NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Fires comfortable this morning. Troops from South Carolina will be here during the exposition.

Bills for the exposition will be posted in Raleigh in a few days.

The Stronach warehouse will be open on the 15th inst., by Mr. W. C. Moore, for the sale of leaf tobacco.

It is now understood that ten of the Southern States will have space at the exposition.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. V. B. Moore, administrator of John Gatling, deceased.

Barlow Bros. minstrels tomorrow night. The finest minstrel troupe in the country. Don't fail to see it.

When all the houses now being painted and fixed up are finished, Fayetteville street will present a splendid appearance.

The noise of the cotton compress will soon be heard in the land. This, together with the hum of the street cars will make Raleigh a lively place.

The new dormitories at the Agricultural and Mechanical College will soon be completed. They will add greatly to the appearance of the building.

About the busiest place in the city these days is the book store of Messrs. Alfred Williams & Co. The school children crowd the store daily purchasing books, stationery, &c., for school work.

The burglar who succeeds in getting into the vault of the new Farmers and Commercial bank, will have to hustle and no mistake. It will be perhaps one of the best and safest vaults in the United States.

We hope a proper regard will be paid to decorating the public buildings, stores &c., during the exposition. It adds immensely to the appearance of things, and shows that the people are alive to the occasion.

When a man begins to think he has the world in a sling, it is just the commencement of his being "slung." A friend suggested this to us this morning and said it would be a good thing to print. We have often thought of it, but it escaped our mind temporarily. It is an elegant reminder in many instances.

"A word to the wise is sufficient," but is not always wise to say that word to one who is suffering the tortures of a headache. However, always risk it and recommend Brandy-crotine. Sept 9 6t

Maj. Roberts, the efficient superintendent of the capitol and grounds, is having everything under his control put in first rate order for the exposition. The people of North Carolina will find their property nicely kept up. The capitol building is as neat as a new pin, while the grounds are undergoing a beautiful process in grading, &c.

What is a greater nuisance than for a man to be walking leisurely along the sidewalk in the street and to have a great cloud of dust swept into his eyes by a porter from store or yard. Yet this is a common occurrence. Want of sense or discretion, or both, prevent them frequently from stopping when people are passing. Frequently pedestrians are compelled to take to the street to avoid being almost smothered in dust. Fact.

Mr. W. J. Buchanan, chief of the Department of Agriculture of the World's Fair at Chicago, has written a letter to Mr. C. K. Bruner, secretary of the North Carolina Board of the World's Fair managers, suggesting that the farmers of this State should plant and raise some particular crop to make selections from for exhibits at the Chicago show, and also that they keep data and information connected with the cultivation thereof to be given in connection with it at the fair.

There was not an item to be gathered in the capitol today.

Mr. A. Dughi's telephone is 121—remember this.

It is now reasonably certain that the electric cars will be running to the exposition grounds by the 25th inst.

The Hillsboro road from the city limits to the exposition grounds will soon be one of the best in the State.

The most beautiful season of the year in this climate is now approaching. Nice, bracing weather.

The right foot of a five year old colored child was cut off by an electric car in Winston yesterday. Let this be a warning to Raleigh boys.

The calculations of the tax lists for Wake county are about finished and the books will be turned over to the sheriff next Tuesday.

Kate Parcell the dancing equestrienne is booked for Metropolitan Hall Nov. 2nd, in the sensational play of "Queen of the Plains." She has some of the finest trained horses in the world.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. to night at 7:30 o'clock sharp. The first degree will be conferred upon all candidates who present themselves promptly at 7:45 o'clock. Members of the lodge are earnestly requested to attend. A cordial invitation to all Odd Fellows.

Millinery Goods.

Our millinery department is now in full operation. A complete stock of fall millinery and an accomplished artist to trim you a hat. Visit our millinery.

D. T. SWINDELL.

Personal Mention.

We were glad to see our aged and highly esteemed fellow citizen Mr. Jno. C. Palmer riding out today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crocker returned this afternoon from a northern trip.

Our esteemed fellow citizen Maj. A. M. Lewis, who has been for a long time confined at home from rheumatism, is out again.

Mr. Lewis J. Battle has gone to Philadelphia to enter the Medical department of the University of Pa., for his second term.

Miss Belle W. Bagley left yesterday for Holyoke, Mass., where she will enter a Seminary.

We are sorry to learn that Dr. L. L. Nash is quite sick at his home on North Blount street.

Dr. J. H. Crawford has returned from his northern trip and will be at his office in the morning.

A Mistake.

We regret very much to see it announced that the coming exposition will not be kept open at night, or at least on some designated nights. This, as we understand it, is the result of not being able to procure electric lights, although Mr. Patrick says that he has corresponded with all the electric companies of the country and none would make a proposition. We consider this most unfortunate; there are numbers of persons who are compelled to work for a living and are therefore unable to lose the time to attend the show in the day.

The opening of the exhibition at night would be a great accommodation to such persons, as was shown at the exposition in 1884.

We hope that Mr. Patrick may yet be able to make some arrangement whereby proper lights may be secured. It will be a great disappointment to thousands not to be able to visit the grounds at night, and we believe it will be a serious loss to the enterprise.

Grand Opening.

On the 17th and 18th we will have our grand opening. All the ladies of the city and the young ladies of Peace and St. Mary's schools are invited.

D. T. SWINDELL.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor looked as bright as a new pin; this morning and seemed to enjoy the beautiful weather hugely. He presided with his usual dignity. The first case was one against a colored man, for indecent exposure at an entertainment. It seemed from the evidence to be a plain case and a fine of $5 and cost was imposed. No other case of importance.

The Tabernacle Building.

The rebuilding of the Tabernacle is making great progress. The steel ceiling is up and beautifully painted in the Sunday school room, which has been greatly enlarged, and will be the finest Sunday school room in the State. Next Sunday the Sunday school and public worship will be held in the main audience room of the Sunday school, and members of both the church and Sunday school and friends generally are requested and cordially invited to be present.

Annual Sermon Before the Y. M. C. A. of the University.

Bishop Edward Rondthaler, D. D., of Winston Salem, will preach the annual sermon before the Y. M. C. A. of the University next Sunday, Sept. 13.

The Bishop is one of the finest scholars in the South and is very popular with the University students. The Y. M. C. A. in the University is very vigorous and healthy. To it is largely due the fine standard of manliness and morality that gives the University pre-eminence.

Accommodations.

Mr. A. L. Ferrell, who has in charge the matter of canvassing the city for the purpose of ascertaining who are willing to accommodate boarders during the exposition, is making good headway, but, in order to accomplish the desired results in a reasonable time, he should have the cooperation of the citizens generally. He wishes to hear from such parties as will take boarders as soon as possible, and, to this end, wishes their names sent in at an early date. The notices should contain the street and number and also the number of boarders proposed to be taken, the rate of board, &c. Mr. Ferrell feels much encouraged so far, and thinks it beyond doubt that Raleigh will accommodate all who visit us during the exposition.

Barlow Brothers' Modern Minstrels

Are coming and will appear tomorrow night at Metropolitan Hall. This is one of the best known companies on the road and have a good reputation throughout the South, where they have appeared for the past five seasons. The press speak in flattering terms of the character of the entertainment. The New Orleans City Item has the following of the appearance of the company in that city.

"They say that laughing is contagious, and yet people cannot laugh unless there is something to make them. One continuous roar of laughter from over 1,800 people for over two and a half hours is a guarantee that they were delighted. Such was the case at the St. Charles Theatre last night, and Barlow Brothers' Mammoth Minstrels were the magnet that caused all this hilarity. From the first part to the afterpiece it was a programme of continual novelties each and every one being greeted with the most vociferous applause, and the entire performance merited the approbation of the large audience. Praise is unnecessary for the performance, for it is immense, and the only regret is that the house is not large enough to accommodate the patrons, hundreds being turned away last night, unable to secure standing room. The matinee for ladies and children has the same great programme, and those who cannot attend in the evening should do so in the afternoon."

Five bananas at Barbee & Pope's.

Sudden Deaths.

We deeply regret to announce the sudden death in Henderson, yesterday morning, of Mr. W. B. Wheeler.

Mr. Wheeler was well known in Raleigh where he lived for sometime, in the capacity of clerk for Mr. Jno. Creech. He was a native of Holly Springs, Wake county, which place he recently visited to see his father. He left his wife and children there temporarily and engaged in business at Henderson. He was a most estimable gentleman and had many warm friends.

An aged lady named Mrs. Fannie Newell was found dead at her residence on East Martin street this morning. She was laying near the door and it is thought she fell from a chair during the night. She has been suffering with consumption for many years and it is supposed she had a hemorrhage which was the immediate cause of death. We learn that such has been the precarious state of Mrs. Newell's health that five years ago, she paid for a coffin at Mr. J. W. Brown's to be delivered at her death; she also paid in advance for the digging of her grave.

The funeral was preached at 5 o'clock this afternoon from the residence by Rev. A. D. Betts. Mr. J. W. Brown was the funeral director in charge.

This Day and Tomorrow

Moquette carpets and velvet carpets at Swindell's at 85c. This is first quality and beautiful new patterns and moquette borders to match. See what we have to match in carpets before you venture to buy, and of course you must buy a carpet for the exposition.

DRESS GOODS.—You must buy dress goods, and of course you want to see what is new in town in dress goods. Now we have about the largest stock of dress goods in the State and all manner of trimmings to match. We are keeping the correct thing in dress stuffs. We are in the dress goods business. We are with you, remember.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL,

SEPTEMBER—THE TIME FOR
—DRESS GOODS—

THIS MONTH
is the time to think of and buy Dress Goods

September is an interesting month for the customer who wishes to buy, and for the storekeeper who wishes to sell; and we are not going to let this September be any exception to the rest.

IT IS NOW
particularly interesting in dress goods, and will continue so, for our buyer is daily letting us have the best that money will procure.

We would like to tell you of every line of dress materials that he has sent us, but we can only tell you of a portion.

AMONG THE LAST
he sent was a little lot of Dress Plaids at 40c—very stylish. Then at 50c are a lot of beauties; one line of Striped and Plaid Scotch Cheviots, look almost like Cassimeres—but that is the right finish for this season.

Another lot at 50c in Plaids, very wide, 44 inches. This lot at all rough finish, but still good sellers.

Of the goods there is one line of beauties—medium and dark grounds with bright Roman stripes. Another lot equally as good, but less conspicuous—these Irish Tweeds—nothing wears better, and they closely resemble materials at twice their price.

The above are what we consider among the best at the prices, but probably after seeing the stock you will like others, for we have so many kinds, and we know the prices are right on all.
