NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

The weather is bright and bracing. The exposition is growing in size and significance.

Yesterday was a gloomy day, and there is nothing new about today.

The temperance people are waking up.

Rose Osborne in "Satan" to night at Metropolitan Hall.

Don't forget the concert tonight for the aid of the hospital.

The Chronicle says: "It is stated that yesterday morning there was an earthquake shock." Well, we expect the area and extent involved was small.

The congregation of Central Methodist Church is looking forward with high expectations to the dedication of their new church on the 22nd of next month.

Do not fail to attend the concert at the Yarboro House to night. Remember it is for the benefit of Saint John's Hospital. Help out this noble charity.

The festival given by the ladies of the Baptist Tabernacle will be continued to night at Moseley's late dining hall on Fayetteville Street.

Satan at Metropolitan Hall to night.

There is now no doubt about it. A dispatch has been received announcing that the 5th Maryland regiment will leave Baltimore on the 9th of November, for Raleigh.

We learn from the Oxford Day that there were three bridal parties from old Granville, at the exposition yesterday. There were some persons from Granville looking very happy.

The concert this evening for the benefit of St. John's Hospital will be given in the dining room of the Yarboro. Two hundred seats and that number only will be sold.

Capt. Francis Hallett said yesterday that as soon as a stock company could be formed the plate factory would be rebuilt. It is the plan to add cold storage house to it.

A switch is being constructed on the electric line on West Edenton street in front of the agricultural building. As soon as it is finished cars will run through from the depot to the cemetery without change, and also from St. Mary's to the depot. New and heavy rails is being put down on Hillsboro street.

The attendance upon the exposition yesterday was large, notwithstanding much of the day was disagreeable and raw. To day promises to be the best Friday the big show has had. Greensboro Female College is to be here in all its beauty and wisdom.

The colored people are making a very creditable display at the exposition indeed. By Nov. 1st, their department will be a point of attraction on the grounds. The exhibits in this department, furnished by the Florida people are interesting and attractive.

Mr. J. Lane, general manager Georgia Southern and Florida Railroad, says: "I was entirely relieved of headache by Bradycortine in fifteen minutes. It is the only thing that relieves me after the pains commences." wed 21 6t

It seems that burglars are beginning on Raleigh. That was a bold burglary on the night of October the 21st. Let house keepers be on the alert, and give these no-tornal visitors a dose of lead when they come around. But be careful and do not shoot until you are sure you aim at a burglar. It is no sin to shoot a man who would break into a quiet house and rob it while the inmates are asleep, provided he is shot in the act of burglary.

A number of the young ladies of Durham were in attendance upon the exposition to day, chaperoned by Mrs. E. J. Parish.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. N. Snelling was taken quite sick last night and is confined at his home today.

At yesterday's session, the board of agriculture heard the opinion of Attorney General Davidson upon the power of the board to make appropriations. It was favorable.

There will be a special convocation of Raleigh chapter No. 13, R. A. M., this evening for work in all the degrees. All visiting companions are cordially invited to attend.

The address authorized to be issued by the Democratic Executive Committee to the people of the State, is prepared, and will probably be issued early next week.

The ladies of the Tabernacle Church will tonight continue to furnish refreshments, and an oyster supper at Moseley's old stand, Fayetteville street. Everybody invited.

It is earnestly desired by Mayor Badger that the members of the citizens auxiliary committee should meet him at the Mayor's office tonight at 8 o'clock for the purpose of laying out work for the committee. Let all the members be present.

"The Life and Services of General D. H. Hill," was the subject for the annual address on May 10th next. At the request of Mrs. Hill, the address has been postponed for a year. The Association has selected General Wm. MacRae, of Wilmington, as the subject for next memorial day.

Mr. R. A. Williams, vulgarly known as "Peg-Leg," is in the city seeking to effect the status of our population. Unless he can raise the standard we do not specially need his help. This taking the advantage of the ignorance of people for the benefit of railroad companies is not just the thing.

We recently published several editorials on the desirability of a return to the system of stock companies in some of our city theatres as the means of arousing local interest and encouraging the best development of local talent. Last week's experience at Ford's Opera House was an indication of what can be done. Through the enterprise of Mr. John T. Ford, the veteran manager, a company of players presented a series of old comedies with a success that was pronounced as it was delightful. Large audiences of our best people attended all the performances, and gave unmistakable evidence of their enjoyment and appreciation. It was a most gratifying change from the rage of farce-comedy and general horseplay, and it gave one a better opinion of the true mission of the stage, which is to combine culture with entertainment and teach good morals while it entertains. We heartily wish that there were more revivals of the same sort, and we congratulate Mr. Ford upon the success of his enterprise.—Editorial Baltimore American, Sept. 26th, 1891.

Runaway.

Left my premises last Saturday, Walter Magnin, a boy bound to me. He is 12 years old, with dark hair. When he left carried off black straw hat. Reward if delivered to police headquarters at Raleigh or my home near Eagle Rock.

An Old Saying.

"Everything is lovely, and the goose hangs high," is a misquotation. It should be: "Everything is lovely, and the goose hawks high." When wild geese are migrating, they make a peculiar sound that is exactly expressed by the word "hawk."

By the way, why is it we do not have flocks of wild geese passing over as of yore? The music of a flock of wild geese on a beautiful bright night in autumn is exhilarating.

Our Young Men.

No city can boast of a better class of young men than those who we are glad to call our own. Now a word to our boys; you will agree with us that a man should begin to lay up some thing in his young days. No better place to put your savings than in dirt. No better dirt on earth than Raleigh dirt. You will have the chance on Wednesday next to buy a lot where it will grow constantly in value. Oakdale presents to you an opportunity that you will not have again soon. Raleigh young men stick to your own town, you will never regret it.

Personal Mention.

Mr. E. W. Pou, jr., and wife, are in the city.

Mr. C. J. Hamilton, of the English Comedy Company, is in the city.

Capt. Exline, of Pittsboro, is in the city today.

We had the pleasure of a call this morning from our old friend Mr. W. N. Brockwell, of Washington, D. C. He is looking well, seems happy and is as fat as a pig.

Rev. E. A. Yates was in the city yesterday taking in the Exposition.

Miss Lillian Rouse, who has been in the city visiting at Capt. Timberlake's, returned home yesterday.

Mr. B. I. Powell, with the Brainard Armstrong Silk Company, is in the city and will take in the Exposition today.

Mr. J. H. Rogers, of the firm of Rogers & Wilder, of Americus, Ga., is in the city shaking hands with his many friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kaley and daughter, of Alabama, are in the city visiting her sisters, Mrs. Carrie Medlin, Mrs. Wallin and Mrs. Parker.

Digest These Facts.

There are no vacant houses and no idle stores in Raleigh. The city has grown rapidly in the past two years. Within the past eighteen months 2,000 have been added to our population, more than 200 buildings have been erected and half million dollars have been put into new factories. These are facts and are worth many thousands a year to the trade and prosperity of the city. Where is the place that is advancing more rapidly? Do not these things impress you with the value of the investment opportunity which will be presented to you on Wednesday next?

Such chances come seldom. It is not often that a property is offered for sale that possesses so many advantages as does Oakdale. The lots are large and well arranged. They are in that part of the city that is recognized by all to be one of the very best. That section of the town is growing faster than any other. Property there has increased more rapidly in value than in any part of the city. The lots will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, payable one-fourth cash, balance in one, two and three years at 6 per cent interest. Look at these terms and see what a profitable investment you can make with a small amount of cash. The Capital City Land Company have been liberal in making their terms and we have no doubt that this opportunity will be taken up by our people.
