C. Scarborough said that if Raleigh should now fail to raise the necessary money the University would be a dead thing in the State. The Baptists of this city cannot afford to kill this school because they will not raise the insignificant sum of $8,000. We ought very seriously to consider this question and ask ourselves if we can consent to let the Baptist women of the future suffer because we let this University die on our hands. Let us put our hands again in our pockets, pay the money, put the University firmly on its feet and encourage it onward to prosperity.

Dr. K. P. Battle, Jr., thought the canvass should be renewed.

Mr. Jas. Briggs insisted on referring it to the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. W. H. Pace said that the Committee had not done their duty in canvassing as he knew that numbers of people in Raleigh who were willing to subscribe to the institution. The Committee of the Baptists and Chamber of Commerce should work together in the matter and they will find no difficulty in securing the necessary funds. The whole city of Raleigh should take hold of this matter and not the Baptists alone.

On motion of Mr James Briggs the Baptist Committee was instructed to submit the whole matter to the Chamber of Commerce on next Tuesday night and ask what they proposed to do with the Baptist University.

Dr. J. J. Hall did not want too hasty action but every effort must be made to save this University and save it to the city of Raleigh. He felt certain that the institution would be eventually located in Raleigh even though the full amount should not be raised at this time.

The following Committee was appointed to make an immediate canvass: W. N. Jones, W. S. Primrose, R. S. Pullen, K. P. Battle, Jr., R. B. Raney. This Committee to report to a call meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Monday night.

THE COLORED COLLEGE.

At the meeting last night Rev. A. G. Davis presided and M. W. Alston acted as Secretary. The purpose was to increase the subscription to the location fund of the Colored Agricultural and Mechanical College so as to secure it for Raleigh. The following Committee to solicit were appointed: H. S. Christmas, L. A. Scruggs, C. B. Vincent, Berry O'Kelly, P. J. Jeffreys.

Our New Carpets.

We now have in stock the largest and best line of carpets ever shown in Raleigh. We have carpets to suit every one. It matters not whether you want a cheap cotton carpet, or a Royal Wilton—we have both, and our prices are as low as any house in the trade. Our line is complete, and any one needing a carpet should see our stock before buying. We show a large lot of new moquette and velvet carpets at $1 per yard. Our Brussels carpet at 50c is a real value. In fact, we have anything in the carpet and rug line you want.

Our Bicyclist Abroad.

We are authorized to make the following extracts from a letter from our young friend Will Wynne, to a gentleman in Raleigh, dated Boston, Mass., Aug. 25, 1891.

"I called on the Pope Manufacturing Company, and they are carried away with my trip, especially the President, Col. Pope. He insisted on my giving an exhibition so I did not refuse. It comes off next Saturday afternoon. I went into Colonel Pope's office and introduced myself, told him I was champion of the world and had ridden from Raleigh, N. C., in ten and a half days. He introduced me to all the clerks, examined my machine and told the clerks to give me a new saddle. Asked me if I had any objection in telling reporters about my trip. I told him no, so you may look out for the Boston papers. I leave for Maine tomorrow and will return here Saturday for the exhibit. Will start home Sunday by steamer to Norfolk or Wilmington I think." A rousing reception is in contemplation for "Will" when he returns.

New Styles.

You can now see at Swindell's mammoth and elegant new emporium, all the late and most fashionable styles in all classes of dry goods. We are now showing the largest and best assortment of velvet, moquette, Brussels and ingrain carpeting ever brought to this market, and which is being offered at such extremely low prices that it will simply astonish you. We will sell from Sept. 1st to the 10th a big lot of extra quality velvet and moquette carpeting at $1.00 per yard. These goods are pretty new fall patterns, and very desirable designs and would be cheap at $2.00 per yard.
