NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Beatrice Gaide Comedy Opera Company next Friday night.

Lots of country people in the city today.

There were no cases of any importance before the mayor today.

Rev. Mr. White, of Durham, is conducting a powerful revival in Winston.

Give us another station house. The present one is a disgrace to a city the size and importance of Raleigh.

A game of foot ball will be played at Athletic Park next Tuesday, the 10th inst., between Wake Forest and the University.

Dr. Broughton will preach in the Tabernacle Sunday night at 7:30; everybody invited. Dr. Hall will be present and preach in the morning.

Remember that Rev. Sam Jones will lecture at Metropolitan Hall next Thursday night. Subject 'Get There.' Lookout for a crowd.

It is predicted that the trying time for the entertainment of visitors in Raleigh will be next week. It will surely be the bonanza week of the exposition.

If ex-President Cleveland could make it convenient to pay us a visit next week it would produce such an enthusiasm as is rarely seen in North Carolina.

Mr. Henry E. Litchford is determined that our people shall not lack for good amusements. He will give us a first class burlesque opera company next week.

There will be prayer service at the jail tomorrow, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, sharp. All men of every denomination are earnestly requested to be present.

At 1 o'clock tomorrow morning at Edenton St. M. E. church, Rev. Dr. J. H. Gordon will preach a sermon to the young men of the A. & M. College. Subject: "True manhood."

The Beatrice Gold Comedy Opera Company will appear at Metropolitan Hall next Tuesday night, Nov. 10th. It will be a rare treat for our loving people. The comic opera of "Said Pasha" will be produced. It has received the highest praise from the press, and is one of the great sensations of the day. It will be a grand success and no mistake.

We call special attention to the advertisement of Mr. Wayne Alcott, the agent for the Covenant Building and Loan Association which he represents. Building and Loan Associations as a rule are a great benefit to people of limited means, but the Covenant seems to be a specially liberal one. They have loaned quite an amount of money to the people in Raleigh already and indeed they have refused none where satisfactory security was offered. This institution is worthy of the patronage of the people.

Mr. Darius Waterhouse, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "It cost but little to try Bradycetine, and a trial is all that is necessary to convince the doubting thousands that it will cure headache." nov 4 6t

Synopsis of the Weather at 8 P. M. Yesterday.

The clearing condition has moved to the middle Atlantic coast where clear cold weather prevails.

The storm in the northwest has advanced southeast to Iowa, causing warm southerly winds in the Mississippi valley.

In the vicinity of Raleigh the weather will become rapidly warmer, winds shifting to southerly.

Rex Hospital.

At a meeting of the Board of Administrators, held last night, it was determined to appoint a committee, to confer with the Trustees of the "Rex Hospital fund" looking to some action in carrying out the provisions of the bequest made many years ago for the establishment of a hospital in this city for the infirm, etc. The fund bequeathed was invested mainly in Confederate securities, the most of which was lost. There was, however, a small nucleus left, and, this, by judicious investment has now run up to over $27,000. It is hoped that there may be some means effected by which this much needed charity may be established in our midst.

Louis Blumenberg.

Those who attended the concert given by Louis Blumenberg, the famous violinist, and the Boston quintet club in Conservatory Hall, last evening, were agreed that it was one of the finest musical entertainments presented in Utica in many a day. The programme announced for the occasion was carried out with great success. Blumenberg appeared in the Utica opera house four years ago last month, under the management of Professor Louis Lombard, and scored a brilliant success, and the renewal of his acquaintance last evening was a pleasure. He is a fine artist and deserves all the compliments that have been paid to him. - Utica Morning Herald and Daily Gazette.

A Smash.

Yesterday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock there came near being a regular serious smash up on Salisbury street. A team of mules hitched to a wagon loaded with cotton became frightened at a street car turning the corner of Morgan and Salisbury streets, just at the arsenal. In spite of the driver's best efforts to check them they darted off at fearful speed down South Salisbury street, when just below the establishment of Messrs. Edwards & Broughton, a little fellow, presumed to be a son of the driver, fell off, and, it was feared that he was either killed, or seriously injured. He was taken into the blacksmith shop of Mr. Ralph Andrews where an examination was made. It was found that the little fellow was only a little bruised. The mules turned rapidly around the corner of Martin street, and were checked up near the post office. The driver escaped what seemed at one time certain death. Mr. N. B. Broughton who witnessed the scene, said it was one of the most fearful sights he had ever seen.

We are pleased to see Hon. W. A. Branch of Beaufort county, in the city. He and his family are the guests of Armistead Jones, Esq.

We are glad to see Rev. Duncan McLeod from Beaufort, N. C., and his brother Mr. Donald McLeod, from Suffolk, Va., who are in the city on a visit.

In Memoriam.

The undersigned committee, appointed by Seaton Gales Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 64, to prepare resolutions concerning the death of our brother, J. R. Pearsall, M. D., would report as follows:

Whereas, It has pleased the Sovereign Ruler to remove from the scene of his earthly labors our brother, J. R. Pearsall, therefore, be it resolved,

1. That we bow with humble submission to the divine decree.

2. That in his death we have lost a brother whom we esteemed and respected for his many sterling qualities of head and heart and who had every promise of rising to eminence in his chosen profession—the practice of medicine.

Brother Pearsall was born and reared in Sampson county. He read medicine under his uncle, Dr. P. L. Murphy, superintendent of the Western N. C. Insane Asylum, and had some experience in treating cases of insanity in that institution.

In September, 1889, he was elected to the position of second assistant physician in the insane asylum at Raleigh, where he served with credit to himself and with benefit to the institution until prostrated by the disease—consumption—which ended in his death at Morganton, to which place he had gone with the endeavor to improve his health.

Brother Pearsall was initiated in Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, on July 31, 1890, and took his third degree on Sept. 25, 1890. While his professional duties would not allow him to be active in the work of the lodge, yet in spirit and in heart he was a true Odd Fellow.

3. That a copy of this paper and the action of the lodge be sent to his afflicted sister in Morganton, N. C., with the sincere sympathy of his brethren in Seaton Gales Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,

G. F. LUMSDEN,
W. S. PRIMROSE,
Committee.

Our New Carpet Room.

Since the completion of our carpet room we have been continually adding new designs, and with November we are showing a line of carpets, art squares, rugs, oil cloths, &c., as complete as one would wish to see, and we guarantee to sell them to you as low and lower than other houses. In the line of medium priced Ingrains, we now particularly invite your attention, and ask that if you want an Ingrain or anything else in the way of floor coverings, that we will be glad to show you what we will do for you.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

A Breezy Time.

There never was a more delighted audience ever assembled in Metropolitan Hall than that which greeted the performance of "A Breezy Time" last night. From first to last it was a season of fun, hilarity and enjoyment. For genuine wit and hilarity, together with splendid music and brilliant comedy, the company has never been excelled in Raleigh. To night "A Breezy Time" is to be repeated, and it is safe to predict that there will be a packed house.

Odd Fellows' Day.

The following programme will be observed on the occasion of Odd Fellows day at the exposition Wednesday, Nov. 11th, 1891. The procession will form on Fayetteville street, head of column on Cabarrus street and will move promptly at 10 a. m. up Fayetteville street to Hargett, thence to Hargett street station in the following order:

Carriage with Grand Sire and speakers.

Carriage with speakers. Citizens in carriages or other vehicles.

Citizens in line. Visiting Odd Fellows.

Members of the order of Raleigh. On arrival at the grounds all the members and friends of the order are requested to repair at once to the speaker's stand, near the band stand in main exposition building, when the speaking will commence.

Business men of Raleigh and citizens generally are earnestly requested and cordially invited to participate in making this one of the grandest days of the exposition and thus demonstrate an active interest, not only in the order but of the city, the State and the South and her developments.

The R. & G. R. R. has kindly consented to run a train every 30 minutes during the day between the hours of 10 a. m. and 6 p. m. from Hargett street station to the grounds.

The Goldsboro Argus says: "The Odd Fellows of the State are going to have a notable gathering at Raleigh next week—at the Exposition. A special train will be run from Morehead to Raleigh for the great occasion. We will give full particulars later."
