RALEIGH, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1891:

NO. 113

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Who will bring in the first bale of new cotton?

The Governor is snugly located in the Executive mansion.

Freight receipts on the different roads are getting quite heavy.

McCall fashion sheets for September free at Swindell's.

Nothing to notice at any of the Departments at the Capitol to day.

See notice act of incorporation by J. W. Hinsdale, Esq.

Mrs D. T. Johnson and children have returned from a pleasant visit to Chatham county.

Mr. A. H. Temple, formerly of Raleigh, but now of Glasgow, Va., was in the city yesterday.

Our special sale of moquette and velvet carpets at $1.00 per yard is progressing at D. T. Swindell's.

A meeting of the Retail Grocer Association will be held tomorrow night at their rooms. Prompt attendance desired.

Students are daily arriving at the Agricultural and Mechanical College. The prospect is first-rate for a large crowd.

Mrs. H. C. Pearson, a highly respected lady about 60 years old, died at Cary yesterday. The funeral took place today.

An interesting protracted meeting is in progress at the Baptist church in Cary. The services are conducted by Rev. Mr. Parker, and much religious feeling has been manifested.

Mr. Utzman, corner of Dawson and Jones streets carries a fine stock of groceries, and has in season some of the best vegetables to be found in Raleigh, fresh every morning. Call and see him.

Read the advertisements in the local columns of Uzzle & Co. They have the nicest selection of groceries for the retail trade in Raleigh. Their stock is neat and clean. Freshest butter and eggs. Give them a call.

We will present one pound of our best candy to the lady who will furnish us with the correct translation of the Latin quotation at the head of our advertisement in this issue of the Visitor. W. C. & A. B. Stronach.

The Senior of the Visitor makes a most profound bow to Mr. D. T. Swindell, the energetic dry goods dealer and progressive man of business, for a fine felt hat with which to deck himself off during the coming fall and winter. It is a beauty in style and quality, and bears the inscription, "THE EVENING VISITOR." Here's health, wealth and long life to you brother Swindell. May you continue to make a most profitable "racket" in the business world. You certainly have done the matter up "brown."

At a regular meeting of Manteo Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F., the following members were appointed a committee to look after and extend fraternal courtesies to all Odd Fellows who may visit the Exposition. C. B. Edwards, Wayne Allcott, J. C. Birdsong, Geo. L. Tonnofski, Geo. Terrell, T. W. Blake, Geo. H. Glass, W. T. Parish, W. C. McMakin, R. J. Powell, W. C. Cram, E. C. Potter, A. B. Forrest, C. H. Lewellen.

I feel it my duty to write you in regard to the benefit your Bradycrotine has been to my wife. Ever since a child she has been subject to the most dreadful headaches, usually several times a month. She has tried doctors from Maine to California but none could prevent these spells running their course. Bradycrotine has not failed to effect a cure in a single instance, one dose usually being sufficient. Oscar F. Frost, Monmouth, Maine. Sept. 2 6t

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. to night at 7:30 o'clock sharp. The Initiatory degree will be conferred upon all applicants for membership who present themselves promptly at 7:45 o'clock. Members of the lodge are earnestly requested to attend. A cordial invitation to all Odd Fellows.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor and Chief of staff Charley Heartt had an unusual amount of Suaviter in modo on hand this morning, to which was added no little official dignity. The record book was brought up, and a little after ten o'clock the trouble commenced.

Joseph Fosythe for disorderly conduct came up. There were several witnesses examined. Mr. Forsythe took the stand in his own behalf. His honor thought the charges had been proved. Fined $5 and cost.

Henry Jones, for being drunk, fined $5 and cost.

Henry Watson, a thirteen year old white boy for using abusive language to Mrs. Hellen Suggs, J. C. L. Harris for the State, and Thos. R. Purnell for the defence. Several witnesses were introduced. The cursing occurred in the back yard of Mrs. Suggs. It seems that Tommy and other children were playing Yankees and Southerners; the girls were Yankees and the boys Southerners. Mrs. Suggs remonstrated and Tommy told her to hush and let him alone. Other language was attributed to Tomy. Mrs. Walton said Johnny never sang ugly songs. Mrs. Suggs said he sang them in her presence. Mrs. Walton said she lived in a house that Mrs. Suggs claimed. Mrs. Walton said that Mrs. Suggs used bad language before her child. Mrs. Walton said she was not prepared to swear that Tommy did not sing an ugly song in the presence of Mrs. Suggs, but she would have been bound to have heard it if he had. The question of Mrs. Suggs' character was brought up, witnesses swore it was not good.

Tommy was put on the stand and gave his version of the matter. Said he was playing soldiers. They had corn stalks for guns and green tomatoes for balls. Mrs. Suggs got after them. He told her to hush and let him alone. He said he did not sing any songs except "Johnny get your hair cut." Did not think that vulgar. Did not curse Mrs. Suggs, (Tommy is a bright little fellow and gave in his evidence without any apparent excitement)

A little girl named Nellie Autry, said that Tommy said if Mrs. Suggs came out there he would break her neck. Did not hear Tommy curse. She was no kin to Mrs. Suggs but lived with her. Tommy said such bad words she did not want to tell it. Never heard him sing such songs before. Mrs. Suggs told me about coming up here, but did not tell me what to say. Stay at Mrs. Suggs' some nights, but some nights don't.

A colored witness testified that Tommy was just like other boys, a little bad sometimes. Sallie Smith knew nothing about Mrs. Suggs' character. Sallie Freeman knew nothing about the character of Mrs. Suggs; knew Tommy, said he was mischievous. Mrs. Walton said she had given Tommy a good whipping. At the conclusion of the evidence Mr. Purnell opened for the defense. During his remarks Mrs. Suggs became very indignant and threatened to leave the court. She finally reconsidered and sat down.

The Mayor dismissed the warrant with an admonition. He thought the whipping given by the mother sufficient.

Dental Chewing Gum is the best. For sale "wholesale or retail" at D. T. Johnson's.

Yard wide, Brown Domestic just received at the New York Bargain House at 4 1/2 cents.

Gross Neglect.

A few days since we called attention to the fact that the post holes dug for the Electric Railway Company, between St. Marys school and the Penitentiary avenue were left open at night, much to the danger of pedestrians. These holes were dug about a week ago, and no posts are yet put in. At night it is impossible to see them as there are no lights beyond Maj. Tucker's corner. Why it is that boards are not put over the holes is hard to understand. Surely the Street Car Company are not soliciting a law suit, which they would surely have if some person's limbs were broken. There is no excuse for such neglect.

Advice.

Gentlemen of the Street Car Company: We mean no harm but just allow a little advice. If it is good, take it, if not don't take it. Always tell a passenger when one of your cars is not expected to run through the line. Don't let him think he is going to a certain place and then unceremoniously tell him when he gets about half way, that you can't take him any further. It makes a fellow feel bad and don't do the line any good. Another little suggestion. It would be well to distribute your transfer tickets before reaching the place of transfer. For instance, if a passenger gets on at the Union Depot, politely ask him if he wishes to transfer, and if so, to what line. If he does, give him a transfer ticket. It avoids the trouble of keeping a man with tickets at the end of the line. Don't you see these suggestions are good?

A New Station House.

Much has been said both in conversation and in public prints recently about a new and better arranged station house for our city, but so far nothing tangible seems to have come of it. This is a most important matter and should receive prompt attention at the hands of our City Fathers. The present place for the incarceration of offenders against the municipal laws, is not at all in keeping with a city the size of Raleigh. It is in all respects unsuited. No man or woman should be allowed to remain over night hemmed up in a room so detrimental to health as the present station house must necessarily be. Of course no reflection is meant on our officials because it is the only resort the law allows them, but surely the Board of Aldermen ought to remedy the evil, and do so at once. The present station house is not in keeping with the progress of the age. It must go.

The Bulk is Here.

It is wonderful how many goods you can get in a store size of ours 210 feet long. However, the bulk of our fall stock is here and you are invited to examine and pass on our selections. We are now showing productions of French, German, Austrian, Belgian, English and American mills in wool and silk dress stuffs. When you see our new stock if we have pleased you we feel that we have gained the object in view. On the 14th and 15th of this month we will have our grand opening at which time we will be more than pleased to show you personally all the new things, direct from the Parisian fashion markets in millinery. We have now in store one hundred and ninety different styles of carpets for you to select from. To see you in our store right soon will greatly please us.

Yours Truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.

A New School.

We made mention a few days since of the fact that Rev. M. L. Latta, a colored minister, of this city, had purchased from Mr. H. E. Litchford, several acres of ground in Oberlin village north west of Raleigh, on which it is proposed to locate a school for colored people of both sexes. He requests us to state that he will soon start on a trip to the northern cities for the purpose of soliciting aid. The object is a good one and we wish it success.

Gone to Statesville.

Maj. J. W. Wilson, Chairman of the Railroad Commission, Capt. T. W. Mason and Secretary H. C. Brown, left for Statesville yesterday afternoon to visit the scene of the Bestian bridge disaster and inspect the N. C. Railroad. Mr. E. C. Beddingfield was unable by reason of sickness to accompany the other commissioners.

New Dress Goods—Fall 1891.

Particular attention is directed to our lines of wool plaids, stripes, and plain materials in textures and prices suitable for Misses and children's school dresses. This is the most liberal line of wool materials that we have displayed so early in the season, and in styles they will represent many of the finer imported fabrics. Our patrons will find it best to make their purchases of these goods now, for no better styles or grades will be shown this season at the same prices.
