NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Go to the chrysanthemum show. The mayor's court was perfectly barren of news this morning.

"Said Pasha" at Metropolitan Hall tonight.

Let Hillsboro street receive a good sprinkling for the parade tomorrow. It will help out wonderfully.

During the procession tomorrow the street cars will be off on the line of route.

Don't forget the chrysanthemum show. It is for the benefit of St. John's Hospital.

Crowds flocking to the city today. All the indications are that a tremendous crowd will be in attendance tomorrow.

A party of Wake Forest boys came in this morning. They rode through the streets with the well-known "college yell."

Black and yellow are the prevailing colors to day and tomorrow. Streamers are floating in every direction.

Major Harrell says he has information that the Maryland regiment will bring about 550 men, besides the band of about 40. It is estimated that between 200 and 250 civilians will be along.

All preparations for the grand illumination of tar barrels, &c., along the route of the procession to night, have been made. It will be a grand occasion.

"Said Pasha" is the great operative feature at Metropolitan Hall tonight. It is the funniest performance ever seen in Raleigh.

Damon and Pythias will be performed at Metropolitan Hall next Friday night, for the benefit of St. John's Hospital, by a company of amateurs.

The ladies of the Tabernacle will not hold the entertainment this week, as announced. Circumstances have transpired rendering this withdrawal proper.

Let the ladies turn out in force to night and greet the Maryland boys as they march through the streets. Nothing so enthralls the average "soldier" as the admiration of the ladies.

A party of business men of Baltimore, fifteen in number, arrived here this afternoon, on the 3:45 train. They were met at the depot by the delegation appointed at the meeting held at the mayor's office this morning. Another large party will come with the Fifth Maryland regiment this evening.

Mr. Darius Waterhouse, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "It cost but little to try Bradycrotine, and a trial is all that is necessary to convince the doubting thousands that it will cure headache." nov 4 6t

Several members of the press from a distance were escorted around the city this morning by Chief of Police Heartt. They were taken to the insane asylum, deaf and dumb asylum, penitentiary, agricultural building, etc. They expressed themselves delighted and said that in some respects our buildings surpassed those of like character in Baltimore, New York and other northern cities.

The gem of the programme was the solo for violoncello, played by Mr. Blumenberg. Mr. Blumenberg's superior skill is shown in every touch of his instrument, and nothing could exceed the dash and piquancy of his performance of the "Danse Hollandaise" by Dukler. He combines strength and richness of tone with marvelous precision and delicacy of touch, and perfect ease and grace of movement. In answer to an encore he gave an exquisite andante by Golderman—Louisville Courier Journal.

Fayetteville St. will be alive with people to night. Let the Maryland boys be received with genuine tar heel ecstacy.

Read the advertisement of the New York Millinery Bazaar. Let the ladies call and examine the splendid stock of goods.

Don't forget the great stock sale which takes place tomorrow at 12:30 at the Morgan street stables. Capt. Williamson has something nice to offer you in the way of fast trotters and fine blooded horses generally.

The congregation at Central Methodist church on Sunday was good, both morning and night. The pastor, Dr. Nash, preached two good sermons, and there were three accessions to the membership. The dedication of the church building, which is to take place next Sunday week, Nov. 23d, is an occasion of much interest among the membership and congregation. Just now the membership are laboring hard with the indebtedness of the church for ministerial support. They say they must pay out and are appealing to friends for aid. They deserve success. They have struggled persistently and have now to dedicate one of the prettiest auditoriums in this section.

Meeting.

An adjourned meeting of the business men took place at the Mayor's office this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade, Capital Club, &c., were present. The following committee was appointed to meet the business men of Baltimore this afternoon at the train: C. E. Johnson, C. G. Latta, Jas. Boylan, N. W. West, R. B. Ranev, M. T. Leach, T. S. Stevenson, E. G. Harrell, A. M. McPheeters, A. A. Thompson, Stanhope Wynne, Alfred Haywood, John C. George. Mayor Bidger was added to the committee.

The Programme.

The Maryland Regiment are expected to arrive about 6 or 6:30 o'clock this afternoon. It had been at first determined that the train should land at the new Union depot, but for convenience it has been decided that the troops shall disembark at Hargett street station and the line formed on South West street, marching up that street into Hillsboro, thence to capitol square; thence down Fayetteville street to the quarters where dinner will be served. It is expected that blazing tar barrels will illuminate the route, and it is hoped that the stores on Fayetteville street will be illuminated. The reception at the Yarboro House will commence about 9 o'clock, Gov. Holt and officers of the State Guard being present.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the procession will form and march through the principal street of the city and thence to the exposition grounds. At 4 o'clock a dress parade will be held in front of the Governor's mansion when Gov. Holt will deliver an address and review the troops. At night the grand military ball will take place at Stronach's auditorium. Music will be furnished by Itzel's famous Fifth Regiment Band and the dance music by Haywood's orchestra.

Personal Mention.

Judge Thos. C. Fuller left yesterday afternoon for Denver, Colorado to attend a session of the new court of claims which commences on the 17th inst.

Our former townsman, Mr. Samuel T. Wilder, now of Birmingham, Ala., is in the city.

Mr. Walter V. Bobbitt and family, of Halifax county, are in the city, the guests of Mr. P. C. Ennis.

Mrs. Fred Forbes and daughter, of Greenville, N. C., are attending the exposition. They are the guests of Mrs. Dr. L. L. Nash.

Miss Lillie Tisdale of New Berne who has been visiting Mrs. E. S. Brown for the past few days, received a telegram to day announcing the death of her little brother. She left on the 1:45 train for home.

Married.

I was married Sunday, Nov. 8, at 7 o'clock p. m., to Miss Fidelia Haley, in the city of Lillington, Harnett county.

It was quite a new business to me, and my friends have persuaded me to give the details of my trip to the public, so here it goes: I left Raleigh on Saturday last to go to my mother's in Harnett county to get married, as I knew the old lady would like to witness the matrimonial scene in her old age. I had employed a man to secure license and have them in readiness for me.

On my journey I met an old colored woman whom I had known for years. I told her that I was going to get married, and she dropped her head and drowned her wrinkled face in tears and told me of the "cross eyed bear." I soon reached my place of destination and called for my license which I thought was waiting for me, but I was informed that the party I had employed not being able to qualify to age, did not get it. I then remembered well my old colored friend and the "cross eyed bear." Then for Lillington I was bound. I had waited 37 years and I determined to wait no longer. After a long journey over sand hills, and at the hour of sunset, I reached the place where I hoped to be soon made a married man. It was my pleasure to meet Mr. S. A. Salmon, one of Lillington's largest merchants. He gave me a welcome grip and seemed to realize my situation and invited me to his home at Col. Shaw's. He was kind enough to secure my license and had all arrangements made at Col. Shaw's for the marriage, which was to take place the following Sunday morning. The beautiful and talented daughters of Col. Shaw and visiting lady friends, and quite a number of young men, gave us a musicale which we very much enjoyed, and wish again to tender our thanks to those who rendered it.

Sunday morning at the hour of 7 the J. P. came, and you bet I was ready. No time was lost and he soon wound up his remarks with: "Consider yourselves man and wife." I again remembered the "cross eyed bear."

Miss Lina Shaw, assisted by Mr. S. A. Salmon, gave us some vocal and instrumental music which was highly enjoyed.

As I was a long ways from home I left early. I bid friends goodbye and started for home. At 8 p. m. we reached the "City of Oaks" and found friends waiting for us, and all exclaimed, "Are you married?" and my answer being yes, made me think of the "cross eyed bear."

Very respectfully,
E. G. ROGERS.

Special Carpet Sale.

Right now in carpet season, we will begin a special sale of this seasons goods. They are not patterns, but designs that we will not duplicate again this fall, and we are going to sell them at prices so you can certainly afford to buy. They have been taken from the regular stock—reticketed, and we have marked them much below value. The prices we will offer them at, in many instances, will not near represent the first cost.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Train to the Fair Grounds Tomorrow.

The Raleigh & Augusta Railroad will run trains between Hargett street station and the fair grounds to morrow Wednesday, on the following schedule: Leaving Hargett street at 10, 10:30, 11, 11:30, 12, 12:30, 1:30, and every half hour thereafter till 5:30 o'clock p. m. The last train returning will leave the fair grounds at 5:45 p. m. The fare each way will be 10 cents.

The breakfast given by Col. Burgwyn to the officers of the Maryland regiment will take place tomorrow morning at the Yarboro House.

For St. John's Hospital.

Don't forget to patronize the exquisitely beautiful chrysanthemum show two doors below Tucker's store, on Fayetteville street. Refreshments such as you want will be served at all hours during the day and evening of today and tomorrow. During the show flowers will be sold privately and will wind up with an auction sale of what remains. Now don't forget that you will be served and gladly waited upon by lovely and beautiful young ladies of the city. By all means go and thus help St. John's Hospital while having a magnificent time yourself. The Fifth Regiment and their friends, Odd Fellows, the colleges, the Durham Band and all others are respectfully invited to attend.

The great sale of Morgan and Hambletonian horses will take place at the stables, on Morgan street, rain or shine, commencing at 12:30. The horses will be on the street immediately in rear of the procession of citizens, soldiers and Odd Fellows.
