NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Cool mornings and nights.
The festive oyster will soon be in order.
Wake Forest College opens with about two hundred students.
Not a ripple of news in any of the departments in the capitol today.
The Burlington News has entered its fifth volume under most promising prospects.
The commissioners of Edgecombe county, have agreed to appropriate $500 to the exposition.
New goods are pouring in and the city is beginning to put on the air of a bustling community.
The painters of the city are having a real picnic just now. Their services are in demand all around.
Don't get left—paint and brush up your premises and get ready for the exposition.
We are pleased to see Hon. Chas. R. Cook, in the city. He has been quite sick, but is now all right again.
Delightful weather, and the ladies are taking advantage of it to go shopping.
About one hundred and seventy young ladies have already entered at the Greensboro Female Institute.
Twenty four young men have entered at the law school of the University. This is a splendid beginning.
The meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night, was rather an informal one. Very few present and but little done.
Morson and Denson's splendid Male Academy now has about one hundred and five boys. Long may it prosper.
The street cars in the afternoon are crowded. When the lines reach further out the system will no doubt pay handsomely.
The Board of County Commissioners will meet again on the 15th inst., to receive the tax lists and turn them over to the sheriff.
The Railway Commission will meet again on the 15th inst. when it is thought the matter of the late railroad disaster will be further considered.
The holes dug for the posts of the electric railway on Hillsboro road, are now covered over, and pedestrians can now walk along at night without danger. Thanks.
It is said that one of the most expert riflemen in the world is to be at the Inter-State Exposition. The William Tell story about the apple is no where.
We all would like cool weather, provided it did not hurt in other respects. It may injure the cotton, however to put in its appearance too soon.
"A word to the wise is sufficient," but is not always wise to say that word to one who is suffering the tortures of a headache. However, always risk it and recommend Brandy-crotine.
Sept 9 6t
The poles for the extension line of the street railway to the exposition grounds have arrived, and the work will now be pushed as rapidly as possible. As soon as the cars are running to the grounds, it is whispered that the conductors and motor men will give a grand "blow out."
Attention is directed to the advertisement in this issue of Mr. W. R. Newsom, family grocer, No. 214 Wilmington street. Mr. Newsom keeps constantly on hand a splendid assortment of goods in his line which he is offering to the public at such prices as are bound to command a ready sale. He is one of our most energetic business men, raised in our midst, and with push and energy second to none. Call and examine his stock.

The inside of the market house is receiving a coat of white wash.

Scuppernong grapes getting plentiful, but not quite ripe enough at present.

The first bale of new cotton is most anxiously looked for. Who will bring it?

The grand stand at the exposition grounds will receive a complete overhauling before the exposition opens.

Bonds for conversion into the new 4 per cent consols are coming in slowly. Not a batch has been received for some time.

The annex to the Yarboro House is receiving its finishing touches. It will be ready for occupancy in ample time for the exposition.

As the freight train on the R. & D. road pulled into Durham yesterday morning one of the cars jumped the track. No one hurt.

Mr. A. L. Ferrell, of the Bureau of Information, is busy on the rounds endeavoring to find out who are willing to take boarders during the exposition.

The latest "on dit" is that a large crowd of Cherokee Indians will be at the exposition and will entertain the people with some of the great dances of their forefathers.

Internal Revenue Collector White informs us that matters are now very quiet in his department. The machinery is working smooth and very little illicit traffic is going on within his jurisdiction.

St. Marys School will open next week. Let the street car lines be run up there. The ladies must be accommodated. There will be a larger crowd of them than ever before. This splendid, time honored school, is booming with deserved success.

It is a sad sight to see so many half grown white and colored boys attending the Mayor's court every day when there are cases to be tried. It shows that their parents or guardians are at fault. They should either be at school or work.

There is much enlargement of the yard room at the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. The company, we understand, has purchased several acres extending as far down as Mordecai's crossing below the cotton factory. We hope this is an indication that there is no intention of removing the shops.

Did You See It?

The offer in yesterday's VISITOR. If not, look in today's paper.

I. O. O. F.

Sheriff's Settlement.

The bondsmen of the late sheriff, J. Rowan Rogers, held a conference yesterday. They found that they had on hand $500, and assessed themselves $2,400. This makes $2,900 altogether leaving $1,000 yet due. This will be paid on or before the 1st of October.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock sharp. The first degree will be conferred upon all candidates who present themselves promptly at 7:45 o'clock. Members of the lodge are earnestly requested to attend. A cordial invitation to all Odd Fellows.

A New Amusement.

The Durham Sun says there will be a new "fad" in the way of parlor amusements this winter. In the new game the persons are assembled in one or two rooms and gentlemen are provided with thimbles, needles, thread, buttons and an amount of old or new clothing as the case may be. The ladies are each given a hammer a quantity of nails and a number of boards or pieces of wood. At a given signal the men begin sewing on buttons and the ladies commence driving nails. Prizes are awarded to the most successful worker. The party is one which may be turned to profitable account by the hostess, as she may get much of her week's mending done by giving parties once a week.

Cabarrus Fair.

The Agricultural and Mechanical fair of Cabarrus county, will commence on the 16th inst., and will be the first of the series for the year. The address of welcome will be delivered by Rev. C. M. Payne. Rev. H. W. Bays will deliver the annual oration to the Confederate Veterans. He was in the war as a member of the celebrated Morgan's cavalry, and was subsequently promoted for gallantry at the battle of Chickamauga.

On Tomorrow Morning

We begin a special sale of moquette and velvet carpets at 85 cents a yard. Having made a second purchase and taking the entire stock remaining at the factory enables us now to sell these fine moquettes and velvet carpets at 85 cents a yard. If you don't get one of these carpets, you miss your last opportunity. Tomorrow is the day.
D. T. SWINDELL.

Base Ball Matters.

Contracts have been entered into with the manager of the Richmond, Va., "Giants" for a series of championship games, as follows: Five in Richmond, five in Winston and seven at the exposition in Raleigh.

Last Saturday, in Richmond, over $1,300 was raised for the team of that city to play the series. Some of the best players in America will be on hand.

A Beautiful Exhibit.

We spent a short time this morning in the studio of Mr. Randall, the artist in the rooms up stairs adjoining the crockery store of Mr. W. H. Hughes on Fayetteville street. We were shown some of the portraits which he proposes to have on exhibition at the exposition, of which there will be fifteen altogether. The most prominent are portraits of Bishop Lyman, Hon. J. J. Davis, Gov. Holt, ex-Lieut. Governor Stedman and Mrs. Josephus Daniels. These pictures are just simply splendid and reminds one of the copies of some of the old masters. They are perfect in execution in every respect. The portrait of Judge Davis specially commended itself to our attention. It represents the Judge in a sitting position, with his arm around a little girl, one of his grandchildren. We have never seen anything superior to it, in our poor judgment, even in the art gallery at the centennial in Philadelphia in 1876. Mr. Randall is, beyond doubt, a great artist and deserves the most complete success. No stranger should visit Raleigh without visiting his studio. It is one of the most interesting places in the city. The value of Mr. Randall's entire exhibit will be about $2,500.

A Card.

Whereas, it has been currently reported that one Prof. M. L. Latta (?) scolded, has been asking aid from the liberal public for the establishment of a high school of learning for the colored people of the United States; and, farther, that he proposes to locate said school in Oberlin to the credit of the citizens of that village. Therefore, we the under-signed citizens

Resolve, that we disclaim having anything to do with the school, and that we have given no authority to the said Latta, and have not expressed any desire to have said school located in our midst.

Respectfully,

A Grand Scheme.

Gov. Holt has received and placed in the executive office a large photograph of the proposed Confederate soldiers and sailors monument to be erected in Marshall square, Richmond, Va. This monument is to be one of the prettiest in the world, and the position will be second to none now known. Situated on a very high hill, it will be seen for at least ten or twelve miles up and down the James river, presenting one of the grandest sights in the beautiful capital of the Old Dominion. The monument will be of granite, ninety feet high, and surmounted by a colossal statue of a Confederate soldier. It is proposed that each Southern State shall contribute a memorial stone, and the Governor is asked to lay the matter before the coming legislature. Let North Carolina do her part in the noble enterprise.

An Elegant Carpet Stock.

Are you to buy carpets this season? Are you to have company during the exposition? Well, probably you will. Anyway, better be prepared for company. If you have any acquaintances anywhere you will have company. Relations will spring up that you know not of. Go to Swindell's and get a carpet while the stock is not picked over. Our stock of carpets is now complete. No one can show more or better grades of beautiful carpets and rugs than Swindell is now showing. We have remnants of carpets accumulating daily and you can get a big bargain in remnants. Some remnants as large as 20 yards. Now do act wisely and get a carpet from us. We cut and lay carpet by skilled artists and guarantee a fit.
Respectfully,

SEPTEMBER—THE TIME FOR
—DRESS GOODS.—

THIS MONTH

is the time to think of and buy Dress Goods

September is an interesting month for the customer who wishes to buy, and for the storekeeper who wishes to sell; and we are not going to let this September be any exception to the rest.

IT IS NOW

particularly interesting in dress goods, and will continue so, for our buyer is daily letting us have the best that money will procure.

We would like to tell you of every line of dress materials that he has sent us, but we can only tell you of a portion.

AMONG THE LAST

sent was a little lot of Dress Plaids at 40c—very stylish.

Then at 50c are a lot of beauties; one line of Striped and Plaid Scotch Cheviots, look almost like Cassimeres—but that is the right finish for this season.

Another lot at 50c in Plaids, very wide, 44 inches. This lot not at all rough finish, but still good sellers.

Of 60c goods there is one line of beauties—medium and dark grounds with bright Roman stripes. Another lot equally as good, but less conspicuous—these Irish Tweeds—nothing wears better, and they closely resemble materials at twice their price.

The above are what we consider among the best at the prices, but probably after seeing the stock you will like others, for we have so many kinds, and we know the prices are right on all.
