NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Rev. Sam Jones preached to over 7,000 people in the auditorium at Charlotte last Wednesday night.

The receipts of cotton today have been about the average reaching over two hundred bales.

Balloon races are all the rage. They are very successful and interesting.

Next week can very properly be called military week. It will look a little like war times.

A committee headed by Col. J. M. Heck, escorted Governor Fleming to the exposition grounds this morning.

The Horner boys left several bleeding hearts in Raleigh, if all reports be true.

The Warren guards will be here next Wednesday. Other companies of the State guard are expected.

Get ready to pay your city taxes next week. The list will be turned over next Monday.

Stropach's auditorium will be fixed up in fine style for the fall to be given the Maryland regiment.

It is about time the summer cars were taken off of the street car lines. They are anything but pleasant this weather.

The Horner cadets drilled in front of St. Mary's school yesterday afternoon. They were most cordially welcomed by the young ladies.

The crowd at the exposition grounds yesterday was estimated to be larger than on any day since during fair week.

We are authorized to say that in future the law against shooting in Oakwood Cemetery will be strictly enforced.

The time is getting short in which to prepare for the Maryland regiment. Let there be a hearty unity of purpose among our people to give them a genuine reception.

Meeting of the Board of Aldermen tonight, at which there will be much important business. Can't a boon be gotten up for a new station house—it is badly needed.

A large number of reporters for the press are expected in the city next week, including representatives of the Baltimore Sun, Herald and American.

Thorne's ten cent circus is booked for Raleigh on the 17th, 18th and 19th inst. It will pitch its tent on the lot just north of the Agricultural building, on Halifax street. Of course the small boy is happy, and many big ones too.

Let us hope that Mr. Page will go ahead on his proposed new hotel, so that it may be in readiness by the time the Union Depot is finished. It is well enough to remember, too, that a grand centennial is proposed in Raleigh next year.

Mr. Darius Waterhouse, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "It cost but little to try Brodyer's ointment, and a trial is all that is necessary to convince the doubting thousands that it will cure headache." nov 4 6t

It would seem that the pavement question is an easy problem to solve. From what we can understand, the law on the subject is plain. Property holders should see to it that the pavement in front of their places should be kept in repair. If, after proper notice, this is not done, surely there should be a way to enforce the ordinance. It strikes us that when parties are properly notified, this should be sufficient. At any rate, the law should be enforced.

Capt. W. H. Lucas a member of the State Senate and Fish Commissioner is in the city.

A good, warm rain, just now would help out wonderfully.

Several commercial travelers in the city. They report trade as good.

Collector Root will be in readiness to receive your city taxes in a few days.

Would it not be well to have railings to the steps leading into Metropolitan Hall. It would be very cheap, but a great improvement.

The good order preserved by the colored visitors to the exposition during the past few days, is a source of much congratulation.

The Hillsboro street line of Electric Street Railway, will be entirely finished in the early part of next week. It will be a splendid piece of road.

Next Thursday night has been set apart for Rev. Sam Jones' lecture in this city. The subject will be "get there," and he will get there, and no mistake.

This morning Governor Fleming was formally received at the Executive office, by Secretary of State Coke and other officials, Gov. Holt being absent at Greensboro.

We may now look for better mail facilities between Raleigh and Wilmington, since the Railway Commission has taken the matter of close connections at Greensboro in hand.

A ladies brown pocket book was lost at Metropolitan Hall last night. The finder will be suitably rewarded if they will leave it at Messrs. Whiting Bros., clothing store.

We were informed today that there was a big move on foot in railroad circles, which would result in much benefit to Raleigh. We presume it is in connection with the proposed through line of the Seaboard system to Atlanta.

A. Dughi received today a fresh lot of California pears, figs, grapes, bananas, lemons, nuts, &c.

As time wears on the exposition becomes more and more in popular favor. Each day increases the interest, and from now out, it may be safely predicted that the "big show," will come fully up to expectation in all respects. Next week can be called the "summit" of the show, and the people of the state can rest assured that a big event is in store for them.

Mayor's Court.

C. B. Edwards, from Durham county, for being drunk and disorderly on East Cabarrus street last night by forcibly entering a house, was up before the Mayor. Fined $5 and costs.

A case against Wm. Brown, shoemaker, for attempting to use a deadly weapon, was set for trial at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

D. J. Blue for being drunk and down and carrying a deadly weapon. Fined $30 and cost. Kept in custody until fine is paid.

A slight case of drunk was disposed of as usual.

Raleigh Ahead.

Mr. Neill A. Spence is, undoubtedly the champion wild turkey hunter of this section. He has just returned from a two days hunt, during which time he succeeded in bagging six fine ones. Their aggregate weight is seventy six pounds. Can this be beaten in North Carolina?

The following officers have been chosen by the North Carolina Colored Industrial Association:

President—E. E. Smith, Wayne.
Vice President—Stewart Ellison, Wake.
Treasurer—C. N. Hunter, Wake.
Secretary—J. H. Williamson, Franklin.

The Phoenix.

Milton Nobles and his fine company ended their present engagement here last night, with the magnificent play of "The Phoenix." The house was crowded and the most enthusiastic reception greeted the company. Mr. Nobles leaves us amid the deepest regret of our amusement loving public. He can rest assured that he has secured a triumph which will always render him a welcome visitor to the "City of Oaks."

Governor Fleming.

This distinguished Governor of West Virginia, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and was met at the depot by a committee with Mayor Badger at the head, who escorted him to the Yarbboro House. Governor Holt was in Greensboro, but was telegraphed of the arrival of the distinguished guest. We bespeak for Governor Fleming the most cordial reception from our people. He was present on the exposition grounds today, and delivered an address in the main building.

A Breezy Time.

"Yes," said Manager Daniel Shelby of "A Breezy Time," "it is quite a step from the saw dust to the theatre, but I made it many years ago. Circuses are not what they used to be in the days when I was a boy. Not that they have degenerated, bless your heart, no. I am one of those who talk of the "palm days." I think this is an age of progression and that everything is one of improvement, but for all that I still have a hankering after the one ring tent show, for one doesn't have to strain one's eyes to see half a dozen acts at the same time. How did I happen to leave the circus business? Oh, I saw a chance to get hold of a first class theatre, where money would be easy and work lighter. So I leased the Academy of Chicago. That was nearly half a decade ago. However, I have since sub let the house and am now devoting my entire attention to 'A Breezy Time.'"

Mr. Shelby is enthusiastic over the success of the new farce comedy, as well he may be. It has struck the popular fancy, and is a go from the start. "A Breezy Time" is made up of bright dialogue, cleverly constructed plot, plenty of action and is played by one of the most capable companies on the road. E. B. Fitz and Kathryn Webster are known as the best musical artists in America; and Miss Helen Rainsley possesses a voice of rare cultivation and much sweetness. There are any number of comedians and a host of pretty girls. Will appear tonight and tomorrow night at Metropolitan Hall. Saturday matinee. Reserved seats at Bobbitt's drug store.
