NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

School girls coming in.
Cotton beginning to open freely.
The fountain in Moore square is choked up again—unchoke it.
Distressingly dull in and around the capitol today.
The cotton compress expects to do a thriving business this season.
Hog cholera is reported in the lower part of Wake near the Nash line.
And still no equinoxial gale in sight.
The work of paving Hillsboro street west to the city limits is progressing.
Commissioner Lucas reports all quiet in the oyster waters.
Fix up the sidewalks. Let strangers come and go with a good impression.
The Oxford Orphan Asylum will have an exhibit in Granville county's space at the Exposition.
A cool wave is promised us in a day or so. This will be good news, at least to oyster lovers.
Tomorrow is the date announced unofficially for the street cars to run to the exposition grounds.
St. Mary's school opened for the fall term this morning under the most flattering prospects.
The number of students at the Agricultural and Mechanical College is nearly a hundred.
Paint the fence around the capitol square and remove the old arsenal. It will make everything in the surroundings look better.
The Oxford Day is now two years old. It is a bright new sheet full of most interesting matter. Long life to it.
Old bonds to the amount of $10,000 were sent in to the Treasury Department yesterday afternoon to be converted into new 1 per cent consols.
We are pleased to state that the condition of Mrs. M. B. Barbee, who has been seriously ill, is somewhat improved.
We learn that Mr. George Fudge, who was so badly hurt by an electric car, is doing as well as could be expected. We sincerely hope he may soon be all right again.
A large number of rooms &c., in different parts of the city are being fitted up with cots for the accommodation of visitors during the Exposition.
Why should not the railroad authorities of the Air Line come down to five cents, with as much consistency as the electric railway folks go up to ten cents. "Let Mahomet go to the mountain."
Yesterday the Morning Star of Wilmington entered upon the 25th year of its brilliant career. It has been useful. May its bright syntillations continue on.
Our oysters are giving any amount of trouble, or rather the protection of them. Hon. W. H. Lucas, chief shell fish Commissioner is having his hands full to prevent certain persons from taking possession of the public oyster beds and making private property of them.
Ladies, ladies, think of the engagements you have broken and the disappointments consequent to others and perhaps also to yourselves, all on account of headache. Bradycrotine will cure you in fifteen minutes. sep 23 0t

Now that the various railroads of the State have agreed to charge but one cent a mile for coming here, surely the electric street cars can afford to take passengers from Raleigh to the grounds for five cents. The distance is less than two miles, and surely two and a half cents a mile is sufficient, making five cents for the trip. At the rate proposed (10 cents) it will be five cents a mile.

Dust continues fearful.
See notice of boarders wanted by Mrs. Joseph Blake.
Brewster has caught the fever and is having his establishment nicely fixed up by paint and otherwise.
The matrimonial market is still dull. Register Mial is doing a poor business in that line.
Branson's Directory estimates the census of Raleigh township at about 18,000.
Light up the Exposition grounds and exhibit at night. Everybody desires it.
A check for $240 payable to J. Q. Adams has been found. Proof of ownership can be left at this office.
We are authorized to announce that the electric cars commenced running this morning on the Hillsboro street line as far as St. Mary's school.
Just received a large and well assorted line of linen table cloths, napkins, towels &c., which will be sold cheaper than ever heard of in Raleigh at the New York Bargain House.
Get your bunting ready and fix up. Let the strangers at our gates find us in brilliant array. It will add new life to everything. Let us all decorate.
It is echoed and re-echoed by everybody that ten cents a passenger on the electric cars to the exposition grounds is too much.
Light up the exposition and give us night exhibits. "Where there is a will, there is a way," and we are sure Mr. Patrick will do his level best.
A farmer in town today said that the present weather was all that could be desired. He said cotton was bursting open like popcorn.
A few cases of drunks and downs, drunk on the street and other similar offences constituted the bulk of the Mayor's levee today.
It is said that over 100,000 complimentary tickets have so far, been issued to different parties throughout the country, to attend the exposition.
The office of the Postal Telegraph Company at the exposition grounds, will be in the main building near the headquarters of the newspaper men.
And still the scarcity of dwelling houses exists. The city is rapidly increasing in population and it is evident there could be no better investment than in houses for small families. What say our capitalists?
Next Wednesday night is the time set for delivery of the lecture by Rev. Thos. Dixon, Jr., entitled "The Almighty Dollar." It will be a rich intellectual treat.
There will be a concert given by the colored people in Metropolitan Hall tonight for the benefit of the Hesperian Society. Admission 15 cents.
The musicale which takes place tonight at the residence of Mr. Garland Jones will be an interesting occasion. An attractive programme will be presented.
The establishment of Messrs. Giersch & Stonebanks on Fayetteville street opposite the post office has been most beautifully decorated. We hope the idea will be carried out generally.
The services continue at Central Methodist Church. Dr. Nash preached to a large congregation last night, notwithstanding he had a chill in the afternoon and was suffering from fever at the time. There were quite a number of persons seeking religion. There will be services tonight at 8 o'clock.
Buy N. C. Hams, Sides and Shoulders at D. T. JOHNSON'S.
Lost.
A bunch of four keys on a heart shaped ring. The finder will please leave the same at the VISITOR office.
Nice mellow apples by the barrel or peck at D. T. JOHNSON'S.

Married.
At the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, on the 23rd inst., Mr. Henry Jones and Miss Mary Congleton. A large number of relatives were present. The happy couple go forth with the best wishes of their many friends.

Address.
It is understood that Governor Holt will deliver the address of welcome at the Exposition, in behalf of the State of North Carolina, at the opening, on the 1st of October. Mayor Badger will deliver the address of welcome in behalf of the city of Raleigh. Hon. F. P. Richardson, editor of the Atlanta Journal, will respond in behalf of the South. Mr. Octavius Cohen, of the Charleston World, will deliver an address on the "Real South."

Idlers.
A morning contemporary calls attention to the fact that while the band of the "Uncle Hiram" company was playing in front of Metropolitan Hall Tuesday morning there was a crowd of perhaps two hundred people, nearly all colored who stood around for an hour or so.
This reminds us that there seems to be a great want of energy on the part of some of our colored people, as well as some whites, towards making a living. It is a lamentable fact that in and around our market house and other public places, there are always a crowd of loungers and idlers, who will not be tempted to work even for a fair consideration. An incident is recalled by a gentleman bearing upon the matter in point. He says that a few mornings since, he had a note he desired to send to a friend, not over a square distant. A little negro boy was sitting nodding on a dry goods box, and he offered him a nickel to carry the note; the reply was "I can't, boss, I am busy," when told that it looked but little like being busy, when he was nodding, he said "I look for a job after awhile, and I am resting now."
The city is full of such, who are in a fair way to fill our jails and work-houses. Laziness seems to be the order of the day among them. Just let court be in session and daily there can be seen a big crowd lounging about the room or asleep on the benches. Is not this a nuisance that calls for a vigorous enforcement of the vagrant act. We think so.

Personal Mention.
Rev. Alexander Sprunt is in the city.
Mr. R. B. Peebles, of Northampton county, is in the city.
President Winston, of the State University, is in the city.
We had the pleasure of seeing Hon. W. R. Cox, in the city yesterday afternoon.
Gov. Holt has gone to Burgaw where he delivered an address to the Ex-Confederates today.
Col. Paul F. Faison has gone to Morehead to attend the Stockholders meeting of the A. & N. O. Railroad.
Mr. C. F. King of the Atlanta Journal is in the city for the purpose of opening a bureau at the Interstate Exposition in the interest of his paper.
We had the pleasure in seeing in the city today, Mr. W. G. Peterson, general representative of "Jim the Westerner." He is a gentleman of most entertaining conversational powers, and assures us that his company will "fill the bill" in all respects.
Mrs. Dr. R. B. Ellis and her charming daughter Miss Evie, left the city today for a visit to relatives and friends in the eastern part of the state. It is hoped by the many friends they have left in the city of Oaks that their stay will be a short one, and their early return will be anxiously looked for.
Fine large Irish Potatoes by the barrel at D. T. JOHNSON'S.

"Jim, the Westerner."
This splendid production which is being received in all the principal cities of the country with immense enthusiasm, will be produced at Metropolitan Hall next Friday night. On Wednesday night last it was performed at the Academy of Music in Norfolk. The News & Courier says: "The enthusiasm of the audience was unbounded, and time after time the curtain was rung up to satisfy the rapturous applause. Every character was well taken."
We are assured by the Manager that the play throughout is chaste and decorous, avoiding all that might be considered in the least degree offensive.
