NO. 1

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

Lovely autumnal weather.
Big day at the Exposition grounds.
November 5th has been set apart as a special day at the Exposition for the colored people, and they are making suitable arrangements for an unusual display.

We regret to state that Mr. Alonzo T. Mial is quite sick at the residence of his son-in-law, Capt. B. P. William son, on West Hargett street.

Mr. A. W. Haywood as trustee will sell some very valuable property at the court house tomorrow at 12 o'clock. The two stores on East Martin street, one occupied by Messrs Whiting Bros. and the one adjoining. Also the residence on the corner of Martin and McDowell streets now occupied by Mr. J. R. Williams.

The sale of the stock of goods at 219 south Wilmington street, J. G. Marcom, trustee and mortgagee, will commence at 7:30 o'clock this evening and continue every evening at same hour until the entire stock is disposed of.

The New York Millinery Bazaar has an attractive mention of nice goods in the VISITOR today. Their assortment of Parisienne pattern hats are specially attractive; also a magnificent line of gloves in black and colors at $1, worth $1.75. Ladies should call at the Bazaar when anything in the millinery line is wanted.

Mr. Bandell, who for some time past has been telegraph operator on leased wire of the Chronicle office, will go to Winston to take charge of the office there as manager. Mr. Bandell gained many friends while here on account of his gentlemanly and polite qualities, two very essential qualities for telegraph operators as other folks. We wish him much success in his new home.

Florida proposes to spend $100,000 in making a display of her products and resources at the World's Fair at Chicago. This is liberal, but advertising pays when invested at as judiciously. North Carolina spent about $20,000 at the Boston Exhibition years ago, and no investment the State has ever made has turned out so profitable. Advertising your State, your business or yourself is very much like right living: it builds up a reputation little by little. North Carolina should be represented at Chicago by all means.

Mr. J. Lane, general manager Georgia Southern and Florida Railroad, says: "I was entirely relieved of headache by Brandyeroline in fifteen minutes. It is the only thing that relieves me after the pain commences."

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Saxon Gales Lodge, No. 64, tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The second degree will be conferred and other business will come before the lodge, which requires the presence of every member of the lodge. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

THEM, Sec'y.

Temperance Convention.

Several of our citizens held a meeting yesterday at which it was resolved to issue a call for a State temperance convention to be held in this city, on Thursday, November 19th. A committee, of which Rev. Dr. F. L. Reid is chairman, was appointed to prepare and issue the call.

Quick Work.

The New Berne Journal says: The New Berne Improved Cotton Ginners ginned several bales of cotton yesterday. One bale was timed and from the time the first cotton entered the pipe to be conveyed to the gin until the finished bale was turned out from the press was just ten minutes.

Oakdale.

This beautiful suburb property is fast being put in splendid shape. It is laid out in large well shaped building lots with handsome avenues and streets. Our people will have a splendid opportunity to buy for investment of money in this property. It is sure to be a very popular and valuable residence community.

Personal mention.

Dr. W. R. Capehart, of Avoca, is in the city.

Mr. Thos. R. Fernigan has returned from a trip to Hartford.

Hon. Natl. Atkinson, of Asheville, is at the Yarboro House.

Miss Alma Separk has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Richmond, Va.

Hon. C. C. Clark, of New Berne, was in the city yesterday in attendance upon a meeting of the penitentiary board.

Mr. W. W. Clark is here from New Berne to represent the Atlantic Express Company before the Railroad Commission.

A Raleigh Enterprise.

In conversation yesterday with Mr. G. N. Walters, our popular merchant tailor, he tells us that he is crowded with orders from all parts of the State for the late and nobby patterns of foreign wooleens in all its swell colors. In fact his orders have been so great within the past two or three weeks that he has had to duplicate them several times, and in order to give his personal attention to the cutting department he has had to work sixteen hours out of the twenty-four. The tailors he employs are first class in every respect. They too say that to keep up with their work they not only work nine hours to the day but nine days to the week. Our people of the State, and especially of this city, are to be congratulated on having such a first class establishment in our midst.

Northern Settlers

The Northern settlers convention will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the Commons Hall. Hon. A. K. McClure, the distinguished editor of the Philadelphia Times, is expected to address the convention, as will also Gov. Holt, Col. Coke, Auditor Sanderlin, Hon. J. B. Batchelor, R. H. Battle, Esq., N. B. Broughton, Esq., W. S. Primrose, Esq., Bev. Dr. J. J. Hall, Rev. I. McK. Pettinger, and perhaps others. The public cordially invited, and it is hoped the ladies will turn out in force.

Ex-Gov. Jarvis has also consented to address the assembly.

At SwinCell's Next Friday.

Next Friday, October 23d, is the day for the great special sale. We will place on sale for one day only a big lot of ladies and misses rubber shoes at 20 cents a pair and childrens at 15 cents. These goods are nice, new goods, and the greatest bargain ever offered in rubber shoes. We will also place many other bargains on sale. Every one should be sure to attend this great special sale.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL,
206 Fayetteville St., Raleigh, N. C.

An Arizonian Infant.

The Atlanta Constitution describes a wonderful child at Birmingham, Ala. A girl five years of age weighing 100 pounds, 43 inches high, measures 26 inches around the chest, 43 inches at the waist, wears a number 7 shoe, can raise her father, who weighs 146 pounds, from the floor with ease, eats on an average as much as a hearty laboring man, took for breakfast the other morning two pounds of steak, six fried eggs, with bread, cakes and drinkables to match. This is only a five year old girl.

The Oxford Day says: "The ladies of Raleigh are showing a kind interest in the Oxford Orphan Asylum exhibit at the Southern Exposition." This is as it should be. The orphans should have the sympathetic attention of the kind hearted.

Just Look at It.

There is a growing demand for residences in Raleigh and hardly a vacant house to be had. What better evidence of prosperity do you want? There are a number of new houses being built and all of them are engaged ahead. What will pay you better than a lot or two at Oakdale with houses on them? They would rent instantly at good prices and advance rapidly in value.

Last Days of Pompeii.

Another large and enthusiastic audience was in attendance at Metropolitan Hall last night to witness the rendition of "The Last Days of Pompeii." It was a most magnificent performance in all respects, and we most heartily recommend it to the public wherever it may be presented. Mr. Henry E. Litchford is entitled to the thanks of the public for his careful catering to the public engagement.

Indisputable Evidence.

Where will you go to find a town that is building up more rapidly than Raleigh. Not a building contractor in the city that can be induced to take a contract for a house to be built at once. What does it mean if not that Raleigh is making rapid progress in prosperity and population. We have no hesitation in advising our people to invest in Raleigh real estate. Buy a lot at the Oakdale sale October 18th, and you will find it will give you a handsome profit in a year or two.

Raleigh is the Place.

No use going away from home for investment in real estate when you have such property as Oakdale offered at public sale. There is no boom here, but the increase is steady and sure. We are glad to know that our people are finding this out. Some of them are getting on to it a little late, but they will profit by it in the future we trust.

Pensions.

It is expected that the pension warrants will be issued earlier than usual this year, as Auditor Sanderlin expects to commence the issue in the first part of November. The county advisory boards are composed of old soldiers who act in conjunction with the regular pension boards, and they for what is deemed sufficient reasons, have dropped the names of such persons as they think are not entitled to pensions. In this event, the number of pensioners will be about the same as those of last year.

The Citizens' Auxiliary Committee.

At the meeting of citizens Monday evening Mayor Badger was made chairman of the citizens' auxiliary committee, which will confer with the exposition officials and seek in every way to further its objects, and which will also look after reception of visitors of prominence and other matters. Yesterday the mayor appointed the following to compose this auxiliary committee: W. G. Upchurch, W. E. Ashley, Dr. H. B. Battle, J. S. Wynne, E. G. Harrell, John Robinson, Oct. Coke, G. W. Sanderlin, J. C. Birdsong, L. O. Lougee, R. B. Ramey, T. B. Mosley, W. C. Stronach, Walter Woolcott, R. S. Tucker, Joseph Daniels, S. A. Ashe, James H. Ennis, W. R. Richardson, A. W. Shaffer, J. B. Hill, T. A. Peggand, D. T. SwinCell, Jas. Boylan, E. B. Englehard, J. R. Ferrall, Jesse A. Jones, W. R. Jones, Alf A. Thompson, C. G. Latta, R. H. Lewis, Jas. McKee, S. C. Pool, J. C. Ellington, G. L. Tonoffski, William Cram, T. C. Williams, A. Creech, J. M. Broughton, H. H. Roberts, R. Battle, W. S. Primrose, E. P. Moses, C. J. Parkes, T. H. Briggs, J. C. Scarborough, W. H. Worth, J. W. Denmark and J. L. Ramsey.

The Wilmington Star says: "It takes nearly half the revenue of the State of Oregon to support the insane of that State." Surely this must be a mistake.

Supreme Court.

The following opinions were rendered yesterday afternoon:

State vs. Whitfield from Pitt; no error.

State vs. Telfair, from Pitt; no error.

Baltzer vs. the State Motion of Attorney General to dismiss, allowed. Hornthall vs. Borwell, from Washington, affirmed.

Bray vs. Creekmoore, from Currituck; no error.

State vs. Haddock, from Pitt; error.

Spruill vs. Arrington, from Nash; no error.

Bray vs. Barnard, from Currituck; no error.

Boone vs. Darden, from Northampton; no error.

Johuston vs. Whitehead, from Pitt. Motion to reinstate appeal denied.

A North Carolina Town Sold.

The town of Tillery Las, we learn, been sold to the Carolina Lumber Company for $40,000. This town was laid off by Mr. J. R. Tillery on his land when the Scotland Neck railroad was built and he had never sold any lots, although he had plenty of applications to buy, but would always put up houses for any one who desired to live and do business there. The Carolina Lumber Company has for sometime had a large lumber plant there and now own the whole town. They also, we hear, purchased Mr. Tillery's farm, adjoining the town.—Roanoke News.

Foot Ball.

Trinity College has challenge the University for a game of foot ball to take place on the 27th and 30th, for the championship of the State. Washington Lee University, of Lexington, Va., has also challenged Trinity for a game to be played in Raleigh on the 4th of November.
