NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Cold wave on time.
Blizzards in the North West.
Great many strangers in the city.
The Tarboro troops are expected tomorrow
Yesterday was what may be termed a regular "weather breeder"
The sheriff is anxiously waiting to write your receipt for taxes.
Gov. Holt will open the Fayetteville fair.
The revenue collections for October were $105,000.
Attention is called to an organ for sale, advertised in this issue. The party owning it propose to sell it very cheap.
An effort will soon be made to put St. John's Hospital on a firm footing. This is right. This noble charity should not be allowed to languish.
An important meeting of the Governor's Guard Drum Corps will take place tonight. The object of the meeting is to make arrangements for the reception of the Fifth Maryland Regiment and a full attendance is desired.
Sheriff J. A. Hamilton of Alamance brought a convict down to the penitentiary last Saturday. His name was Fletcher Carr, and he was convicted of house burning and sentenced to twenty five years.
The colored State fair will formally open tomorrow in the special building at the exposition grounds. The opening speech will be made by P. B. S. Pinchback, colored, of Louisiana.
The County Commissioners were in session today but transacted no business of any special importance, most of the matters coming before them being of routine character, such as providing for the poor, remitting taxes when improperly imposed, &c.
At the city government headquarters, things were very much as they usually are on Monday. His Honor came down pretty heavy on one sable offender for drunkenness, disorderly conduct and resisting the officer of law, in the shape of a $5 fine. This was not too heavy, however, offenders against the law should be made to feel the smart of the penalty.
Miss Lilly Rose, the daughter and only child of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Rose, died at her home in Fayetteville, N. C., on Thursday night last, aged 21 years. She was the niece of Mrs. R. T. Gray of this city. She was well remembered in Raleigh by her many friends.
Lieutenant John A. Alexander, of Ohio, a colored Lieutenant in the regular army and a graduate at West Point, now stationed in Utah, is in the city, having been sent here by the War Department to take charge of the troops at the colored encampment, in attendance upon the exposition and the colored fair. The troops will be coming in for a day or two and the encampment will be organized on Wednesday.
Mrs. E. M. Lewis, Oxanna, Ala., writes: "For over twenty years I have suffered with headaches with out relief from the many remedies and physicians tried during that period. Braxton's produces the most satisfactory results. It is as indispensable to my comfort as my food."
There was some interest around the court house this morning. Messrs. Yancey & Stronach, auctioneers, sold some real estate which had been advertised by the parties authorized to sell. A lot on Person street, 80x210 feet, sold for $1,000. The Fowle building on Martin street brought $3,000; the Prairie building on Wilmington street brought $4,000 and the Prairie home place sold for $2,500.

A lady bicyclist, Miss Emma Young of Atlantic City, N. J., has made her appearance in Raleigh.

Mr. J. A. Holman has no connection with the new paper reported to be started at Winton.

General Bradley F. Johnson, First Colonel of the Fifth Maryland Regiment, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson, will come to Raleigh next week.

The ladies will hold a corymbium show on Monday next in the store room, 129 Fayetteville street, two doors below Tucker & Co's. The proceeds will be for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. This will be a very pleasant opportunity to spend time as well as money.

Officer Woodall returned on Saturday from Chattanooga, Tenn., with Cawthorn, who was arrested there for the abandonment of his family in Johnson county. He will doubtless have to be held in jail until the next term of the court.

Mr. L. A. Young, of Southern Pines, who is assisting at the exposition, came down from his horse today and reports the prospect for winter boarders at the Pines better than at any former times. He also says the attendance upon the exposition since it first opened has been remarkably good. They are expecting some big days this week.

Our city government is certainly succeeding in maintaining good order as well as special freedom from starting and revolting crimes. During the past month there has been no special crime claiming the attention of the mayor or other executives of the law in the city. Whiskey drinking and the consequent results of people making fools and brutes of themselves has been the source of the corporation court business.

Milton and Dollie Nobles.

The attraction at Metropolitan Hall this week is Milton and Dollie Nobles. These popular artists will begin an engagement at this theatre Tuesday (tomorrow) evening, presenting Mr. Nobles' last and most successful play "From Sire to Son." The play opens at the village and camp at Yuba, Cal., in 1869, and successive acts take the audience to Venice, and then to an old castle on the Rhine, giving good opportunities for fine scenic settings of the stage which are well improved. The plot hinges on a curse "From Sire to Son" of temporary loss of speech under strong excitement. In the first act Alfred Armitage, who has, under the assumed name of John Oakley, been a successful gambler, breaks with his companion, Jonas Hardy, and declares he will never again touch a card. The love for his wife and daughter leads to this determination, but it results in the killing of the wife and the wounding of Armitage by Hardy. The tragedy makes Armitage speechless, and while in that state Hardy escapes to San Francisco, where he assumes Armitage's name, obtains his deposits in the bank, and then secures possession of his daughter, who has been brought up in a convent and has never seen her father. The second act shows the interior of the Yuba Hotel, where, suddenly made aware of the acts of Hardy, Armitage recovers his speech, and declares the grave only shall shield the murderer. In the third act Armitage discovers his daughter in a hotel in Venice, but on denouncing Hardy is arrested as insane. The last act in an old castle on the Rhine brings the villain to bay, and father and daughter are united. The inseparable comedy element is naturally introduced in the characters of Dr. Marmaduke, Mandrake and his son Hamilton, who make love alternately to the proprietress of the Yuba Hotel and her daughter. A genuine old mountain coach, drawn by genuine bronches, a d filled with genuine passengers, will be an interesting bit of stage realism in "From Sire to Son."

Reserved seats now on sale at Bobbitt's drug store.

Well, We Will Swear.

We have 200 doz misses fast black, seamless, long ribbed hose, regular 25c goods, and we will have a special sale of these hose on Monday next at 10c a pair. If you have children you can't afford to miss an opportunity like this. This sale at 10c is for one day only—next Monday, November 9th—at Swindell's.

Let it be Done.

We are assured by supervisor McMackin, that in a short while, the Avenet Ferry road from its intersection with the Hillsboro road to Pullen park, will be covered with a nice coating of sand and gravel. This is eminently right and proper. It is the nearest outlet from the city to the beautiful park given by Mr. R. S. Pullen for the convenience of our citizens, and surely there should be a good road to reach it. The Board of County Commissioners will meet next Monday, and we hope they will, at once give Mr. McMackin all needful authority in the premises. It is a matter that all our people are deeply interested in, especially as the present road is almost impassable in bad weather. We trust chairman Norris of the Board will use his influence in this direction, for which he will have the thanks of all the people of Raleigh Township.

A Breezy Time.

'The play's the thing' It is particularly the 'thing' just at this season, and everybody seems to be quite sure and wants to do the proper thing, and the result is that everybody will go to see "A Breezy Time," the newest and best of farce comedies. It is said to be a jolly play, with plenty of go, and does not call upon you for any great mental effort to follow its plot, nor does it cause cold shivers to run through your anatomy by startling situations; but if you have any of the enjoyments of life it will keep your spirits bubbling over with hilarious mirth and if you are feeling nervous or badly over household or business disappointments it will act as refreshingly as a cool breeze in the middle of a hot July afternoon. The personnel of the company includes four of the best known comedians and three bright, bewitching soubrettes, the Oakwood Quartette the Chihuahua Mandolin Octette, Firz and Webster, the musical auto cats, the quartette of pretty captivating gavotte and tennis racket ball dancers, and other new and novel features, will appear at the Opera House Friday and Saturday nights, Oct. 6 and 7. Tickets on sale at Bobbitt's drug store.
