NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A "Breezy Time" at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night.

The western train behind again today.

Federal Court meets in this city the latter part of the present month.

We saw a young man come into town this morning with a string of thirty partridges.

The Democratic column is apparently quite a substantial one if the structure continues intact until 1892.

Appeals from the 7th district will be called in the Supreme Court next Monday.

Don't lose sight of the great sale of blooded stock, by Capt. B. P. Williamson, on the 11th inst.

The cotton receipts today have been quite large, running up perhaps to about 250 bales.

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church will meet in annual session in Durham on the 10th inst.

The railroad shops of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. is to be removed from Fayetteville to a point near Greensboro.

Don't forget that tonight will be the last opportunity for some time to come to witness Milton and Miss Dolle Nobles in their superb acting.

The Greenboro North State says another race is certainly fixed between Fitzsimmons and Wynne. The time is not agreed upon.

This is Oxford day at the exposition and there is a large crowd in attendance from Granville. A large delegation came in this morning including the Horner cadets.

Mr. Darius Waterhouse Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "It cost but little to try Bradycetine, and a trial is all that is necessary to convince the doubting thousands that it will cure headache." nov 4 6t

We notice that invitations have been extended to ex President Cleveland, and Governors Hill, Flower and Russell to visit the Augusta Exposition. It is proposed that they be accompanied by a party of New England capitalists. North Carolina must hurry up, or Georgia will take the "wind out of our sails."

We hope the contribution committee will be punctual in their meetings and see to it that the most ample preparations shall be made to entertain our military visitors. The time is short, and what is to be done must be done quickly.

We hear that is in contemplation to open the Hargett street, electric line at an early day. It must be that this will be a paying line, and it would seem that the interest of the company and the public alike would demand its early completion.

It has been decided to dispense with the barbecue feature of the entertainment of the Maryland regiment. This is all well enough, in view of the fact that barbecues are common affairs in Maryland. Let us substitute something of a more novel character.

Mayor Badger says he is in favor of a great big time in Raleigh next year, the occasion of our centennial. It is not a bit too soon to talk about it. With a full election all over the country and a grand celebration in Raleigh, our folks can be kept pretty lively.

Several young men from a distance came to the city yesterday. They were somewhat elated over matters and things generally and imbibed somewhat too much. The mayor gave them a hearing this morning, and replenished the city treasury to the extent of $7.25 in cash each. They retired with thanks and returned home wiser and better.

We are pleased to see Bro. Roseower, of the Goldsboro Headlight, in the city. He is looking well.

Meet the committee to solicit subscriptions for the entertainment of the Fifth Maryland Regiment, with welcome. Give them what you can spare. Let a genuine welcome greet the visitors.

East Hargett street between Wilmington and Blount, should be paved. It is one of the most crowded thoroughfares, and its condition, in wet weather, is extremely bad.

Rocky Mount, N. C. Fair.

For the above occasion the Richmond and Danville Railroad will sell reduced rates round trip tickets to Selma, or Goldsboro, N. C., and return from all points east of Henderson, Oxford and Durham on their line Nov. 10th to 13th, inclusive, limited Nov. 30th, 1891.

In a Quandary.

According to the Durham Sun, Evangelist Fife is in somewhat of a quandary in Danville. The Sun says: "According to the reports in the Register, Evangelist Fife finds two particular unpleasant features of his meetings in Danville. One is that crowds of drunken men in the audience asked to be prayed for, and the other is that he does not have the sympathy of the christian workers."

Good Entertainment.

The ladies of the Christian Church certainly have a very attractive dining room at the Moseley House on Fayetteville street. They have oysters which are really fresh and nice. They are served in such style as you desire by just the sweetest creatures in the world, beautiful young ladies. If you fail to go there for a plate of oysters or a full square meal you will miss a treat.

"Son of Thespis."

A very large crowd witnessed the performance of "A Son of Thespis" at Metropolitan Hall last night. It was a rendition rarely surpassed in Raleigh and elicited the warmest praise. Milton Nobles and his accomplished daughter have won laurels among our people and they may rest assured that they will always receive a cordial welcome in Raleigh. To night the splendid play of the "Phoenix" will be presented and we must think a crowded house will greet them. "This is the farewell performance for the present."

W. N. C. Conference M. E. Church

For the above occasion the Richmond & Danville R. R. will sell round trip tickets to Asheville and return at following rates from points named. Tickets on sale from all points west of Raleigh Nov. 9th to 13th inclusive, limited to Nov. 19th:

Here it Is.

It has been discovered that an electric light wire is a splendid remedy for cats. It was found out by a boy, and is as follows: "A wire stretched from a back window to a neighbor's house was used by him in practicing telegraphy. An electric light wire having dropped down on his wire magnet was burned out. When the youngster went out a few days later to investigate he found the backyard full of deceased cats. It was a mystery. He suspected poison. Soon after he observed an aggressive cat climbing from the fence to the shed the electric light wire was in the way. Possibly Tom touched the wire with his fore paws, and exuberant vocal and physical gymnastics followed. The cat tumbled into the yard dead. The greatest discoveries are thus of ten made by accident."

The Durham Odd Fellows.

The Durham Sun says: The two Durham lodges of Odd Fellows are making their arrangements to attend Odd Fellows day at the Exposition on the 11th. They will go from here with about one hundred or more strong, many of them accompanied by their families.

The Chrysanthemum.

Next Monday night has been set apart by the ladies to commence their chrysanthemum show for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. We hope the people of Raleigh will duly appreciate the noble cause for which the show is held and give it a hearty support.

Died.

Mr. John Prince, who was an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, left Raleigh for his former home in Middle Creek township, on last Friday, as he stated, to die, was found on the road side in a helpless condition and taken to his home by a friend, when he died on Monday night. He was a member of Co. D, 26th Regiment N. C. Troops. He served the entire war through, except the time he was in prison, and made a good soldier.

Mrs. Booker, of Cary, the wife of Mr. A. Booker, the efficient janitor at the court house, on Wednesday evening of this week. She leaves a crippled husband and five or six young children, the oldest of whom is 12 years and the youngest fifteen days. The affliction is a terrible one to Mr. Booker, not only in the loss of an exemplary and noble companion, but the irreparable loss of a mother to his little helpless children. We extend to him our most hearty sympathy.

Amusements.

The Grand opera house, filled to overflowing, opened for the season last night with a farcical, musical attraction called "A Breezy Time," under the management of the veteran Dan Shelby. The play has no plot to speak of. An old farmer from Vermont goes to Boston in search of a scapegrace nephew and a wild young lady at a seminary. He finds them and has a lively time in the first act. The second and third acts are on the homestead at Vermont. City folks, are tramps, and odd characters appear and make the scenes still livelier. Mr. E. B. Fitz, fat enough for a "Three Johns" company, was good natured and busy as the queer old man from Vermont. Miss Kathryn Webster is a very clever soubrette of the Nellie McHenry style. Miss Helen Rainsley looks well and sings difficult music with a pleasing voice and fine effect. The three semiary girls with long silk skirts do some high kicking in a dainty manner. A pretty bit is the lawn tennis bell ringing which is a novelty, and guitar and mandolin playing. The audience was highly pleased with the performance through out. These players, such as they are, are welcome. They come early while the weather is warm, and the people were needing "A Breezy Time."—New Orleans Picayune, Monday, September 7th.

Will appear at Metropolitan Hall Friday and Saturday nights, with Saturday matinee. Tickets now on sale at Bobbitt's drug store.

As They See Us.

Mr. W. G. Sharpe, editor of the Seymour, (Connecticut) Record is here taking in the exposition. He writes to his papers as follows:

"The visitor to the South today finds a different significance of the words, 'On to Richmond,' than he did a quarter of a century ago. In the place of a hostile foe he will be received with open arms and a hospitality that is unbounded in its genuineness, a true, warm hearted people, who are using every human effort to bury the past that contains so many bitter memories. In place of the scenes of bloodshed and devastation of that day, he will witness one of the most wonderful industrial revolutions that it is possible his mind can conceive. He will see cities and manufacturing enterprises that have sprung up as if by magic, and a country whose mineral wealth is inexhaustible."
