NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

Go to Metropolitan Hall to night. Sam Jones will be in Charlotte Nov. 5th, and also John Robinson's circus at the same time.

Col. L. L. Poik will address the people at the fair at Elizabeth City on Thursday, Nov. 5th.

If you want to hear something new go to Jones & Powell and interview Mr. Miller.

At the Soldiers' Home at present clothing is much needed. We trust their wants will be supplied by those who have a plenty and to spare.

The fifty members of the "Citizens' Exposition committee" wear badges with the committee's title in a circle, while below it are pins and blue ribbons.

The Seaboard Air Line shops here have turned out a private car for the use of Superintendent Whisnant of the Georgia, Carolina and Northern railway.

Dr. Chas. E. Taylor, President of Wake Forest College, proposes to take fifty or more of his students to Washington City to spend a week.

Wm. G. Hill to go last evening had a good time after its commutation, a bountiful supper was set for its members and visiting brethren which was much enjoyed by all present.

The cotton market was rather fuller than usual to day and the market depressed. To day's prices 7 1/2 to 8 shown considerable decline from yesterday's prices.

The balloon ascension at Oakdale will be made by Mrs. Dennis who will ascend to a great height and distribute tickets, one of these tickets will entitle the holder to a lot in Oakdale.

No business man should fail to attend the sale of lots at Oakdale tomorrow. It means much for Raleigh. Encourage people to buy and build and thus help on the growth of our beautiful city.

To night at Metropolitan Hall the play will be "Honor Bound," and the after piece "Our Uncle," which will be interesting to all who attend. By all means let there be a rousing house to night.

At Metropolitan Hall last night a large and appreciative audience attended to witness the play "She Stoops to Conquer." Mr. Ford is well known among the theatre goers in Raleigh and will always draw large audiences whenever he performs here.

Now is your opportunity young men. A dollar put into a lot at Oakdale will be well spent indeed. It will grow in value every day, and in a few years will bring you a nice return. The terms are very liberal; very little money required.

Mr. J. Lane, general manager Georgia Southern and Florida Railroad, says: "I was entirely relieved of headache by Bradycroline in fifteen minutes. It is the only thing that relieves me after the pain commences." wed 21 6t

The Rose Osborne, Satan Company went to the wall last Saturday night. The members having received no salaries for some time decided to resign. The dramatic world suffers quite a loss, for the company was one of the best on the road, playing Sardou's best success "Satan" by a brilliant cast. We have since learned the majority of the company have formed a co-partnership and will play the season through, and we bespeak for them a flattering success. The company will play a strong repertoire, consisting of such pieces as "Sweethearts," "Caste," &c. It will be known as the "Sweethearts Company," with Mr. Paul Gilmore as manager.

The arch was swaying back and forth very much this morning from the pressure of the wind and threatened to fall.

There are a few articles left at the Exposition grounds which were exhibited at the State Fair. Parties to whom they belong will please call for them immediately.

A grand bicycle tournament and races will be held at the Exposition on Friday, October 29th. Some of the best riders in the country will be present on that day, and the public may expect to see some fine riding.

Dr. R. J. Gatling, the great gun man, is in the city, being entertained at the Yarboro. Dr. Gatling is a native North Carolinian. He is advertised to deliver an address at the Exposition tomorrow.

Dennis Branch, colored, who died on Sunday night, was buried this afternoon by the Order of Good Samaritans, the colored fire company and the colored masons in full regalia.

Barbee & Pope had their delivery wagon considerably smashed up this morning. The horses to one of the city wagons become frightened at the street cars and backed into it, breaking up the wheels pretty badly.

The Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad Company notified the Exposition management that they will place tickets on sale from Nashville, Tenn., to Raleigh and return, on account of Southern Exposition, on Tuesday and Wednesday of each week from October 6th to November 25th, at rate of $24.50 each.

The lot of land on the corner of East Hargett and Swain streets containing about nine acres, being the residence of the late Jordan Womble, has been divided in 45 splendid building lots and will be offered for sale for the next thirty days privately. If not sold by that time there will be an auction sale. The property fronts on East Hargett, Swain, Martin streets, extended, Davie street and Womble avenue, and has been laid off into nice lots to suit purchasers. Any one wanting a home or those desiring to make a good investment will do well to examine this property.

Mr. W. H. Oliver, of New Berne, N. C., one of the leading insurance men of the State, was in the city a few days since in attendance upon the Exposition, and on returning home stated to the New Berne Journal reporter that he was highly pleased with the Inter-State Exposition and says it would take several days to see all the exhibits in the various departments that are worthy of examination, and that if any one visits it with the idea that it is otherwise than fine they will be agreeably surprised. He characterizes it as a splendid affair—equal to the Exposition at Atlanta a few years ago which was pronounced a grand one.

Asheville Banner.

A new paper appeared in Asheville, N. C. October 18th. It is an eight page weekly. Its time of issue is Sunday morning. It is Republican in politics.

Fire.

About 12 o'clock m., an alarm was sent out from box 25, to which the department responded promptly. The fire was in the roof of a small four roomed house, owned by Mr. T. Pence, situated on East Lenoir street. The roof was badly burnt before the fire was extinguished. The house was occupied by Mr. Eugene Glenn.

Kicked by a Mule

Little Charlie, the nine year old son of Mr. G. W. Britt, while playing with other boys around Mr. Jones warehouse on Sunday, was kicked by a mule on the right jaw, breaking the jaw bone in two places and breaking the cheek bone, and knocking out all the teeth from one side of his mouth, including several front teeth. The kick was received square on the side of the face and the entire jaw bone was badly shattered. The little fellow is extraordinarily patient under the extreme pain this wound must necessarily produce.

Synopsis of the Weather at 8 P. M. Yesterday.

The storm central over the lakes on Sunday has moved rapidly eastward to the North Atlantic coast where cloudy weather prevails with light showers. Over the remainder of the United States east of the Rocky Mountains cloudless weather continues with high temperatures in the Southern States.

A cold wave has appeared in the extreme northwest, accompanied with clear weather and northerly winds.

The weather in this vicinity will continue fair for some days with stationary temperature, northwest winds on Tuesday, but rapidly falling temperature on Wednesday.

Merchants and Business Men.

Every merchants and business man in Raleigh should feel so much interested in the sale of the Oakdale property tomorrow as to allow such of their clerks and employees attend the same as may desire to do so. If you want to keep your men let them become permanent citizens by investing in a lot for a home. Do you want them to learn lessons of economy and save them from temptations that are hurtful, then tell them to go out to Oakdale and invest there and save their earnings. Every clerk and employee that wants build up his employer should help this effort to build up our city.

No Longer Any Doubt.

Some people have doubted that the street car line would be extended through Oakdale. The company have put all doubts at rest by coming out and boldly declaring that all lots would be sold on guarantee that the road will be built, and they publish a letter from the superintendent of the street railway saying that this company will put on cars on the new line on regular schedule as soon as the same is built. This is business and leaves no room for further doubting. Oakdale will thereby become a most desirable place for residences.
