NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

University day next Thursday. All is bustle at the grounds today arranging for the State fair. Preaching tonight at Brooklyn M. E. church. Ex-Senator Norwood, President Butler and State Lecturer Bell addressed an Alliance meeting at Warrenton today. The switch of the electric railway at the junction of Hillsboro and Avenet Ferry roads will be finished by tonight. Tobe Marshal has donned a regular cockade exposition cap. It is the first of the season and shows that Tobe appreciates the great occasion. Collector White has received intelligence that over a dozen packages of brandy not stamped have been seized in Guilford county, near Elon College. It is understood that the uniform of the naval battalion will be prescribed by the Governor and the instructions will be such as he may direct. A large number of exhibits from Buena Vista, Va., have arrived, consisting of minerals, manufactured articles, &c. They will constitute a much admired section at the exposition grounds. It is said that the Seaboard Air Line has agreed to put up a cotton compress at some point between Raleigh and Charlotte. The exact location has not yet been decided upon. At 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Rev. N. H. D. Wilson will preach in A. D. Royster's store house, corner of Cabarrus and McDowell streets, opposite the Gas house. Mr. B. M. Harris, of this city, having gotten the proper number, has become the owner of the watch awarded for last Thursday's balloon ascension. The Burlington fair has proven a most complete success. Last Thursday there were over six thousand persons on the grounds. The exhibits will be removed to the exposition during the coming week. Mr. Joseph N. Goodwin, who has been in the mercantile business at Goldsboro for two years past, has been adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum in this city. He was married only a few months since. The alarm of fire last night sent out from box 52, was caused from sparks emitting from a stove pipe on the premises of Messrs. Ellington Royster & Co. There was no damage whatever. The latest addition to the State Library in the shape of portraits, is an admirably executed one of the late W. J. Yates, editor of the Charlotte Democrat. This is but a just compliment to one of North Carolina's most excellent editors and estimable gentlemen. We are authorized to state that a special train will be run from Chapel Hill to Raleigh next Thursday for the accommodation of the students who desire to attend the exposition. Prof. Winston says he expects to bring over two hundred students. The Phantasma Company will put in its appearance here next Wednesday night. It is said to be the most wonderful ledgermain entertainment ever seen. One of the features consist in a lady walking high up in the air without any visible support. It is an astounding feat and is the wonder of the world. Look out for it. W. J. McDonald, superintendent Lanneau Manufacturing Co., Greenville, S. C., says, "My wife has used Brady's Headache and it is the only thing that relieves her sufferings." wed 7 6t

Wayne county Superior Court meets on the 26th inst.

Winston has six and a half miles of street railway. Raleigh has about five.

There was considerable disappointment manifested yesterday at the non-appearance of Senator Peffer.

Has the auditorium question completely died out, or are we waiting until the exposition excitement is over?

Much work was accomplished in the colored department of the exposition today. It will make a very creditable show when completed.

Several new lamps have been placed in capitol square. The park now presents a beautiful appearance.

The lovers of "Dickens" will learn with pleasure that his inimitable "Tom Sawyer" will be in Raleigh soon.

Mr. James R. Green and Miss Sadie Yates were married in Durham on the 6th inst. The bride is a daughter of Rev. Dr. E. A. Yates, who performed the ceremony.

An arrangement is on foot to build an electric railroad from Shelby to Cleveland Springs, a distance of about two miles. In a few years such roads will, no doubt, be common.

Sheriff Page will soon call your attention to the fact that he has the tax lists for collection, and then the trouble commences which every good citizen should willingly shoulder.

There will be a meeting of the Bar at 3:30 p. m., on Monday the 19th inst., to set calendar for October term. Meeting will be at clerk's office.

The Durham Globe, or the Durham Hummer with Tusks, or the Durham Album of Song is one year old and still humming; but he still calls the Concord Standard man "Plain Jim Cook."

Persons who have not received tickets for the State Fair on account of Life membership can procure same from W. W. Upchurch, Secretary this evening between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock at J. C. Marcom's store.

The correspondent of the Atlanta Journal who is here reporting for his paper says that the attendance at the exposition here, has been so far larger than that of the Atlanta exposition. This is, at least, consoling.

Mr. W. H. Kerr, of Salisbury, is in the city. Mr. Kerr is a son of Prof. Kerr, State geologist, so well remembered by many of our people. He is interested in a large factory for making bags, located in Concord, and the inventor of some useful machinery.

Mr. Eugene G. Harrell, secretary of the Teachers' Assembly, is getting in dead earnest about his proposed trip to Cuba next December. If he sets his heart on it, it can be assured that it will be a most pleasant occasion. As a chaperon of such parties, he has no equal in the country.

Right.

The Goldsboro Augussays: "The Raleigh train was several hours late in its arrival here yesterday afternoon, again missing its local Southern connections. This thing should be stopped."

We called attention to this matter several days since, and we are glad the Augus is helping us out. The misconnection at Goldsboro is a source of much inconvenience at this time, when numerous correspondents of the Wilmington and other papers expect to give daily accounts of the exposition and other matters at the State capital. We hope the B. & D. and the Atlantic Coast Line may come to some arrangement by which close connections may be made at Goldsboro, every day without fail.

The New York Bargain House will be closed until 7 p. m. Monday on account of holiday.

Verdict.

The jury in the case of the railroad right-of-way in Durham, have rendered a verdict in favor of that town, by which it is understood that Durham has a right to use the street as it thought proper. It is understood that the railroads will take an appeal.

Personal Mention.

Mr. James Keith, of Asheville, is in the city.

Mr. W. W. Ashe left yesterday afternoon for Cornell University.

J. H. Austin, of Middle Creek township, is very sick with yellow jaundice.

Miss Mattie Britt has accepted a position as saleslady at the New York Bargain House.

Distressing Suicide.

News reached here today of a most distressing suicide which occurred early this morning near Auburn, in St. Mary's township, this county. Mr. Wm. Sturdivant, a well known citizen, left his home for the purpose, as was supposed at the time, of attending to his ordinary daily duties. He was found dead about an hour or so afterwards about two hundred yards distant with a bullet hole through his head. The report is that he had placed the muzzle of a rifle in his mouth and pulled the trigger with his feet. Death must have resulted immediately.

Mr. Sturdivant was about 53 years old but was unmarried. He served in the Oak City Guards of this city during the war, and won the reputation of being a brave soldier. He was somewhat addicted to drinking some years ago, but latterly had led a very sober life. He was a kind hearted and most genial gentleman.

It is stated that the locality selected for the suicide is about the same locality at which a brother of Mr. Sturdivant was shot and killed several years ago.

Tournament.

Last night was a most interesting occasion at Stronach's auditorium. The bicycle feature was in charge of Will Wynne who performed some of his most wonderful antics. The music was furnished by the combination of the Durham and Ladies bands. There were fourteen bicycles in the opening parade. Messrs. Fred Woolcott and Cecil Stone also did some excellent riding. All present were delighted.

Weather Crop Bulletin.

The reports of correspondents for the week ending last night show that the past week has continued generally favorable except the last few days which have been rather cool. No reports of frost have been received although it is probable that light frost occurred in the mountain districts on the 8th. The yield of cotton has been less than expected, some counties reporting less than 40 per cent, others about an average. The lint this year seems better.

The yield of tobacco is poorer than estimated in the bulletin of last week both in quality and labor.

NOTES.

This is the last bulletin this year. Next year it is hoped every county in the State will be represented. The director takes this opportunity of heartily thanking all correspondents for their valuable assistance during the past year.
