

Died.
Near New Hill, yesterday afternoon, Miss Lecta Richardson, of typhoid fever. Miss Richardson had many friends in this city who will be pained to hear of her death.

Suddenly, last night, at the old homestead, about three miles north of Raleigh, Mr. Henry Jones, son of the late Mr. Kimbrough Jones, aged about 50 years.

The Extension.
We are pleased to learn that there will be no more delay than is absolutely necessary on the work of extension of the street car lines to the exposition grounds. It was thought best to get the lines within the city limits in good working order first and as this has been accomplished, attention will be directed to the extension. The road will be leveled and put in first class condition, and it is proposed to erect a passenger station at the end of the line. The original idea will be carried out of running the line to the south gate of the Exposition grounds instead of going through Oberlin, as at one time suggested.

And now we are to have a new industry in the shape of wine making under the auspices of Mr. Geo. C. Heck and others. The plant will be located on the premises of the vineyard recently owned by Col. J. M. Heck near Pullen Park. Mr. Heck will soon start on an extended trip in the interest of the new enterprise, and it is expected that the business will be in full operation by the time the next year's crop of grapes mature.

The musical festival which is to take place during the coming exposition will, from present indications be a grand success, and it is suggested that it be made an annual occasion.

The express companies of the State are now arranging their tariffs in compliance with the railroad commissioners.

Laid on The Lash.
AUGUSTA, ME., Sept. 6.—There was a horse whipping affair on the public street yesterday morning. The victim was A. H. Lyon, a builder and contractor. The man who did the whipping was Ed. Smart, a young druggist. About two months ago Smart married a young woman who was one of the belles of the town. Soon afterward he heard rumors reflecting upon the previous character of his bride. He investigated the slanderous stories, and, it is alleged, traced them all to Lyon.

Yesterday he started to make Lyon retract. He was purchasing the rawhide at Hamlen's harness store, when he saw Lyon approaching. Smart rushed upon him and after accusing him of slandering his wife, he plied the rawhide vigorously across Lyon's head and shoulders, one blow making a terrible cut on the face. Lyon ran across the street into Beal's paper store, Smart following and applying the lash. Lyon went before the grand jury to have his assailant indicted.

THE GREAT

Panacea Springs WATER

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. T. B. BOBBITT.
RALEIGH, N. C., June 5th 1891.

To the Panacea Springs and Hotel Co:

Gentlemen—It affords me great pleasure to state that I regard the Panacea Springs water the very best in the catalogue of mineral waters now in use for scrofula, and especially for dyspepsia. One year ago I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia and after spending several weeks near the springs and using the water daily, I was entirely relieved. Since that time I have had occasional returns of it, and in every instance I have experienced prompt relief by the use of the water. I would advise every sufferer from dyspepsia, who can do so, to use this water. It is what its name indicates—a panacea—for some of the worst, if not all, the diseases which flesh is heir. I have known the water for a number of years, and I cheerfully recommend it. Respectfully,
J. B. BOBBITT.
