NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The County Commissioners are in regular session today and engaged mostly in routine business.

The Street Railway Company of Fayetteville, has been incorporated, and Mr. John Blue chosen President.

Considerable cooler although the main cool wave traveled around us west of the Blue Ridge.

The fourth annual report of the bureau of Labor Statistics is now out. We hope soon to be able to give a synopsis of its contents.

Rev. N. H. D. Wilson preached an earnest and interesting sermon at Edenton Street M. E. Church last night.

The shop windows are beginning to present a beautiful appearance. Nothing like an attractive window show, added to printers ink.

Col. John S. Cunningham, of Person, has accepted the position of Chief Marshal of the coming State Fair.

It is expected that before the end of the present week, over a hundred students will have been enrolled at the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

The delightful weather and the new goods constantly arriving, brought the ladies out in full force today.

The Board of Education for Wake county were in session today, mainly for the purpose of appointing school committeemen.

Jno. Wannamaker spends about $2,000,000 annually in advertising his mammoth Philadelphia establishment, and he says it pays him at least one hundred per cent.

Send in your advertisements by 12 o'clock each day, if possible, so as to insure insertion the same afternoon. The rush is getting large and we want to promptly accommodate all.

There is not much time to lose, and all who have curiosities to exhibit should report the same to Mr. Geo. E. Gill, Wake Forest, or to Mr. John Y. MacRae, Raleigh. Let Wake be the foremost county.

Peace Institute has opened under the most favorable auspices on the first day. The attendance was twenty five per cent larger than ever before for the corresponding day.

Will Wynne says that during his trip he of course, saw many different kinds of people but he saw none that came up to those of "his native heath." He says Raleigh is the glorious old place after all. Right, my boy.

Miss Maggie Reese has just received an elegant line of stamped linens and novelty goods. Some very desirable things in carving sets, bouffe covers, doilies, &c., &c. Also a full line of infant's crochet sacques, booties, &c., at all prices.

The resemblance between our most estimable citizen Mr. Peter Francis and Senator Vance is so striking as to attract the attention of almost all acquainted with the two gentlemen. The peculiar twinkle of the eye, and the upper part of the head would almost betoken that they were brothers. Peter says Vance may get away with him on politics, but he can save more "soles" in an hour than Vance can in a life time.

I feel it my duty to write you in regard to the benefit your Bradycrotine has been to my wife. Ever since a child she has been subject to the most dreadful headaches, usually several times a month. She has tried doctors from Maine to California but none could prevent these spells running their course. Bradycrotine has not failed to effect a cure in a single instance, one dose usually being sufficient. Oscar F. Frost, Monmouth, Maine. Sept. 3 6t

The Capitol Club are fixing for a series of pleasant entertainments during the exposition. There will be no lack of fun for the young folks.

"Paint up" is the order of the day, and nearly all our merchants are obeying the command. Before the exposition Raleigh will look as bright as a new pin.

A large crowd attended services at the West End Baptist Mission yesterday afternoon. The congregation is increasing rapidly, and a regular pastor will, no doubt soon be called.

Mrs. I. Rosenthal, one of Raleigh's leading milliners leaves today for New York to make her usual fall purchases of millinery and dry goods, which will be unusually large this season, Mrs. Rosenthal says, in order to meet the increased demand.

W. V. Williams, who has been with Mr. J. Y. MacRae for six years, has resigned his position and will open a new drug store on the corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets on Dec. 1st. Maj. R. S. Tucker will fit it up in modern style.

Remember the exposition is close at hand. Remember that there will be an immense number of visitors here from all parts of the country. Remember that if you want to let people know what you have to sell you must use printers ink, and remember that THE VISITOR is one of the most popular channels through which this can be done. Read our "ads" and look out for many more soon to be presented.

This being the last quarterly meeting of the conference year, Dr. Cunningham yesterday morning preached a very interesting sermon to a very large congregation, after which communion services were held by the Dr. assisted by Doctors Cordon and Reid. The quarterly conference will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Bible class room of Edenton Street church, to which every member of the official board is requested to be present.

The incandescent electric lights just put in the main auditorium of Central Church are a very great improvement on the arc lights used in the Sunday school room. By the way, our people are indebted to Mr. Bonner for these lights at this time. Two sets of burners had been received from the North but they would not work, and in order to obviate further delay, Mr. Bonner made the burners as we have them and they work to a charm.

Mr. Alf Jones, otherwise known as the oil man, is the best known and most accommodating man in town. He delivers his oil right at your door, rain or shine. He has built up a flourishing trade by his pluck, energy and affability, and is deserving of all the patronage which our citizens bestow upon him. He also carries along with his oil wagon, lamps, chimneys and burners. Lookout for his pair of handsome dapper grays.

The largest music house in the State and the one that does as much business as any other two, is the North State Music Co., Cecil G. Stone, manager, at No. 113 Fayetteville street, Raleigh, N. C. They have control of a superb line of instruments and their prices are rock bottom. We recognize on their list the Kanich & Bach, Knabe and Wegman & Co. and Kimball pianos and the Miller and Kimball organs. They expect to do the biggest business this fall they have done yet and from present indications we think they will.

A Rare Case.

On Friday last, Mr. Joseph Blake, of this city, went out six miles southwest of Raleigh, near Garner and surveyed a tract of about three hundred acres of land, now belonging to Messrs. J. R. Walton and J. E. Walton, great grandchildren of Mr. C. B. Walton who had the land entered in 1735, although at that time it embraced a much larger acreage than at present. The property has never been out of the family and has never had a mortgage or other encumbrance on it. The deed of entry as well as those of the division were recorded in Hillsboro. This is a most remarkable case, as it is exceedingly rare that landed property has remained so long in one family, and still more to the credit of the owners that it has never been encumbered, Wake county was formed from Orange, Johnston and Cumberland, which no doubt accounts for the original deed being recorded in Hillsboro.

Send in Your Names.

It has been decided that the Bureau of Information for the coming exposition shall be placed in charge of Maj. C. D. Hearrt, Chief of Police and Mr. A. L. Ferrell, Sanitary Inspector. It now becomes the duty of our people to help these gentlemen out in all possible manner. It is most earnestly desired that all persons who can take boarders should send in their names at once to them at the Mayor's office. It is most sincerely hoped that there will be no more backwardness in this matter than can possibly be avoided. The time is fast approaching for the exposition to commence, and it is almost absolutely necessary that the people of the State should be assured there will be no lack of accommodations. Outside of mere pecuniary considerations, every family in Raleigh should do all in their power to facilitate this matter. There are very few families which, by a little preparation could not take one or more boarders, and it is a duty they owe to our city to make the exertion. Let there be a prompt response. Send in your names at once.

Mayor's Court.

The usual crowd, both in numbers and personnel attended the Mayor's Monday morning levee today. The cases were numerous, but none of them ranging high in the criminal code. Some were allowed to depart yesterday morning so that the Sabbath could be spent in a true spirit of reflection and reformation.

The case against John Allen Johnson was taken up. He was drunk and down Saturday night, on East Martin street; submission; fined $5 and cost.

Henry Heartsfield, drunk and disorderly, at Harris' bar room, Saturday night, judgment reserved. A case was also brought up against Heartsfield for assaulting Turner Pulley at the door of his house several months since. Pulley testified that Heartsfield hit him with something like a brass knuckle. Did not know what the weapon was. Mrs. Mary Johnson said Heartsfield cursed and abused Pulley very much. Did not see the lick, but knew Pulley was hit. Miss Katie Pulley, saw no licks pass, but heard the cursing; did not see any weapon, whatever. Heartsfield was bound over to court in a bond of $100. Heartsfield made a statement that he did not hit Pulley until after he attempted to strike him with a hatchet. Had no brass knuckles or other weapon.

No other cases of importance.

Oh, My! For a Carpet.

Carpets are the things just now which mostly interest our people. Carpets for the parlor, carpets for the hall, carpets for the stair case, carpets for the dining rooms, carpets for the bed rooms, carpets for that room you are to fix up for the company room. You will have company during the exposition whether you want it or not. And if you go to Swindell's now and get your carpets you will ever feel proud of your purchases. Not only in carpets, but in curtains—lace curtains, chenille curtains, raw silk curtains, damask curtains and oil curtains. At Swindell's we have fixed up a nice room on our upper floor for the exhibition of curtains where ladies can select the curtains quietly. For the benefit of the school girls we have postponed our opening till Thursday and Friday, Sept. 17 and 18.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL,
206, Fayetteville St.

SEPTEMBER—THE TIME FOR
—DRESS GOODS.—

THIS MONTH

is the time to think of and buy Dress Goods

September is an interesting month for the customer who wishes to buy, and for the storekeeper who wishes to sell; and we are not going to let this September be any exception to the rest.

IT IS NOW

particularly interesting in dress goods, and will continue so, for our buyer is daily letting us have the best that money will procure.

We would like to tell you of every line of dress materials that he has sent us, but we can only tell you of a portion.

AMONG THE LAST

he sent was a little lot of Dress Plaids at 40c—very stylish.

Then at 50c are a lot of beauties; one line of Striped and Plaid Scotch Cheviots, look almost like Cassimeres—but that is the right finish for this season.

Another lot at 50c in Plaids, very wide, 44 inches. This lot not at all rough finish, but still good sellers.

Of 60c goods there is one line of beauties—medium and dark grounds with bright Roman stripes. Another lot equally as good, but less conspicuous—these Irish Tweeds—nothing wears better, and they closely resemble materials at twice their price.

The above are what we consider among the best at the prices, but probably after seeing the stock you will like others, for we have so many kinds, and we know the prices are right on all.
