NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Lovely weather.
Lots of editors in the city.
Educational Day tomorrow.
City crowded with strangers.
Help out St. John's Hospital. It is in need of funds.
The German at the Capital club last night, was a brilliant affair.
Let there be a rousing crowd at Metropolitan Hall to night.
Federal Court will be held at Statesville next week.
The street Railway in Greensboro, is nearly completed.
The switchback railroad did an immense business to day.
Electric street railway stock way up in the pictures.
The receipts of cotton in Raleigh today were quite heavy.
Exhibits continue to come in at the exposition grounds.
It looks as busy as a bee hive around the Yarboro House.
Nearly all the public officials were out at the exposition grounds today.
Nothing to be gathered at the capitol today.
The oyster troubles have about stopped.
The Commissioner of Agriculture is well pleased with the sales of fertilizer tags this season.
Mr. Jack Strayhorn died at his residence near Durham, yesterday. He was about 80 years old.
Sheriff Page has the tax lists in hand and is now waiting to receive payment.
Meeting of the North Carolina Agricultural Society at 8 o'clock tonight in the Hall of Representatives.
Don't fail to see Tom Sawyer at Metropolitan Hall tonight. It is one of the most amusing performances ever seen on our stage.
James Inscore, aged 76 years, was found dead in his bed at his home near Trinity College, in Durham, last Tuesday morning.
There were nearly eight thousand people on the fair grounds yesterday. To day there has been equally as many, or perhaps more.
Complaint is made that many of our streets have no signs giving their names, &c. Strangers have spoken of it, and say they have no way to tell what street they are on except by asking. This certainly should not be. Signs at the street corners have been knocked down, and should be put back as early as possible.
That mud hole on Hargett street, by the side of the street car track, between Wilmington and Blount should be looked after. One vehicle was broken there yesterday, and another a few days before that, and the public interest would indicate that hole should be filled at once.
The Chapel Hill boys arrived in the city this morning about 11 o'clock. As they passed through the city on the electric cars on their way to the exposition grounds they rendered the University yell song with a vengeance and to the delight of the immense crowds that thronged the streets.
"I have found your Bracyerotine a sure cure for headaches. A. B. Hanks, Mountain Peak, Texas. wed 14 6t
There was some sparring in the Ecumenical Council a few days since when the body had under consideration the subject of the religious press. One speaker referred to religious papers as in many instances instruments of personal and individual puffery. Another said he had never learned that it was divorced from the beer barrel. This sparring was confined to the English brethren, however.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Geo. H. Snow has entirely recovered his health.

Meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee in Commons Hall tonight at 8 o'clock.

The State Treasurer is engaged on a most important report for the comptroller of the currency relative to banking in North Carolina.

Mr. Eldrige, of Richmond, Va., arrived here last night and today assumed charge of the Western Union Telegraph office in place of Manager Brown, resigned.

The performance of the Phantasma Novelty Company at Metropolitan Hall last night was splendid and most highly enjoyed by all who witnessed it. The Barcelona mystery just beat the record. Everybody was astounded.

Tom Sawyer.

Read what Buffalo Courier says about "Tom Sawyer" which is to be performed at Metropolitan Hall tonight.

"Mark Twain's story 'Tom Sawyer' is very familiarly known, and there are very few juveniles who are not acquainted with the pranks of the bad boy, Tommy. A gallery packed with them, and a full house down stairs of 'children of an older growth' witnessed an excellent dramatization of the story at the Court Street Theater last night, and if laughter and applause is a criterion, thoroughly enjoyed it.

GRAND GALA DAY.

Tremendous Success of the Exposition—Raleigh Almost Literally Packed With People.

This has been a grand day for Raleigh. It has been equally as grand a day for North Carolina. The capital of the old North State is literally packed with people. They came from the north, east, south and west. The great Inter-State Exposition is an assured success. All doubts are dispelled. No croakers around.

Never in the history of Raleigh has its people witnessed a prouder day than this. At noon the crowd in attendance at the grounds could not have been less than seven thousand. At 2 p. m. it had swelled to at least nine thousand, and at our hour of going to press we learn that there never has been seen such a solid mass of humanity; all delighted with the grand and imposing scene.

The exhibits are all in place. The show is splendid in all particulars, and the weather partakes of the most beautiful of the mellow October days. The Confederate veterans are there in all the pride that prompted them to serve their Southland in days gone by. The programme has been carried out in each and every particular possible. The old soldiers' procession was a marked feature. The University boys are there in all their glory. The school children are there. Even the red men are overcome with the pomp and glory of the day, and are exhibiting to the astonishing gaze of the multitude their marvellous feats of the ball play. It is useless to attempt to particularize. It just can't be done.

Raleigh sends greeting to the South, to the North, to the East and to the West the glad tidings that there has never been such an outpouring of people in our midst.

"The Old North State forever."

Duncan Clark's Combination.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post Democrat says: "Duncan Clark's Monster Combination entered on their third and last week last night to a house packed to the doors. The drawing powers of this attraction are phenomenal, and their audiences are composed of our best citizens. Their show has been too often reviewed in our columns to need more than a passing notice, but we can assure all who wish to see the last of this successful company to secure their seats well in advance, as standing room has been at a premium during their engagement in our city."

Spicy Marriage.

A very imposing marriage ceremony took place this morning in the office of the clerk of the Superior Court. A young couple from Wayne county presented themselves for the purpose of "being made one." Justice More, our rather bashful deputy clerk of the Superior Court, agreed to perform the ceremony, and he carried out the programme with all the dignity for which he is so famous. The contracting parties were Mr. Jos. R. Daniel and the lady's name was Miss Bettie Newson. They were properly arranged our friend Jno. W. Thompson acting as best man for the party. Joe Goodwin gave the bride away in the most approved style while Millard Mial flourished around considerably as master of ceremonies, and chief cook and bottle washer. The blushing bride and the rather terrified groom stood the ordeal well. At the conclusion of the ceremony Jno. Thompson gave one of his blandest and most genial smiles accompanied with a most profound and reverend bow. It was a rich scene all around. Moye never flinched during the solemn service and looked for all the world "like patience on a monument smiling at grief." He thinks of going into the marriage bucket shop business.
