NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

There was no news stirring at the departments in the capitol to day.

The Mayor had no cases of importance before him to day.

Gov. Fleming did not arrive this morning as expected.

Educational week at the exposition.

Trinity College day at the exposition.

Work is fast progressing on the buildings at the Caraleigh Mill site.

A "Son of Thespis" at Metropolitan Hall tonight.

Christmas will be here before we think of it.

A considerable crowd of colored people from a distance are here to day.

The chrysanthemum show for the benefit of St. John's Hospital will commence next Monday.

The health of the prisoners in the penitentiary is excellent; very few cases of any kind of sickness.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. Charles H. Holden in this issue.

Soon be time to issue the Thanksgiving proclamation, and then the turkey may prepare to roost high.

The market is unusually well supplied with all the delicacies of the season.

A number of newspaper men from a distance are in the city, taking in the exposition.

The trains from the west still continue late, to the great disadvantage of the traveling public.

Milton Noble's winning golden opinions among the dramatic loving portion of the community.

The receipts of cotton continue quite heavy. The beautiful weather is most favorable for picking out.

Goats are getting to be a nuisance in some parts of the city. They should not be allowed to run at large.

Supervisor McMackin proposes to put in some good work on the county roads before the bad weather sets in.

The musical concert at the Shaw University to night will be a rare treat. Visitors will be cordially welcomed.

Argument in the merchants purchase tax case before the Supreme Court, has been concluded. The decision will be rendered in a few days.

The death rate of Raleigh is lower than most cities of its size in the country. Let strangers make a note of this.

New arrivals continue at both of the female institutions in this city. There are no better schools in the United States.

Next week is the grand gala time of the exposition. There will be a great rush here from all parts of the State.

Much interest is manifested in the decision of the Supreme Court relative to the merchants purchase tax. The amount involved to the State is nearly $70,000.

A white man named Holland from Johnston county was arrested in this city last night. He is charged with stealing $30, and was returned to Johnston this morning.

We were shown to day some twenty ounce Pippins, by Messrs. Barbee & Pope. They are the finest apples ever brought to this city. Call and see them.

The direct tax money is being rapidly exhausted. This is so much the more reason why some action should be taken to have North Carolina well represented at the Chicago fair.

Purchase some of Schwartz fine mutton.

The election news during to day has been quite meagre.

The Horner cadets will be here next Friday.

The Charlotte Light Infantry is nicely encamped in the exposition grounds.

The woods now resound with the sound of the huntsman's gun. Game, too, is said to be plentiful.

Amid all the excitement of the exposition and the elections, it should not be forgotten that sheriff Page knows how to write tax receipts.

The country around Raleigh now looks beautiful with its variegated autumnal hues. A ramble is a luxury this d lightful weather.

And now we hear that a new hotel is to be built on the site of the present residence of Mr. J. Ruffin Williams, corner of McDowell and Martin streets. Splendid location.

Work is rapidly progressing on the Hillsboro street electric car line. It will be finished during the week and then it will be a most admirable track in all respects.

Misses Maggie and Rosa Wicker, who have been visiting Miss Martha H. Davis, No. 317 Oakwood avenue, returned to their home in Sanford on Monday.

Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Henderson, the former commandant of the Fifth Maryland Regiment will give a breakfast to the officers on their arrival in Raleigh.

Not the slightest tidings have yet been heard concerning the thieves who broke into and robbed Messrs. Hubbard and Ellis a short while since. They come and go like so many spirits, with none to molest them.

We learn that all the arrangements for the removal of the Greensboro North State to Raleigh have been perfected. The removal will probably take place early in the coming month.

The next great event will be the visit of the Fifth Maryland Regiment next week. It will be an occasion calculated to bring an immense crowd. Let us take care that a genuine old fashioned "tar heel" welcome is extended them.

A large and delighted audience were at Metropolitan Hall last night to witness the rendition of "From Sire to Son." The play was admirable in all its parts, and Mr. Nobles and Miss Dollie won the highest praise.

Mr. Darius Waterhouse, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "It cost but little to try Bradycrotine, and a trial is all that is necessary to convince the doubting thousands that it will cure headache." nov 4 6t

Regular monthly meeting of the Retail Grocers Protective Association tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. It is important that there be a full attendance of the members. The delinquent list is now in the hands of the secretary for distribution.

If a person wants to purchase a piece of real estate in Wake, it is natural that the title should be looked into. It is a vast deal of trouble to do this unless there is a double index. By all means this great convenience should be looked after.

Died.

At the residence of her parents, last night Alice, daughter of Mr. C. W. and Mrs. Lizzie H. Bevers, aged 16 months.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock from the residence.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, to morrow night at 7:30 o'clock. Candidates for the initiatory degree will be present promptly at 8:45 o'clock without fail. Members of the lodge earnestly requested to attend. Visiting brethren cordially invited to attend. THEM, Sec'y.

The finest selection of mutton ever brought to Raleigh at Schwartz.

Invitation to Visitors in the City.

The ladies of the Christian Church hereby invite visitors to take dinner or supper with them at the old Moseley's dining hall, opposite Tucker's on Fayetteville street, on Thursday; open all day. Fresh oysters from the Nansmond river served. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

Superior Court.

The following business was transacted today:

Wm. Mitchell and Altoona Mitchell vs Sallie Hall; verdict for plaintiff; judgment to be drawn.

J. A. Jones et al vs Edison General Electric Co.; judgment for plaintiff.

Tucker & Co. et als vs Mary S. Hatch et als; argument of counsel in progress.

Fine Stock Sale.

The fine stock sale which takes place here on the 11th inst., will be one of the most important stock sales that has ever taken place in the State. The stock to be offered is of the finest strains. The railroad fare will be about one cent per mile only. This is a rare opportunity for securing a fine horse.

Close Connection.

The following is the order of the Railroad Commission issued to the authorities of the R & D and Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Companies relative to close connection at Goldsboro:

You will take notice that whereas complaint made on oath has been filed before the commission, and from other sources of information, that you fail to make close connection at the town of Goldsboro, and whereas, it further appears from said sworn complaint and other sources that said connection is practicable and necessary for the convenience of the traveling public; now, therefore, the board of railway commissioners doth order that you and each of you make the desired connection between Raleigh and Wilmington within ten days from the date of this order or show cause before the board of railway commissioners why said order has not been executed.

A County Index.

We have heretofore called attention to the necessity of having a new index prepared for the use of the Register of Deeds office. This is a thing that should be no longer delayed, because it has become almost a public necessity. As matters now stand, it is almost impossible to trace out titles to real estate with any degree of accuracy, and thus facilities for the transfer of property are much impeded. We hope the county commissioners will take prompt action in the premises. Of course it will involve some expense, but then it will be money well laid out. Let there be no longer any delay. It must be done eventually, and we can see no good reason why it should be postponed.

Friday, Nov 6th, and Monday Nov. 9th, are the Days.

On Friday next we will place on special sale, for one day only, a big lot of ladies and misses rubber shoes at 20c per pair and children's at 15c; and on Monday, Nov. 9th, we will place on special sale a big line of children's black seamless hose at 10c per pair that would be cheap at 25c. We will also offer many other bargains. All are invited to attend this the greatest special sales of the season. We are now showing the largest and best assortment of carpeting ever brought to this market. We can furnish you any price, style or quality carpet that you may want.

Yours truly,

D. T. SWINDELL.

For Sale.

The store on East Hargett street now occupied by Mr. Alvin Betts. For terms apply to no4 6t W. R. COOKE, Cary, N. C.

Election Returns.

We give the following summary of election returns:

The election of Flowers for Governor of New York is conceded heavy democratic gains being reported in the country districts.

In Ohio, the election of McKinley for Governor is conceded.

Indications gathered from news last night are that Russell is elected Governor of Massachusetts by a small majority.

Large democratic gains in Iowa, and the State can be considered in doubt.

Maryland goes democratic. New Jersey elects democratic legislature in both branches.

LATEST NEWS.

Dispatches received up to the hour of going to press do not vary in any essential respect from those of last night. It is conceded that the Democrats have carried New York and Massachusetts with a chance for Iowa. The majorities cannot be estimated.

An Invitation to the Business Men of Raleigh.

The ladies of the Christian Church will serve dinner at the old Moseley's dining hall Thursday and supper on Thursday night for the benefit of the church. They extend a special invitation to the business men of Raleigh to get dinner or supper with them. Oysters fresh from the Nansmond river will be served.
