NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The address of Gov. Holt to day was one of his masterly efforts.

It looks like the 4th of July, only a little more so.

The Governor's Guard drum corps made a very handsome show today.

"Jim the Westerner is expected here again soon.

Latest accounts from Mr. George H. Snow represent him as no better.

National and State flags floating around on all sides.

Large crowds are arriving by every train.

A grand day for the capital of the Old North State.

The capitol square will be illuminated during the Exposition. Good.

General closing up today. Everybody has the Exposition fever.

The city is fast filling up with strangers.

The Alligator department at the Exposition grounds is a novel sight.

Georgia and South Carolina have fine exhibits.

There are now over seventy pupils at St. Mary's school and daily increasing.

The Revenue receipts in this district for the month of September were $88,050.

There was but very little doing at the capitol today. All the officials were taking in the exposition.

There is absolutely no news today except such as relates to the exposition.

Nearly all the business men complied with the request to close their stores today.

Col. Jno. W. Cunningham will open the Almanac fair which commences at Burlington, Oct. 6th.

Greensboro has decided to run the street cars in that city with dummy engines.

Tickets are on sale for the exposition at the Yarboro House and Woolcott's store. This gives you a chance to avoid the rush at the grounds.

Members of the press who have not been furnished with tickets, can secure the same by applying to the secretary.

The procession today was a great commingling of all our people. Nearly every profession and trade was represented.

It is generally understood that the railroad from Edgeway to Richmond will be built by the Seaboard Air Line at no distant day. It will be of much advantage to Raleigh.

There are about two hundred and twenty students at Wake Forest from eight different States. The success of the institution is beyond precedent.

Those holding complimentary tickets that require photographs, should bear in mind that after to day, the provision must be complied with. It is said to be necessary in order to prevent imposition.

The Raleigh and Gaston railroad has erected a handsome waiting pavilion at the terminus of its track to the exposition grounds. Trains will be run at frequent intervals throughout the term of the exposition.

My wife has used Bradyrotine for headache with the best imaginable results. I state this without solicitation. J. W. Mashburn, Abbeville, Ga. Sept 30 6t.

Can't Rev. Thos. Dixon be prevailed upon to give us another lecture at an early day? The city is full of strangers, and almost all would be delighted to hear this distinguished son of North Carolina. Let us hear him on "Fools." His lecture on money is hard to beat, but it is said that his arraignment of "Fools" is sublime.

The attendance at the grounds today is estimated from two thousand to twenty five hundred.

The procession this morning was the largest ever had before on an occasion of the kind.

Mr. R. W. Lassiter, of Oxford, died few days since. He was at one time, President of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and well known in Raleigh.

The Durham band is a fine specimen of musical genius. They are here to stay during the entire Exposition. They are finely uniformed.

A fine oil portrait of Capt. E. Haynes Davis, a distinguished ex Confederate, has been placed in the State Library.

It is evident that the street cars now on the route will not be sufficient to carry the crowds to the Exposition grounds.

The Blue Ball sluggers of Winston, yesterday won the deciding game from Richmond, for the championship of the South, by a score of 19 to 7.

Dr. Gilliam, President of Johns Hopkins University will deliver the address on the occasion of the inauguration of Prof. Winston as President of the University of North Carolina.

There is a full fledged Chinaman in town (cue and all) and he is the chief attraction of the small boys. He wears the national costume of his native land.

The News and Observer, State Chronicle and Atlanta Journal have beautiful quarters at the Exposition, nicely decorated with red, white and blue. Col. F. A. Oil's news bureau is handsomely fixed up.

It is about time that some movement looking to the raising of money for North Carolina at the World's Fair was being made. At present the outlook is not as good as it might be.

Organized.

The senior class at Wake Forest has been organized as follows:

W B Daniel, N C, president; Robert Lide, S C, secretary; O H Dockery, Jr, N C, orator; W A Garland, N C, poet; J Paul Spence, N C, historian; Irving Hardesty, N C, prophet.

The Durham Band.

The following are the names of the gentlemen composing the Durham Band, which has been secured during the entire time of the exposition:

Messrs J A Thomas, Arthur Davis, J F Seeman, P B Cheek, Clarence Morris, Joe King, Will Harris, W L Skipper, John Wilbon, Kit Curfell, C H Murphy, C Fischer, P Welker, Geo Lougee, Jr, Prof Follman and Master Lamar Gammon.

A Pretty Street.

We were particularly struck with a remark made by our fellow citizen Mr. Eugene G. Harrell, at the late mass meeting of citizens at Metropolitan Hall. Capt. Harrell, as is well known has traveled very extensively, not only in this, but in foreign countries. He declares, that, taking it altogether our Fayetteville street, is the prettiest he ever saw—and so it is. It is now prettier than ever in its gaudy array. Let all the people of North Carolina take a pride in their beautiful capital city. It deserves it.

Good Work.

The good results flowing from county institutes are thus commented upon in the Winston Daily Sentinel:

"There is no work, perhaps, more beneficent to the public school teachers of North Carolina than the county institutes, held by Professors Alderman and Melver. The good result of this work is seen and testified to by the county Superintendents in each county that an institute has been held. The teachers are filled with renewed vigor and zeal in their work—they have better ideas of conducting and governing a school and their information and ability is more expanded."

"The Kitty Wallace."

This new variety of apple was discovered, or developed, on the farm of Mr. Wallace in this county. The apple is large, smooth, luscious, light green and tinged with red. The tree blooms late, bears every year, and the fruit keeps all winter even up to the warm weather.

Railroad Rates to the Exposition.

The following schedule will be run between Hargett street station and the exposition grounds on October 1, 6, 7 and 8: Leave Hargett street station at 10, 10:30, 11, 11:30, 12 a. m., 12:30, 1:30, 2, 2:30, 3, 3:30, 4, 4:30, 5, 5:30 p. m. Leave exposition grounds at 10:15, 10:45, 11:15, 11:45 a. m., 12:15, 12:45, 1:45, 2:15, 2:45, 3:15, 3:45, 4:15, 5:15, 5:45 p. m.

Persons will take the train at Hargett street station. Tickets for sale at Hargett street station and the exposition grounds. Fare, 10 cents. Wm. Smith, Supt.

The "Almighty Dollar."

There was a very large and select audience in attendance at Metropolitan Hall last night to hear the lecture of Rev. Thos. Dixon, entitled "The Almighty Dollar." It would be impossible within our short space to do ample justice to the merits of the occasion. It was indeed one of the greatest literary treats ever enjoyed by our people. The parallel for good or evil drawn before the eyes of those possessing an abundance of the "filthy lucre," has never been excelled by any one we ever heard. Mr. Dixon is a wonderful man, and destined to make a high notch in the ladder of fame. North Carolina may well be proud of him, as in his innermost soul he is of her. Long life and continued fame to our "Tom Dixon."

Superior Court.

Court met at 9:30 o'clock, Judge Whitaker presiding.

State vs Elijah Jones; 1. and r.; guilty; 4 months on county roads.

State vs Frank Penny; 1 and r.; not guilty.

State vs H. F. Fuller; a. d. w.; plead guilty; fined $1 and cost.

State vs Furney Hall and Wilson Bridges; affray; plead guilty; fine $1 and half cost each.

State vs Jas. Madison; 1. and r.; not guilty.

State vs D. L. Flowers; perjury; motion to quash; motion allowed; appeal to Supreme Court.

State vs Z. L. Roles, Ruffin Roles and L. A. Emory; affray; in process of trial.

Grand Opening Day.

The Inter State Exposition, so long the talk of our people and which has been looked forward to as an event second to none in the history of our city, was formally opened today, under the programme heretofore arranged, with perhaps a few unimportant exceptions. The address assigned to F. P. Richardson, was delivered by Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, on account of the sickness of Mr. Richardson. The procession was formed between 11 and 12 o'clock and marched direct to the grounds. The weather, although not as propitious as might have been desired, was reasonably fair, and the attendance was as large as is usual on opening days. During last night and today the trains have brought large numbers of people to the city, from the surrounding towns. The streets are lively and everything betokens the inauguration of an event long to be remembered in the annals of Raleigh.

Wilmington Star: The Spiritine Chemical Co. of Wilmington will have a fine exhibit of their various medicines and manufactures at the exhibition in Raleigh. It will be in charge of Mr. A. J. Shepard, who leaves here this morning for Raleigh.

Twenty nine states have now adopted the Australian ballot law or something like it. In some instances very poor adaptations of the original law have been made, but the principle is here to stay and to work itself clear through time and experience.

The St. Louis school board has employed detectives to watch the 1,200 young ladies who are employed as teachers in the public schools of that city. If the young ladies would reciprocate by employing detectives to watch the school board, there might be some interesting developments.
