NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Close up.
Circus bills are being put up
New tobacco coming in quite freely.
The arch is rapidly going up. It will be ready in ample time.
The cupola of the market house is being painted today.
New cotton coming in pretty freely just now.
Fine showers and the dust effectually laid.
Don't hesitate to come to the great Exposition. A most cordial welcome awaits you.
Applications for direct taxes are now rather slim at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court.
The latch strings of the EVENING VISITOR office will be loose during the Exposition. Come and see us.
It has been suggested that an electric light be placed on the top of the welcome arch.
A solitary drunk and down constituted the mayor's docket this morning.
The 'Almighty Dollar' at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night. Be sure to attend.
Painting and cleaning up is the order of the day. Everybody is brushing up for the exposition.
It is said that Robinson's circus will present one of the most gorgeous displays ever seen in this state. It will be here October 13th.
The exhibits at the exposition grounds are being put in proper shape. By Thursday next the display will be grand.
If you want to spend an hour or so of real enjoyment, go to Metropolitan Hall to night and see "Jim, the Westerner."
The colored department of the Exposition will not open until October 15th.
The Stuart Horse Guards, of Richmond, Va., are expected to be present at some time during the Exposition.
Otey, the barber, is determined not to be left in the onward movement. He is having the front of his business quarters beautifully painted and otherwise fixed up.
The committee in charge of the matter announce that all the business men but four have agreed to close their places next Thursday. We hope all may come in and make it a general matter.
Don't fail to be on hand at Metropolitan Hall tonight, "Jim, the Westerner," will hold the boards and it will be an occasion of first class enjoyment. The plot is fine and the acting admirable.
The lecture on the "Almighty Dollar," by the Rev. Thomas Dixon at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night, will not begin until 8:30. This time will give those an opportunity of attending who otherwise could not do so. Beautiful lithographs of this famous orator and lecturer have been placed in our store windows. Reserved seat tickets can be secured at Alfred Williams & Co's book store.
The matter of street car fare to the Exposition grounds seems to have been settled. A charge of ten cents will be charged from the city to the GROUNDS. That is, if a passenger goes as far as the grounds he is charged ten cents; stopping this side, (or what may be termed local traffic) a charge of five cents is made. The rate from St. Mary's to the GROUNDS, is five cents. This is understood to be the arrangement.
Ladies, ladies, think of the engagements you have broken and the appointments consequent to others and perhaps also to yourselves, all on account of headache. Bradyrotine will cure you in fifteen minutes. se23 6t

See notice of J. W. Hinsdale, coprorator.

The Commercial and Farmers Bank will open tomorrow.

We hear much talk about proposed belt lines for our street railway, but nothing definite.

The meeting at Central Church still continues, and is growing in interest and influence. Dr. Nash is doing some strong preaching.

Progressing Finely.

Exhibits at the Exposition grounds are not at all in position by any means, nor will they all be on the opening day, but they are not more behind than other Expositions. Indeed Mr. Patrick says he has never known an Exposition farther advanced at this stage, in point of time, than this. Certainly a great change in the appearance of things has taken place there in the last few days. Florida, Mississippi, Virginia, Georgia, South Carolina and the exhibits of other states are being arranged for and some are being put in position in a very attractive shape. It seems the nearer people are, the more they procrastinate, Raleigh seems much behind. The Agricultural department folks are busy. The N. C. Experiment Station will be represented handsomely in a space 40 by 88 feet. The different sections in the department, will be there. Mr. Patrick's office is a busy place.

The Staff.

In order that they may be promptly on hand, we publish the following list of Marshals for Thursday next, appointed by Chief Marshal Frank Stronach. They are as follows, and are requested to meet at the Mayor's office tonight at 8 o'clock.

J O Porter, Dr W H Bobbitt, A C Davis, George Mosley, Thos Badger, Jr., Miles Goodwin, Mont Williams, G B Underwood, C A Goodwin, J D Carroll, Seth Jones, J E Stagg, J C Dobbin, W C Norris, Alex Snellings, J E Bridgers, S G Richardson, E V Richardson, F A Gray, J L Stone, Tom Burns, W W Green, R O Bissett, Moses M Perry, Starke Batchelor, Dr Brox Banks, J D Johnson, Alfons Myatt, J J Horton, Len Wilder, W A Parker, J F Brown, W H Bain, F P Haywood, Jr., C D Fucker, Dr J J McCullers, Thomas Mial, June D Turner, W G Allen, Joseph Walton, W H Broughton, H W Jackson, John Y MacRae, C B Wright, DeWit Smith, C P Rand, Geo Mitchner, Byron Whitaker, J B Edwards, P G Mangum, G E Leach, David Stephenson, Mack Stephenson, John W Jones, Tom Turner, Thomas W Myatt, J Wiley Jones, J C Riddle, F A Whitaker, R E L Yates, C E Haskett.

To Close Doors on Thursday.

The committee appointed to wait on the business men of Raleigh and request them to close on October the 1st from 11 o'clock a. m., to 5 p. m., have the promise of every business man with four exceptions to close on that day between those hours. The committee wish to impress it on these parties that to show our interest in the Exposition to the outside world it is necessary that this closing up is not to be, as it often is, a half way closing up, but that each and every one should comply with his promise.

If we, the citizens of Raleigh, who are to receive the benefit cannot show an interest in the exposition to the small extent on opening day of closing up a few hours, how can we expect that outsiders who have no direct interest in this exposition should attend it or patronize it? State and city authorities, banks and schools have all agreed to close.

Funeral.

Yesterday afternoon the remains of the late Mrs. Placide Boylan arrived in the city and was received by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock from Christ Church and was attended by a vast concourse of citizens, all classes paying homage to the memory of the lamented lady. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall, and the floral decorations were very profuse and of beautiful design, among them being an elegant floral star presented as a tribute by the members of the Rescue Fire Company of this city. The directorship of the burial services were under control of Mr. John W. Brown. The remains were interred in Oakwood cemetery, the following gentlemen acting as pall bearers: Messrs. Francis H. Cameron, Charles E. Johnson, James McKimmon, C. B. Wright, Alfred W. Haywood, Edgar Haywood, E. H. Lee, F. B. Dancy, William B. Grimes and E. B. Raney.

What 'Tis? What 'Tis What?

Demosthenes, Cicero, or our own Thos. Dixon can possibly tell you what 'tis, but 'tis what you see daily at Swindell's. That tells the wonderful story. Low prices and good goods make the successful business, and to have the low prices one must have an active and fertile brain to act and money to buy with. A block where the head ought to be is "what 'tis what." With our thirteen years of experience in the hidden mysteries of mercantile ups and downs we have not been consumed in the crucible though often heated ten times hotter than hades; there are few merchants who get through. They are cremated. But 6 in 100 ever get through the fire. With our big store—210 feet long—filled with all kinds of goods we are able to suit you. For the next five days we will sell carpets at a special price. Five days only will these special prices be given.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.

VETERANS ASSOCIATION.

We have been requested to publish the following call:

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 25, 1891.
The Confederate Veterans' Association of North Carolina will hold its annual meeting in Raleigh on Thursday, Oct. 15.

Every veteran is earnestly invited to attend. It is hoped that every North Carolina regiment will be represented. A flag for each brigade of cavalry and infantry and battalion of artillery has been prepared for the occasion.

The meeting will be called to order at 11 o'clock a. m., sharp, in the grand stand at the exposition grounds.

After the annual election of officers short addresses will be delivered by the Governor and distinguished ex-soldiers. At 12 o'clock there will be a grand review and parade.

W. G. STRONACH, J. S. CARR,
Secretary, President.

Come along and bring your wives, children, sisters cousins and aunts. There will be room enough for all.

The Bird Law.

As a matter of information to all concerned, we publish the following section of the Code relative to killing birds:

"No person shall kill or shoot, trap or net any partridges, quail, doves, robins, lark, mocking birds or wild turkeys, between the first day of April and the fifteenth day of October of each year, and the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not exceeding ten dollars for each offence."

This section was amended by the last Legislature by striking out the words "first day of April and fifteenth day of October," and substituting therefor the words "fifteenth day of March and first day of November."
