NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

The circus bills will be put up next Monday.

The street sprinkler is a blessing these days.

The cars are running out to the Exposition grounds today.

Dull times continue at the court house.

A dispensary has been built at Shaw University.

Mr. Jas. Powell is in charge of the Chatham county exhibits.

"Jim Westerner" at Metropolitan Hall next Tuesday night.

All the faculty of the University will be here during the Exposition in force.

Lookout for the circus. It will be here on the 13th of October. Bledsoe's grove will be the place.

The Superior Court will be in session next week for the trial of criminal cases.

President Chadwick, of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad was yesterday re-elected.

Telegrams from all over the country asking space at the Exposition grounds are daily being received.

There will be a meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company tonight at 7:30. Let every member be present.

Cases from the first district will be called before the Supreme Court next Monday.

On the 20th inst., the Railway Commission will take up the matter of Express charges.

Stone culverts are being put at the intersection of South Harrington and West Martin streets.

A baby show is to be one of the features at the Exposition. It will be under control of the Standard Music Company of Winston.

Applicants to practice law were examined before the Supreme Court today. A large number of the University class are here.

The cotton receipts in Raleigh for the week ending yesterday were 521 bales against 1932 for the same time last year.

Miss Maggie Reese has returned from the northern cities, and will in a few days display an elegant line of millinery for ladies and children.

One of the interesting features at the Exposition will be the drawings and shape exercises from the Manual Training department of the Graded School of Charlotte.

Mr. E. G. Gill, of Wake Forest, is here getting ready for the Wake county exhibit next week. He has collected fine specimens which will prove a great credit to the county.

Ladies, ladies, think of the engagements you have broken and the disappointments consequent to others and perhaps also to yourselves, all on account of headache. Bradyrotine will cure you in fifteen minutes. se23 6t

There has been an Encampment badge, I. O. O. F., found and the owner can recover the same by applying at the station house. The badge has engraved upon it the initials R. L. B.

We invite special attention to the advertisement of the New York Bargain House in this issue. No better stock can be found in this city, and the prices are such as cannot fail to attract the attention of our people generally.

Notwithstanding many warnings, evil disposed persons continue to tamper with the wire fence around Moore Park. The wires in some cases are badly twisted and in others they are pulled out of place. Such wanton conduct is almost unpardonable and the perpetrators if found should be severely dealt with.

Davis School Cadets are coming to the Exposition.

It is said that the State Weather Service has about fifty frost warning stations.

Gov. Holt has accepted an invitation to deliver an address and open the Cumberland county Fair at Fayetteville.

Only five cents being charged on the street cars outside of the corporate limits. Hurrah. Now let everybody patronize the road. It deserves it.

Mr. Willie Hood has accepted a position in the New York Bargain House, where he will be pleased to see his friends.

Mr. A. J. Cooke, representative of the Associated Railway, proposes to have an office in the Yarboro House north of Col. A. B. Andrews.

There are now about 215 pupils in the white and colored departments of the Deaf and Dumb Institutions in this city.

The revival services at Central Methodist Church continue with increasing interest. Rev. Dr. Cordon preached last night to a crowded house.

We learn that there are now about one hundred and sixty students at Peace Institute. This speaks well for the management of this most excellent school.

The game of base ball played yesterday afternoon between the Winston Blues and the Richmond Giants, at Winston, resulted in a victory for the Blues by a score of 5 to 3.

Since the late decision of the commissioners appointed to determine the matter of damages in the Carolina Railway case, the building of the road has been resumed from the county road to the Cotton Mills.

Remember the special sale of table linen goods, curtains, and bed sets on next Tuesday, Sept. 29th at the New York Bargain House.

The Oxford Asylum Exhibit.

Capt. J. B. Hunter, who has in charge the exhibit of the Oxford Asylum, desires that the ladies of Raleigh should interest themselves in its behalf. It is expected to be an exhibit of much interest, and will no doubt attract general attention.

If you have any table cloths, napkins or towels to buy, wait for the special sale next Tuesday at the New York Bargain House.

Personal Mention.

Misses Mary Lee and Bessie Wyatt who have been visiting friends in Durham, have returned home.

Judge James E. Shepherd of the Supreme Court, is in the city.

Misses Sallie Carter, Martha Haywood and Minnie Tucker have arrived in New York from Europe.

We were pleased to meet our venerable friend Maj. A. M. Lewis on the street this morning. He has recently been much confined from sickness, but is now much improved.

Hon. J. Turner Morehead, of Leaks ville, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. N. D. Roberts, press agent of Robinson's circus, is in the city.

Judge Strong has returned from Durham where he went as counsel of the Durham Globe vs the Western Union Telegraph Co. The Globe lost the suit and appealed.

Miss Louella Makeley and Miss Bessie Patterson of New Berne came up yesterday to attend St. Mary's school the present session.

The sale of the Fowle furniture &c, will continue tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

ARMISTEAD JONES, Adm'r.
Buy N. C. Hams, Sides and Shoulders at D. T. JOHNSON'S.

Fine large Irish Potatoes by the barrel at D. T. JOHNSON'S.

The Doll's Festival

You are invited to attend the Doll's festival to be given by the Continuing Circle of King's Daughters on the Park Place Lawn, North Blount St., Saturday evening from five to eight o'clock. A large and beautiful company of dolls will be in attendance. Everything pretty that goes to make up a dolls outfit will be for sale at reasonable rates. Pretty fancy things can be had by the older people and refreshments by all.

Meeting.

A meeting of the committee on the Normal and Industrial School took place last night. Maj. S. M. Finger, Chairman, Dr. R. A. Stanford, Prof. M. C. S. Noble and Prof. E. Mc K. Goodwin were present. A plan for the building was agreed upon, which is chiefly the plan of Maj. Finger, assisted by Mess. Epps & Hackett, architects. It is now expected that the buildings will be finished in time to open the school in the summer of 1892.

"Jim, the Westerner."

Next Tuesday night this splendid representation will be placed on the boards at Metropolitan Hall. It has had a tremendous run wherever it has been presented throughout the country. The scenery is peculiarly adapted to the piece and is of beautiful design, while the performance is of the most chaste character. As an instance of the popularity of the piece, it can be stated that in Richmond the crowd was so great that they had to stop taking in.

Call For a Mass Meeting.

To the Hon. Mayor of the City of Raleigh:

The undersigned citizens of Raleigh feeling the importance of the city taking an active part in the opening exercises of the Southern Exposition, hereby respectfully ask you to issue a call for a mass meeting of the citizens, to be held in Metropolitan Hall tonight, to consider what steps are necessary to be taken by the citizens in order to show our interest and appreciation of this Great Southern Exposition:

Important.

One of the most important assemblages to take place here next month will be the convention of Northern Settlers to be held October 5-10th, at the Exposition grounds to express to the world their views of the South and its people. We hope there will be a very large attendance from every Southern State.

Dress Goods.

We are now showing a large and complete assortment of Dress Goods and trimmings to match. We have all the new and most fashionable shades and designs of the very best quality, and we have a large line of medium price goods. Also something very cheap, in this line we can furnish you any quality or price that you may want. In blankets, comforts and counterpanes we have an endless variety and we guarantee they will suit you in quality and price. We have on exhibit in our second floor department the largest stock of carpets ever brought to this market. We are prepared to suit you in cheap, medium, or fine carpeting; come and see our stock before making your selection.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL,

Furniture, Attention House-keepers.

The special attention of every housekeeper is directed to new lines of furniture which we are now showing. Folding beds, children's folding beds, chamber suits, chairs &c. These goods are offered at remarkably low prices, and we would advise those who need anything in the furniture line to see our new stock now open. Those who still have preparations to make for the Exposition, will find this lot of furniture stylish, durable and very reasonable in price.
