NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Commissioner Lucas reports all quiet in the oyster waters.

Rain brewing, but no equinoctial storm in sight.

Only one cent a mile is the rate on the railroads to the exposition. Don't forget this, and come along.

See notice of boarders wanted by Capt. D. G. Conn, 106, west Jones St. St. Mary's School will open tomorrow.

Let everybody deccrate for the Exposition.

All is in active preparation at the Exposition grounds.

New furniture is being placed in the addition to the Yarboro House.

Attention is called to the notice of the incorporation of the "Switchback railway of Raleigh, N. C."

Next Friday is the day on which we are promised the electric cars will run to the exposition grounds.

Large posters have been put up announcing the colored musical festival during the exposition.

Next Monday is the day set apart for the opening of the Commercial and Farmers Bank.

It is considered certain that Mr. W. B. Chardwick will be re-elected president of the A. & N. C. Railroad at the meeting of the directors tomorrow.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad will be held at Morehead City tomorrow.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of the New York Bargain House in this issue. This is really a bargain house.

Mess Barbee & Pope, with their usual progressive spirit have placed a new and beautiful sign at their establishment, on Fayetteville street.

Commissioner Jno. Robinson who has recently been to Franklin county, says there will not be over a half crop of tobacco made there. This is bad news.

The stockholders of the Grimw Brownstone Company were in session today at the office of Col. Hiasdale. A permanent organization of the company has been effected.

Can't it be so arranged that passengers during the exposition can be landed at the new depot. It will give the visitors a better impression of our city.

A fine drove of beef cattle and hogs passed up the street this afternoon. They are the property of our friend, Mr. Schwartz, who will have them butchered.

Read the advertisement of Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach, and if you are threatened with indigestion call at their store and leave orders for some of the celebrated bread baked at their bakery. It will cure you.

Ladies, ladies, think of the engagements you have broken and the disappointments consequent to others and perhaps also to yourselves, all on account of headache. Bradyceroline will cure you in fifteen minutes. se23 6t

The rush of advertisements upon us is great, as will be readily seen by a glance at our columns. We therefore respectfully ask our patrons desiring their advertisements changed to send them in each day before 12 o'clock, if possible. This will insure insertion the same day.

Rev. Dr. Nash, of Central Methodist church, last night, had occasion to refer to the spitting upon the carpet by some person the night before. It is passing strange that there should be those found in a decent community so filthy in their habits and abandoned to decency as to mutilate and deface church property in this way. Such conduct is disgraceful and vicious.

Oh, my, you ought to see the pretty shoes from 90 cents up at the New York Bargain House.

The matter for which the Chamber of Commerce was called tonight in special meeting having been arranged there will not be a meeting of the body.

"Uncle Hiram."

Last night there was a large attendance at Metropolitan Hall to witness the rendition of "Uncle Hiram," and all were delighted. The play in all respects was an excellent one, abounding in clever hits, which brought down the house. We commend the company to the public patronage wherever it appears.

I. O. O. F.

THEM, Sec'y.

GLORIOUS NEWS.

One Cent a Mile to Visit the Exposition.

Last night a telegram was received from Mr. Sol. Haas, Traffic Manager of the R. & D. Railroad System announcing that the rate of fare over their lines for persons visiting the exposition, would be placed at ONE CENT a mile. This means one cent a mile each way.

This is glorious news and ensures for the exposition a tremendous crowd.

A telegram was also received here yesterday from Mr. F. W. Clark, General Passenger Agent of the Seaboard Air Line, announcing that his system would also give the one cent a mile rates over all their roads. These rates will be in effect on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. The Richmond & Danville announces that their rates will be in effect on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Personal Mention.

Dr. S. W. Thompson, of New Light Township, is in the city.

We deeply regret to note that Mrs. M. B. Barbee is seriously ill.

Mr. Robert M. Utzman is quite sick at his residence 127, North Dawson street.

Miss Annie L. Jones returned Monday last from the Panacea Springs after a most delightful and beneficial visit.

The Misses Ella Duffey and Ada Latham, who have been visiting their cousin, Miss Duffey Conn, for the past two months, left on yesterday for their homes, in Alexandria, Va., leaving many who regret their going and greatly desire their early return to the "City of Oaks."

Revival at Central Methodist Church.

On account of the sickness of Rev. Mr. Rowland, Rev. Dr. Nash, the pastor, preached last night to a large and attentive congregation, and quite a number went forward as seekers. The large auditorium of this new church was well filled, and the Dr. preached a strong, timely sermon which was highly appreciated. The interest in this meeting is large and growing.

Reserved seat tickets for the lecture of Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., on Wednesday night 30th, will be on sale at the bookstore of A. Williams & Co., on and after Friday morning next. Price of same, 75 cents. "The almighty Dollar" will be the attractive subject and will be treated as only Tom Dixon can do it.

Electric Car Rates.

Correspondence of the VISITOR.

It is noticed in your paper that you urge the charge of only five cents a passenger to the exposition grounds on the electric cars. This is based it is supposed on the current rumor that a fare of ten cents will be charged on the electric railway for all points beyond the corporate limits.

Now in accordance with the views of nearly every body who has talked upon the subject, such a course as this is well calculated to render the lines unpopular from the start. Just as an illustration, let us suppose a passenger gets on the cars at the capitol, now the starting point. He goes as far as Maj. Tuckers' corner which is about the end of the city limits and pays five cents. This is hardly three quarters of a mile, making it at the rate of six cents a mile. This is almost ridiculous and is not to be found in any city of considerable size in the United States. The proposition is to charge five cents within the corporate limits and 10 cts if the cars run outside. Now if the electric cars are intended merely as a means of riding for pleasure there might be some excuse for this, but it would rather appear that "convenience" should be taken into account. At the proposed tariff of rates the electric cars will prove of little no advantage to persons in the immediate suburbs whose daily callings require their attendance in the city, and it is preposterous to suppose that they will be patronized to any great extent. It is a matter no less grave for the street car company than for the public. It is the general desire that the rates shall be as reasonable as in most other cities. It has been hinted that the ten cent arrangement is proposed, so that it may be consistent with the rates charged heretofore by the Air Line road. There is no good reason why the public should suffer to accommodate a corporation and they will so decide. The exposition grounds are not two miles from the capitol, and a charge of five cents a mile is monstrous when it is considered that in some cities of the south, a distance of about seven or eight miles is traveled for the same sum.

FAIRNESS.

Judge Leigh R. Watts, Gen. Counsel of the Seaboard Air Line, was in the city yesterday.

Rates to the Exposition.

As there seems to be some rumors afloat concerning the prices of admission to the Southern Exposition, we publish the following which are established prices furnished by Gen. Chilton:

Male adults, one admission	50cts
" " " week	$2.00
" " " month	$5.00
" " " two months	$10.00

" " " week	$1.50
" " " month	$3.00
" " " two months	$5.00
Children, one admission	25cts
" " " week	75cts
" " " month	$1.50
" " " two months	$2.50

This makes the charges for the season less than 15 cents per day. Ladies less than 10 cents per day. Children less than 5 cents per day.
