NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

"Unequal Match" tonight.

There is an unusual scarcity of news today.

The young ladies band will remain in Raleigh during the present week.

The trains today have been rather crowded with persons coming to the State Fair.

Look out for the circus parade tomorrow morning. It will take place between 10 and 11 o'clock.

The total enrollment in the graded schools of this city is now nearly 2,100.

Receipts of cotton today have been rather slim compared with the past few days.

There are numbers of quill drivers in town looking around for something to write about.

A trivial case or so of drunk occupied the attention of the mayor this morning.

The Siler school of Chatham county will attend the exposition in a body.

A cold northwest wind set in last night. Today has been anything but pleasant, at least without an overcoat.

A large number of exhibits are arriving for the State Fair. It will open tomorrow under the most favorable auspices.

A special term of Pitt Superior Court for the trial of civil cases only will be held commencing Dec. 4th. Judge Connor will preside.

Our Hebrew fellow citizens closed their stores today it being "Atonement Day." They reopen at 6 o'clock this afternoon.

Yesterday about 12 o'clock the Capital Hose Reel wagon, while at the corner of Morgan and McDowell streets turned over, causing a pretty bad scare, but no one was hurt to any serious extent.

We are under obligations to Hon. J. C. Scarborough for a copy of his report as Commissioner of Labor Statistics. It is a full and complete mass of useful information. Mr. Scarborough and his assistant, Capt. Harris are performing their duties in a most faithful manner.

"The Herald of Health," another new monthly publication, which is issued at Kinston, N. C. by Dr. H. O. Hyatt, as editor and proprietor and W. S. Herbert advertising manager. It is a neat publication intended to meet a claimed want in the educating work of the newspapers on Hygiene and medical advancement. It is a specialist, in a general shape and style.

The Star Elin Company opens at Metropolitan Hall tonight in and "Unequal Match." The company comes with the highest endorsement from the press and public and our citizens can well anticipate a first class dramatic treat. Tomorrow night the great sensational drama "Felicia" will be presented. Secure reserved seats at Bobbitt's drug store.

Revival services at Central church goes on with unabated interest. Last night there was a large congregation and several persons asked the prayers of the church. The sermon by the pastor was listened to with marked attention. The subject, "The hour and power of darkness," was an original presentation of the gospel, calculated to awaken thought and arouse sinners to action. The meetings will be continued this week.

W. J. McDonald, superintendent Lanneau Manufacturing Co., Greenville, S. C., says, "My wife has used Bradyrotine for headache and it is the only thing that relieves her sufferings." wed 7 6t
Half car load of bananas just received by A. Dughi.

Look out for the grand circus parade tomorrow.

Raleigh will present a hustling appearance all this week.

Winston shipped over 280,000 pounds of manufactured tobacco last week.

Don't forget that Tom Sawyer will hold the boards at Metropolitan Hall next Friday night. Read up him from Dicken's works.

Geo. Fitzsimmons won the bicycle at the Burlington fair over our Wynne. But once is not always. Wynne will yet get even.

Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. and A. M., will meet in regular communication this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited.

Look out for the arial walking woman next Wednesday night at Metropolitan Hall. It is the wonder of the age.

It is about time to "shoot the summer cars." This is the general verdict. Put them up until the "roses bloom again, tra la."

The Western N. C. Teachers' Assembly will be held at Bryson City, Oct 20th-30th. Dr. J. L. McCurry will be one of the prominent speakers.

The annual meeting of the N. C. Agricultural Society, will be held on Thursday night next at 8 o'clock in the Hall of the House of Representatives.

M. B. Barbee, one of our leading Justices of the Peace, has a branch office at the exposition grounds. In cases of disorder &c., the trial can be had without delay.

Friday the 16th, will be Educational day at the exposition. It will be in charge of Capt. C. B. Denson, of the Raleigh Male Academy. Hon. W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education of the United States, will make the leading address of the day.

The liability to taxation of the many side shows at the exposition grounds is to be tested. The commissioners of the county will take the matter under consideration at their meeting next week.

A little colored gamin got off the following effusion this morning as he stood shivering near a lamp post in the vicinity of the market:

"Oysters on the half shell
'Possums up the tree,
How the roasting taters smell,
Fall's the time for me."

A Raleigh correspondent of the Winston Sentinel says that correspondence is in progress for Rev. Sam Jones to come to Raleigh after the close of his meetings in Wilmington

Personal Mention.

Col. Jno. D. Whitford, ex President of the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad company is in the city.

Mr. Geo. H. Snow continues to improve.

We are glad to learn that Mr. O. H. Lewellen is improving.

H. A. Latham, Esq., of the Washington Gazette, is in the city.

Miss Belle Hogan and Mrs. Purefoy, of Chapel Hill, is in the city, visiting Mrs. Kate Hogan on Hogan avenue. Mrs. Charles Johnson, who has been visiting Mrs. J. M. Rogers, in Salem, has returned home.

Miss Lukie Harrison, of Durham, who has been spending awhile with friends in this city, has returned home.

Meeting.

The North Carolina Board of Pharmacy for the examination of candidates for license to practice pharmacy, will be held in this city on October 20th and 21st. For particulars, address William Simpson secretary, Raleigh, N. C.

Black Creek Association.

For the above occasion the Richmond and Danville railroad will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates to Selma or Goldsboro. Tickets on sale October 23 and 24; limited returning October 27th, 1891.

Art Clubs.

We notice that Asheville has organized an art club to be incorporated under the State laws. It is arranged that a spacious display hall shall be fitted up with all kinds of art productions, in proximity to which there shall be a select library.

We hope the idea may be carried out in all the larger towns of the State. Such an institution would be of great convenience in Raleigh, especially to our young men. Who will take the initiative?

Fayetteville St. Baptist Church.

Rev. J. F. Long, of London, who has been preaching some days at the Fayetteville St. Church preached his last sermon last night. He has very much endeared himself to the church and the large congregations that have heard him. Bro. Long leaves in a few days for New York. We are loathe to give him up, and can assure him an everlasting place of love and highest esteem in our affections, praying the blessing of God upon him and his work wherever he goes. We bless the Lord for the pleasant association and privilege of hearing him preach. The meeting, however, will continue.

JONATHAN WOOD, Pastor.

The Exposition Prayer.

The Statesville Landmark says that the managers of the Southern Exposition at Raleigh paid Rev. Tom Dixon $100 for the prayer he made, opening the exposition. The Landmark thinks that it was worth the money.

The above puts the exposition management in the worst light of anything we have seen yet for financing ability. They could have gotten a first class evangelistic prayer for half that money. The VISITOR has not looked into the matter, but we think we know too much about the shrewdness of these gentlemen to believe one syllable of it; nor do we suppose the Landmark or anybody else believes a word of it. It is nothing but newspaper gab.

Another Attempt.

It is rumored that another attempt to wreck a passenger train at Boston's bridge near Statesville was made last Saturday morning. The Durham Globe has two specials which we give so that the public can take their choice:

STATESVILLE, N. C., Oct. 10.—Another alleged attempt was made this morning to wreck the passenger train at Boston bridge, the same place that the fearful wreck occurred some thirty days ago. The engineer happened to see a pile of rails across the track, luckily stopped the train when the obstruction was removed. It is further said that the man who tried to wreck this train was arrested, and that the rust of iron was found on his coat and he was arrested and placed in jail.

STATESVILLE, N. C., Oct. 10.—The man arrested here was not much in earnest. It is supposed to be some trick of railroad detectives. The train was stopped by rails on the track, but an investigation will show something which may be called "funny work." It is suggested that such attempts do not often happen in day light.

Ladies' Wraps.

We are now showing a large and elegant assortment of ladies wraps in the very latest and most fashionable styles, and any price that you may want. In men's, youth's and boys' clothing we have an endless variety, in all the late styles and new designs. We can suit you in a nice overcoat, or rubber coat, and will guarantee to save you at least three or four dollars. Our shoe department is complete; it embraces a large and full line of men's women's and children's shoes in every sign and style, and each pair is warranted to be good, solid leather. Come and see our immense stock of carpets.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.

The Programme Tomorrow.

The following is the programme for the opening of the State fair tomorrow:

At 11:30 a. m. the procession will form in front of the Yarboro House and march to the exposition grounds where the annual State Fair will be opened with an address by Gov. Thos. M. Holt. At 2:30 p. m. there will be a balloon ascension if the weather permits.

At 3 p. m. there will be a trotting race and at 4 p. m. a running race.

The procession will be in charge of the chief marshal, Col. Jno. S. Cunningham, of Person, aided by his assistants.

It is desired that the assistants shall meet Chief Marshal Cunningham at the Yarboro at 10 o'clock a. m. tomorrow. Regalia will be furnished at 21 Fayetteville street.

A Card of Thanks

EDITOR OF THE EVENING VISITOR: Will you allow me through the columns of your very popular paper to thank the citizens of Raleigh for the great and many kindnesses they have shown me during my late illness.

I desire to assure them that I have no words at my command sufficiently strong to express my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to one and all of them; but I will say, now, that a merciful Providence has spared and restored me to health and strength again. As police officer, I intend to serve them with double diligence; and as a recipient of their favors I stand ready to extend reciprocal relief at any and all times.
