NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Decorate.
Put on the best show possible.
All the public schools will be closed tomorrow.

All the banks of the city will be closed tomorrow.

A perfect rush of exhibits going to the grounds today.

"The Almighty Dollar" at Metropolitan Hall tonight

There will be no session of the Superior Court tomorrow.

Bunting is cheap. Let all who can, throw it to the breeze.

There were several minor cases before the Mayor this morning.

The track of the street cars was completed to the Exposition grounds today.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of J. C. Marcom, Trustee and Mortgagee.

Passengers will, after today, be landed at the Exposition gate from the street cars.

Cadets from several military schools in the south, are expected here during the Exposition.

Next Friday is "Durham Day" at the Exposition. Now let our neighbors come along.

The eyes of the entire South are now turned towards Raleigh. Let us not disappoint them.

The circus bills are the chief attraction with the small boys. They are brilliantly gotten up.

The railway commission are engaged in arranging the tariff of the Southern Express Company.

The latest intelligence from Mr. Geo. H. Snow, is that there is no material change in his condition.

A friend at our elbow suggests that a bow of bunting be placed over each gate of the capitol square—good idea.

An interesting revival is in progress at the Cary M. E. Church. The pastor, Rev. P. L. Hermon is aided by Rev. Mr. Rowland, of Texas.

Rev. J. F. Long is conducting a protracted meeting at the Third Baptist Church in our city. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

The electric railway track from St. Mary's to the Exposition grounds is now in first class order. All the ditches on both sides will soon be filled in.

A large number of persons having in charge exhibits from states and counties are arriving. The Exposition will open tomorrow under most favorable auspices.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. A. W. Fraps, who has a new store and dwelling house for rent. He also has some desirable personal property for sale.

There was an increase of interest at the service at Central Methodist Church last night, a large number of persons seeking religion. The service will begin at 7:30 instead of 8 o'clock as heretofore.

The Wilmington Star has entered on its twenty fifth year and we are pleased to learn that it is rapidly increasing in circulation. The Star is a most admirably conducted journal and is the oldest daily paper in the State. Long may it live.

My wife has used Bradycortine for headache with the best imaginable results. I state this without solicitation. J. W. Mashburn, Abbeville, Ga. Sept 30 6t.

Mr. W. G. Randall, the artist, is engaged today in taking out and arranging his beautiful selections of portraits &c, at the Exposition. It will constitute one of the finest galleries of paintings ever seen in the South.

Mr. Fred A. Watson is painting and fixing up generally for the Exposition.

The store of Mess. Alfred Williams & Co., is decorated in a handsome style.

The city is in a perfect furor of enthusiasm. Everybody has the "Exposition fever."

At our hour of going to press many of the stores on Fayetteville street are being handsomely decorated.

Swindell has thrown his banners to the breeze. Red, white and blue, with stars. The building looks beautiful in its holiday attire.

Work will be continued all night on the arch. The Star Spangled Banner has been raised in the centre and a flag of the State has been placed on each turret.

Those who have heard Rev. Dr. Thos. Dixon's lecture "The Almighty Dollar" pronounce it one of the finest efforts. Let all who can, hear him tonight at Metropolitan Hall

Big Bicycle Parade.

The boys declare that they will have out a long string of finely decorated bicycles and will be by far the prettiest feature of the big parade. They surely seem to mean business.

Protracted Meeting.

The protracted meeting of the Fayetteville Street church continues with unabated interest. Rev. J. F. Long, of London, who is aiding the pastor, Rev. Jonathan Wood, tells the story of Jesus, sweetly, simply and powerfully. All cordially invited.

The Lecture Tonight.

We hope to see a large audience at Metropolitan Hall tonight to hear Rev. Thos. Dixon, Jr., in his great lecture on "The Almighty Dollar." The gallery will be reserved for St. Mary's school and Peace Institute. General admission 50 cents; reserved seats 75 cents. Lecture commences at 8:30

Convenient.

The R. & D. Railroad System on and after tomorrow, will put on sale what are known as "all the year round tourists excursion tickets" to Colton, Los Angeles, San Diego, and San Francisco, Cal., Mexico City, Mex., and Hot Springs, Ark. The tickets to California points and to Mexico city will be limited to six months from date of sale and to Hot Springs ninety days from date of sale.

A New Industry—Score Another For Raleigh.

The tanks, engine and kettles for the manufacture of soap are now in place, the buildings nearly completed, and with the opening day of the great Southern Exposition, the Southern Soap Manufacturing Company will turn on steam to test their machinery, and then shut down to join in the grand procession which is to mark a new era in the history of old North Carolina.

Tomorrow.

No grander, nobler event ever took place in the history of our city, than that which will be ushered in tomorrow. It will be the inauguration of an occasion which is destined, in our opinion, to be more productive of good results, not only to Raleigh, but to the "Old North State" than anything that has ever taken place in our borders. Tomorrow we are to take the initiative in offering the hand of welcome to thousands who come hither to see for themselves specimens of the treasures of our soil and the work of our artisans. They will come full of hope and expectation. Let them fully realize their most sanguine expectations. Let Raleigh stretch forth the hand of welcome and unstinted hospitality to the greatest extent. Let the opening day be indicative of the entire Exposition—a cordial greeting to all.

A Suggestion.

It has been suggested as a matter of public convenience and of profit to the street car company, that it would be better for the cars to leave the western suburbs about 6 o'clock in the morning, so that persons whose presence in the city is required at seven o'clock, can take advantage of it. Most of our workshops, get to work at that hour, and hence those engaged in them must leave their homes before seven. There are numbers of people in the suburbs who work in the city. If the company can arrange this without inconvenience, it will be advantageous all around.

Kranich and Bach Piano and Music Festival.

Mr. C. G. Stone, Manager of the North State Music Co., has selected a specially fine Kranich & Bach, upright grand piano for the festival. The best musicians of Raleigh have examined it and pronounced it as fine as they have ever seen for an upright piano. Magnificent volume, brilliant and sparkling tone even scale in all its registers, besides an extraordinarily handsome case. It is simply magnificent and the one who afterwards gets it will be a lucky individual. See the company's ad today.

"Jim, the Westerner."

A well filled house greeted the appearance of "Jim, the Westerner," at Metropolitan Hall last night. The plot of the play is good and the performance was excellent throughout. In fact it can be pronounced one of the best companies that has appeared here in a long time. During the progress of the third act last night, Miss Pauline Willard, leading actress fainted, which caused some little commotion. She soon recovered, however and proceeded with her role. We wish the company much success wherever they may appear

Stop It.

We hear that a parcel of colored boys are in the habit of taking cows to graze in what is termed "Saunders old field," in the northwestern section of the city. These boys are at times very troublesome to the neighbors. Yesterday they had a difficulty with a little son of Mr. E. M. Martin, who resides in the vicinity and treated the little fellow quite badly. A servant woman of Mr. Martin interfered, and it is stated that the boys turned on her giving her some blows. Now this is a matter that should be looked into. We believe the field is in the corporate limits. If so, the grazing of cattle in it should be stopped.

Personal Mention.
