CROAKING.

There are some people in whose make up the croaking spirit overtops every other characteristic, to such an extent that if they can find nothing else to grumble at, they will grumble at their own home affairs.

These sort of people live in Raleigh and some of them know so little about other places that they are just incapable of comparing their home with other homes and as they see only the foibles and failures, it may be, at their own home city only, they yield to their growling spirit, though they thereby become a positive drawback to said city and the people who live in it.

The Census Bureau has made public a bulletin on the subject of bituminous coal production in Pennsylvania. It shows the output of the bituminous region in that State to have been 36,174,089 short tons of 1889, nearly double that reported at the 10th census.

A report from Ceylon states that the pearl fishery last season was the second largest on record during the present century. The amount realized by the government was more than 900,000 rupees, equal to $87,800.

It is said that at Queretaro, near Mexico, cakes of soap are used as currency, and are legal tender for the payment of debts.

If your lover raises and exalts you, if it helps you on your heavenward way; if it brings you nearer to God, if it strengthens you to brave endurance, stimulates you to heroic action, and makes all great as possible; if, in a word, it possesses itself of you and sweeps you up and out from the finite as a wave bears seaward the strong swimmer, powerless, you are safe.

She "Caught on"

Exchange. A nice young man got into a tram car a few evenings ago, and saw to his delight the only vacant seat was by the side of a young lady acquaintance.

He made for that seat with joyous strides, and her eyes answered his with delighted looks. But just as he got there an elderly party walked up and dropped into the coveted seat. The young man approached more slowly and accosted the young lady.

"How is your brother?" he asked; "is he able to get out?" "Oh, yes!" she answered "Will he be very badly marked?" he continued, and the old gentleman grew suddenly interested.

"Oh, no!" she said, "with the exception of a few marks on his forehead." "Were you not afraid of taking it?" the young man continued, while the old gentleman broke out in cold perspiration.

"Not at all," she replied; "I had been vaccinated, you know." The seat was vacated instantly, the two innocent young hearts beat as half a dozen, and the prattle of "nice talk" strewed that part of the car, while an old gentleman scowled upon them from the vacant corner.

Mail matter dropped in a box in Paris is delivered in Berlin within an hour and a half, and sometimes within 35 minutes. It is sent by means of pneumatic tube. The excellent postal service of this country has considerable to learn from the service of Europe.—Pittsburg Commercial Gazette.

It is difficult to estimate, confesses the New York News, the amount of money that has been left in Europe this year by American tourists. Taking all the expenses into consideration, however, the passages out and home and the average sum disbursed on the other side, the aggregate cannot be far from $75,000,000. All of this has to be paid out of the products of labor in this country, and if it is not returned in the shape of the gold paid for our wheat, petroleum and other articles, it will represent the cost paid by this country, for the pleasure of its citizens abroad.

If a man is constantly learning and never using his knowledge nor communicating it, of what value is it? It does not enrich his own life or that of others, and he can not even leave it behind him when he dies, as the miser does his gold. The affections that are never expressed wither up; the power that are not exercised decline. The very qualities which are admirable in themselves exist only by being constantly employed for the benefit or pleasure of others.

Two new Atlantic liners, to be 600 feet long and faster than anything afloat are guaranteed by the builders to be ready for sea early in the spring of 1893. They will be almost as long as the Great Eastern, though not nearly so wide. They will have quite as much engine power as that unfortunate steamship had, but it will be so compact and economized that it will not occupy one-third as much space nor be one-quarter the weight of the old paddle and screw engines.

To do well is to be well. Persevere in the thought "I shall be better tomorrow," and it will help you to be so. It has been said that a man never died without his own consent. Never get your own consent to dying. Resolve to live; resolve to be well. You yourself must make the effort; you must work out your own salvation.

The Book Trust Knocked Out.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

The price of the great Encyclopedia Britannica, $8 per volume for the English edition, and $6 per volume for the Scribner and the Stoddard editions in the cheapest binding—has been a bar to its popular use. Our new reprint of this work is furnished at $1.50 per volume, the greatest bargain ever known in the book trade. We have sold over half a million volumes in six months; proof that the public appreciate so great a bargain. This reprint is not an abridgment, but a reproduction of the entire twenty-five volumes of the great Edinburgh ninth edition, page for page, with new and later articles on important American topics, and new maps, later and better than in any other edition. In all respects it compares favorably with the high priced editions, and in point of maps and durability of binding it is superior to them.
