NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Splendid rain.
Beautiful weather again.
The regular exhibit of machinery will commence next Saturday.
There is said to be considerable quantity of cotton received here from South Carolina.
Col. E. G. Harrell is busy today looking after the educational exhibits at the Exposition grounds.
The Chatham county exhibit is looming up into fine proportions, and is excellent.
The street cars now transfer at the corner of Salisbury and Hillsboro streets.
Auditor Sanderlin, under advice of his physician, keeps within doors during the damp spell.
Julian S. Carr, Esq. of Durham has given $250 in aid of building the new Rutherford College.
Nearly two thousand bales of cotton have been compressed here, so far, this season.
Quite a number of Alliance men arrived in the city today to attend the meeting tomorrow.
The new road machine and roller ordered some time since have arrived. Supervisor MacMackin will use it to the greatest advantage.
Rev. Dr. Black gives a glowing account of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. There are now over two hundred pupils.
Mr. John W. Brown, undertaker, received a dispatch this morning announcing the death at Clayton of Mr. Ben Carroll, formerly of Raleigh.
We notice this morning at the undertaking establishment of Mr. John W. Brown a most magnificent burial case made of Hungarian ash. It is one of the finest we have ever seen.
W. J. McDonald, superintendent Lanoue Manufacturing Co., Greenville, S. C., says, "My wife has used Bradycrotine for headache and it is the only thing that relieves her sufferings." wed 7h
The attendance at the Central Methodist Church was small last night on account of the weather, but those who did attend enjoyed a spirited meeting. Services will continue to night.
The revival services at Brooklyn conducted by Rev. C. O. DuRant and assisted by Rev. W. H. Puckett from Princeton, had a washout last night, but the bright sun repairs the damages today and the services will continue.
It seems that our friend W. H. Hughes believes in exposition, judging from the way he exposes lamps in his window. He is prepared to furnish the most beautiful urns of light to all who need them. He wants darkness dispelled and the world made bright and cherry. Well, that's good.
What a fine chance our young men have of laying by a small amount each week, by joining our home institution, the Raleigh Building and Loan Association, and if you desire to build, no Association gives the borrower better terms than this institution. The admission fee is only twenty five cents per share and twenty five cents a week thereafter. It has only been running for ten weeks and you can go in and pay from the commencement of the organization, and borrow as soon as you are admitted and not wait until you have paid in a certain number of months. They now have at the disposal of the borrowers over $1,200 00. The Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. L. O. Lougee, would take pleasure in writing a certificate of membership and an application for a loan. Bear in mind every dollar put in this association is helping and building up Raleigh.

No frost in sight yet.
Big Alliance meeting tomorrow.
A great many strange faces in the city today.
The court house has relaxed into its usual state of quiet.
There was a perfect jam of cotton in market today.
The Wake county exhibit has been increased today by several additions of curiosities, &c.
Only a few cases of an unimportant nature before the Mayor this morning.
The fiftieth anniversary of Bishop Lyman's ordination to the priesthood will be celebrated here in handsome style next December.
The New Hanover Confederate Association have agreed to give a concert in that city for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home at Raleigh.
Arrangements for setting apart an "Odd Fellows" day at the exposition are in progress. It will be set apart during the latter part of this month.
We are glad to learn that arrangements have been made to better facilitate the reception of exhibits at the exposition grounds.
It is understood that the students of the University and Wake Forest will spend a day here in a body during the Exposition.
The commissioners of McDowell county voted $500 for the Exposition, but it is now stated that it will not be used. This is a pity, if true, as McDowell is a very rich county.
Rev. B. C. Allred is conducting a meeting at Oak Grove, this county, and is having a decided success. Twenty six persons have made profession and 13 have joined the church at that place. The meeting is still going on.
We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Davis Hodgkin, a well-known citizen of Guilford county. He was 80 years old and highly respected by all who knew him.
Let us have a new index for the Register of Deeds office. It is almost indispensable. It may cost considerable, but, in the end it will prove one of the greatest sources of convenience for our people.
Can't Col. Keogh come down here next week and boom up something like a subscription for the World's Fair. Now is a good time, to operate. North Carolina should not be allowed to go by default at the "big show."
The musical and bicycle entertainment at Stronach's auditorium tomorrow night promises to be a most pleasant affair. Will Wynne will be on hand and perform some of his wonderful feats on the bicycle and the cycle club will also participate. We hope there will be a large attendance.
Rev. Sam Jones will commence evangelistic work in Wilmington tomorrow. A grand choir consisting of 150 voices has been organized for the occasion under charge of Professor E. O. Excell. Several railroads have agreed to reduced rates for those desiring to attend.
Mr. A. Dughi sent a nice lot of fancy Ice Cream and confection to Goldsboro yesterday, ordered for a society wedding in that city. Mr. Dughi can furnish nice things for nice occasions and people from other parts of the State are showing that they appreciate this.
It is stated that none of the roads interested have failed to pay their proportion for work on the new union depot. If this be so, and there seems no good reason to doubt it, the public are puzzled to know why operations are delayed.
Nice quarters for the accommodation of the ex Confederate Veterans are in process of arrangement at the Exposition grounds. The stand is at the north door of Floral Hall and is nicely decorated with flags. Miss Emma Bell will be in charge of the headquarters and a lunch will be ready at all times for the veterans. The stand is under the auspices of the Soldier's Home.

It will be a matter of interest to cotton growers to know that the Government of the United States has arranged to have the observers at all the sub-stations in the cotton belt telegraph to the different centers the occurrence of the first killing frost at their stations. This is to be done at an extra expense to the Weather Bureau but it is thought that the benefit derived will justify the expense.

I. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales Lodge, meets to night at 7:30 o'clock sharp. The initiatory degree will be conferred and other matters of importance will come before the lodge, which require the presence of every member of the lodge. Candidates will present themselves for initiation at 7:45 o'clock promptly. A cordial invitation to all Odd Fellows.

THIRM, Sec'y.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wiggs of Hickory, N. C., are visiting Mrs. D. T. Johnson and family on Hillsboro St. We deeply regret to state that Mr. C. H. Lewellen continues quite sick. Adjutant General Glenn is here to day.
Rev. Dr. W. S. Black, Superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum is in the city looking after the exhibit at the exposition.
Judge Boykin is in the city to day.
Mr. J. E. Stagg, of Greystone is taking in the exposition.

A Warning.

Quite a serious accident recently occurred on the street car line in Winston. It seems that the large summer car that was augmenting the regular runs with alternate trips was behind the regular car going down a deep descent at a rapid speed, when the former stopped to put off passengers, and the latter dashed at full speed into the same, breaking switchboard and tenders of both cars, and causing a $500 wreck. The motorman on the latter car was thrown over in the former and badly bruised, while one or two others were slightly injured. The two cars were too close to each other, and both were making too rapid time.

Curiosities.

Mr. Ed Teasley, one of our esteemed fellow citizens, has in his possession a clock about 130 years old. Mr. Teasley says the clock was presented to him by Mrs. Williams, wife of the late Mr. Mark Williams. At the time he received it, the body had been used as a wagon by the children. He replaced the works and fixed it up all right making it as good as ever. It keeps most excellent time, and all the works are in fine condition although made mostly of wood. The face is well preserved and scarcely looks over a few years old.
Mr. Teasley also has a chest about 130 years old. It is in a fine state of preservation. He is thinking of sending both curiosities to the Wake exhibit at the exposition grounds.

Alliance Meeting.

We regret that the absence of the Alliance officials of Wake county prevents us from furnishing a complete programme of the proposed Alliance meeting tomorrow. We are authorized, however, by W. S. Barnes, Esq., Secretary and Treasurer of the N. O. F. S. A., to say, that the meeting will assemble at Brookside Park tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. It is definitely decided that Senator W. A. Peffer of Kansas, President Marion Butler, of the State Alliance and State Lecturer J. S. Bell will deliver addresses. As heretofore stated in our columns, Col. L. L. Polk will not be present, having been called to attend business of the order in some of the Pacific States. The indications are that a large crowd will be present. Hon. Thomas M. Norwood, ex-United State Senator from Georgia will address the Alliance mass meeting at Brookside Park tomorrow. Everybody ought to hear him.

Flour.

I have just received a car of fancy flour in all sizes. It will be to your interest to get my prices before purchasing elsewhere.
