NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Equal days and nights.
Dust getting fearful.
A good shower would help out wonderfully, just now.
A good deal of old cotton is coming in.

Mosquitos are putting in their appearance with considerable effect these nights.

Forepaugh's big show is making its way to the South and may put in its appearance during the exposition.

Stronach's warehouse is being beautifully decorated for the musical festival.

Workmen were engaged all last night in leveling the track between the city and the Exposition grounds.

"Jim the Westerner," will soon put in his appearance here. He is said to be an unusually funny fellow.

See "Uncle Hiram" at Metropolitan Hall tonight and enjoy a hearty laugh. It will be good for the health.

Wm. Sprague Smith, Providence, R. I., writes: "I find Bradyceroline always cures headache." Sept 16 61.

Point the fence around the Capitol square. It needs it and will look much better.

The new drop curtains in Metropolitan Hall will be a beauty. More about it, and its skillful designer hereafter.

The Commissioners of Granville county have increased its appropriation for getting up an exhibit for the Inter State Exposition from ten to twenty dollars in each township.

Next Friday and Saturday are the days set apart for the examination of applicants before the Supreme Court, to practice law. The first district will be called next Monday.

Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, Royal Arch Masons will hold a regular convocation this evening at 8 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present. Royal Arch Degree to be conferred.

Can't President George push up the matter of opening the line on Hillsboro street to a respectable distance. As it is, the cars may as well not run at all.

We hope Mr. Patrick will use his best efforts to have the buildings lighted up at night during the exposition. There is an universal demand that the exposition be opened at night.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 5th, 6th and 7th, have been set apart as Virginia days at the exposition. The "Old Dominion" is expected here in full blast.

There is much disappointment manifested because the rate of fare on the railroads is not put down at one cent a mile as was done in 1884, when the rates were lowered to that figure after the first part of October. It worked like a charm then, and it should be done now.

The argument in the Caraleigh railway case was concluded today and the Commissioners awarded Mr. Goodwin $300 as damages; the amount claimed, we believe was $5,000.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. W. R. Newsom, one of our most popular business men in the grocery line. He offers such inducements as must attract public attention.

The work of painting and repairing the Mayor's office has been completed, and Mayor Badger and Chief Heartt are moving their books etc., back again. It is now a most beautiful court room, and the Mayor and Chief will look much happier tomorrow. Both of them have looked rather worried for a day or so. A return of their genial smiles will shed lustre all around.

Don't forget "Uncle Hiram" to night.

Work of laying heavier rails on the Hillsboro street line of the electric railway, is progressing very rapidly today.

The Charlotte orchestra is announced to take part in the musical festival here soon. It will prove a most valuable addition.

An Important Chicken.

Esquire J. C. Marcom had on sale this morning, at his store, a chicken which has been the occasion of six law suits. It is not a large chicken and there is nothing remarkably peculiar about its looks, but then it has been remarkably prolific in producing strife.

Incorporated.

Late yesterday afternoon the clerk of the Superior Court issued letters of incorporation for the Switchback Railway Company of Raleigh, N. C. The incorporators are J. D. Boushall, H. B. Battle and J. N. Holding. The capital stock is placed at $5,000, to be increased if desired to $50,000. The price of shares is put at $50 each.

"Kranich & Bach" Pianos.

See 'ad' today of North State Music Company, and go to them for a bargain in second hand pianos. Mr. Stone says that the success and popularity of the celebrated Kranich & Bach pianos is simply wonderful. They received a special award at the last State Fair as being far the best exhibited. Mr. Stone says besides his present stock, he will have a half dozen more Kranich & Bach pianos in a few days.

Those Railroad Rates.

The railroads have finally fixed the rates to be charged to the Exposition at Raleigh, two cents a mile or a little less. This is disappointing to the people and very much against the success of the great enterprise. The Exposition in 1884 was a failure until the railroads reduced the fare to one cent a mile, and had not that reduction taken place, it would have been a failure to the end. What right have the roads to expect it differently this year?

There is short sightedness in railroad counsels somewhere, which will make itself manifest yet.

A Sad Case.

Mr. Charles Edwards, a young man about thirty five years of age was brought to the city on Friday last from the country and placed in St. Johns' Hospital for treatment. It was soon discovered that his mind was so seriously impaired that it was necessary to confine him. Last evening he was taken to the station house where he remained during the night. It was understood today, that steps are being taken to have him placed in the Insane Asylum. Mr. Edwards is said to have been a gentleman of much popularity, and his sad case causes much sympathy.

"Uncle Hiram."

In "Uncle Hiram," the New England Home Comedy, that will be played here tonight, the comedian Aaron H. Woodhull has a special and entirely new creation of the "down east countryman." It is a natural, complete individualization. As the shrewd old farmer making his way among the crooks and sharps of the city, he is irresistibly funny. It is a capital piece of acting, and one keeps laughing at and liking him all the way through. One of the least funny things Uncle Hiram does is buying "3 pure Havana cigars for five cents," which he tries to give away to everybody he meets, but no one accepts; at the finish of the play he offers them to the audience, which brings down the curtain with a howl of laughter. A special set of scenery is carried for the last act, which shows the New York Harbor, with the Bartholdi Statue and Brooklyn Bridge in the distance.

Personal Mention.

Hon. C. M. Cook, of Franklin county, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Ex-Judge Womack was in the city yesterday.

Hon. W. H. Lucas, N. C. Fish and Oyster Commissioner, is in the city.

Mrs. Wm. Boylan is very ill.

R. M. Furman, Esq., of Asheville, is here, looking as well as ever.

Mr. W. H. Howard, of Apex was in the city today.

First Class Tailoring Establishment.

There are several things essential in every community. One of these is a reliable tailoring establishment; of this Raleigh can boast of in the one conducted by Mr. Geo. N. Walters. Mr. Walters keeps nice goods and does good work. He has recently had his rooms painted and brushed up without and within, and is looking for a substantial fall trade.

Opened.

The graded schools have opened in this township under the most favorable auspices. In the white schools yesterday the attendance was over eight hundred, and a larger number than usual in the colored schools. Professor Moses extended a most cordial welcome at the Centennial Graded School, and Mr. Parker, the Principal, welcomed them at the Marpley School.

Grand Sire Busbee.

The following dispatch was received here yesterday from the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, now in session at St. Louis:

Representative Orendorf, of Illinois, moved the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the Sovereign Grand Lodge has learned with feelings of deep regret of Grand Sire Busbee's affliction by the hand of disease, which prevents his attendance at this session, and desires at this, its first opportunity, to express its heartfelt sorrow and loving sympathy, together with the earnest hope and prayer that he may soon be restored to health and the performance of the duties of the high office which he has adorned by his eminent services.

THO. A. ROSS,
Grand Secretary.

Serious Accident.

This morning between 7 and 8 o'clock quite a serious accident occurred on the Hillsboro line of the electric street railway. Near the corner of Hillsboro and Dawson streets a switch is being prepared, and a force of workmen are engaged in fixing up the track &c. As one of the cars was coming down from the power house to resume the run of the day, it jumped the track at this point. Mr. George Fudge, Superintendent of construction was present, and with a crow bar was endeavoring to prize it on again. In doing so, the crow bar while prizing the wheel flew up and the shock caused Mr. Fudge to fall backwards. As he did so, the car started off and he was struck by the projecting edge of the "car guard" which corresponds with the cow catcher of a locomotive in keeping the track clear. Mr. Fudge was struck on the fleshy part of the right leg by the sharp point of the guard inflicting a deep and gaping wound between the knee and ankle. The limb about the knee was also much bruised. Medical aid was at once summoned and the unfortunate gentleman was conveyed in an ambulance furnished by Mr. Jno. W. Brown to his quarters at the Yarboro House.

Mr. Fudge, is, we believe from Massachusetts. During his sojourn among us he has won many friends, who very much sympathize with him. It is sincerely hoped that by prompt medical attention no very dangerous results will follow. It was however, a near escape from instant death.

Mayor's Court.

It looked little like a field day at the Mayor's levee this morning, but it was altogether "much ado about nothing." Several trivial cases were up with the usual results of $5 and cost. A case against Emma Coats for disorderly conduct, was postponed at the request of counsel for the defendant, Mr. J. C. L. Harris, until ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

For the Benefit of those who are Fitting up Extra Rooms.
