RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1891:

NO. 142

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A little warmer.
The weather prophets say there is no danger of frost just now.
Can't there be an arrangement to heat the electric cars during the cold season.

Quartermaster General Harrell means business. He has made a requisition for a Gatling gun to look after the fellows who violate the oyster laws.

The outlook for the State Fair was never better and a large crowd is expected. The Exposition will open in earnest next week.

Miss Etta Ramsey entered on her duties as clerk in the Western Union Telegraph office last Monday, in place of Miss Banks, resigned. Miss Ramsey will no doubt make a most efficient clerk.

Read the announcement of Messrs. Whiting Bros., and then call and select a nice hat or a pair of shoes. They have a most select stock.

The list of Marshals for the State Fair has been nearly completed, and it is most earnestly desired that they meet at the Yarbboro House on Tuesday next, 13th inst. This is important and should not be overlooked.

W. J. McDonald, superintendent Lanneau Manufacturing Co., Greenville, S. C., says. "My wife has used Bracyer's for headache and it is the only thing that relieves her sufferings."

We are requested by janitor of the court house to say, that a stray Muscovia duck has taken up his abode on the premises. The owner can get it by calling.

The scientific men now say that there is no such thing as an equinoctial storm. They say that the storms would come nearly about the time, whether the sun crosses the line or not. The equinox took place the 22nd, of September, and now on October 7th, we have a cold rainy spell; and yet some contend it is the equinoctial storm.

The performance of "Jim the Westerner" was warmly greeted by those present at Metropolitan Hall last night. The audience, however, was not as large as the company deserved. They are all first class performers and have left a most excellent impression among our people.

There is some talk of a general conference during the Exposition in the interest of the Worlds fair at Chicago. It is now evident that there will be no appropriation from the direct tax fund, and surely North Carolina ought not to be unrepresented at the "big show". We hope the conference will be held, and the question of "ways and means" satisfactorily arranged.

For maps, time tables, schedules, first class or emigrant rates to all points East, West, Northwest and Southwest, write to Charles L. Hopkins, travelling passenger agent, Asheville, N. C., or Charlotte, N. C.

The meetings at Central Methodist church still continue, and although the attendance was smaller last night on account of the weather, the interest was very decided; quite a number went forward for prayers. There has been some fifteen or eighteen professions during these meetings, and they will be continued, beginning at 7:30 each night.

Married.

On Wednesday, Sept 23d, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., in the First Baptist Church, Fayetteville, Rev. W. P. Oliver officiating, Mr. James S. Wrenn, of Sumpter, S. C., to Miss Lizzie B. Jones of Pittsboro, N. C.

Found.

Pocket book, small amount money. Call at Parish's paint shop and describe property.

B. E. LANCASTER.

Concert.

Arrangements have been made for the Ladies Cornet Band from the Exposition grounds to give a concert at Stronach's auditorium next Saturday night. The expert cornetist, Mr. Lindal, will be present.

The Grand Musical Festival.

There will be a grand Musical Festival given at Stronach's warehouse Thursday night, October 8th. Those desiring a grand treat in musical culture should not miss this golden opportunity. One hundred trained voices—some of the best in the State. Doors open at 8 o'clock. General admission 25 cents; reserved seats 35 cents.

Prof. G. A. Mial, Musical Director, H. S. Christmas, Secretary. Music by Haywood's Orchestra.

J. W. Pope, Prof. C. N. Hunter, Dr. J. C. Price and Joseph Perry, Committee of arrangements.

I. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales Lodge, meets tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock sharp. The initiatory degree will be conferred and other matters of importance will come before the lodge, which require the presence of every member of the lodge. Candidates will present themselves for initiation at 7:45 o'clock promptly. A cordial invitation to all Odd Fellows.

THIEM, Sec'y.

War and Wind.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2—Advises by steamship Monowall says that the island of Tanna has been visited by a hurricane and devastated by a civil war. Fiercy fighting is now going on and two villages have been wiped out of existence. In the midst of the fighting came the fearful hurricane. The German ship J. W. Glidermerstein, was wrecked in Dianira bay. The cutter Hilda was driven ashore and a canoe containing nineteen natives lost.

Superior Court.

The court ended today, the docket having been cleared and the jurors discharged. It has been a term of much business, but it has been dispatched with the utmost celerity, reflecting great credit upon Judge Whitaker and the other officials.

The Visitor takes this opportunity to acknowledge the kindness shown by the gentlemanly deputy clerk of the court, Mr. Moye, who gave us valuable aid in getting up a report of the proceedings. We can assure him that we most highly appreciate it. Urbanity is, in our opinion, one of the chief requisites of a public officer, and Mr. Moye possesses it, even to an unusual degree.

New Station House.

The time has come when the matter of a new station house for Raleigh should not longer be postponed. It is a subject rought with too much interest to be allowed longer to lag. Everybody must admit that the present place for the incarceration of offenders, is a disgrace to the city. It may to some extent be compared to the Black Hole of Calcutta, certainly so far as its damaging effects upon temporary tenants are concerned. A basement room, no matter how much precaution is taken, partakes of dampness and foul air, detrimental to health. Surely the city authorities might find some more eligible place for its offenders. We hope this matter may receive prompt attention. It has been talked of long enough. We now need action, and as the winter is coming on, the sooner the better.

Wanted.

A good reliable man, white or colored, who understands milking and care of cows. Good wages, comfortable house, permanent job. Also, a boy 17 or 18 years old, who is honest, industrious and reliable. Address, Hill Top Dairy, Raleigh, N. C.

Mayor's Court.

There was quite a sprinkle of cases before the Mayor this morning.

The case against Ben Robinson, colored, and others for an affray at a bar room near the depot, was taken up. Several witnesses were examined, all of whom testified that Robinson beat a colored young man named Alonzo Clemmons. It was in evidence that Clemmons had taunted Robinson in the barroom when Robinson ordered Clemmons out. He refused to go out and Robinson pushed him in the street, where the scuffle ensued between them.

Robinson made a statement in which he said Clemmons came into his store and used words distasteful to him. He ordered him out, and when he refused to go, he put him out. He said he had a stick but had no idea of hitting him, and did not hit him.

Clemmons made a statement. He said that Robinson ordered him out; kicked him two or three times. He also struck him with a stick. He never said he would not go out.

Robinson was fined $5 and cost.

During the trial there were many chronic lookers on, either of whom are capable of making a living at some employment. Robinson is a member of the Board of Aldermen of this city.

A young man named Rogers from Clinton, not over 17 years old, was found last night in a ditch completely overcome with liquor. The Mayor gave him a compassionate talk and warning and let him off. It was a sorry sight.

Several other cases of disorderly conduct, &c., were disposed off.

The case of an affray between Walter Howell and A. E. Fowler, near Smith's barroom yesterday, was taken up. There were several witnesses introduced, showing that Howell used brass knuckles in his attack on Fowler, and, on the other hand it was testified that Fowler had previously made threats against Howell. Messrs. Argo and Armistead Jones were counsel for Fowler and Mr. T. R. Purnell for Howell. Both parties were bound over to court in the sum of $200 each.

A fine of $30 was imposed upon Howell for carrying concealed weapons.

Reduced Rates to the Southern Exposition.

The Richmond and Danville railroad will sell round trip tickets from all stations in North Carolina to Raleigh and return, good until December 3d, 1891, at greatly reduced rates, and will have special day tickets on sale every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday during the exposition, good for seven days from date of sale at one cent per mile. This is the lowest rate ever offered for any occasion, and should induce great numbers to attend the exposition.

For full information and rates call on your station agent or write to W. A. Turk, A. G. P. A., Charlotte, N. C.

A Beautiful Store.

The music house of the North State Music Co., at No. 113 Fayetteville street, is one of the prettiest stores in Raleigh. "It is the people that make a town what it is." It is the goods that make a store what it is. The North State Music Co., stock in store today is thirteen pianos, seventeen organs, and a full line of fine guitars, banjos, &c., &c. Music and books in great variety. They have "Kraich & Bach" pianos in Rosewood, Burl Walnut and San Domingo Mahogany; "Knabe" pianos in Rosewood and Ebony; "Wegman" pianos in various woods and styles, and a stock of "Kimball" pianos ordered. The superb "Miller" organs lead the world, and there are more "Kimballs" sold than any other make of high grade per lor and church organs. Their store, especially with its new decorating makes a very inviting appearance, and so their fine instruments to intending purchasers. Nothing adds more to the pleasures of a home than a nice musical instrument, and we refer with pleasure the readers of this paper and its friends who have no instrument to this old reliable house and its young and energetic management.
