NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Thousands of people in the city. Go to the chrysanthemum show. Blumenberg Concert Company at Metropolitan Hall tonight. Splendid rain last night. No dust today and delightful weather.

There are over a hundred ministers in attendance on the synod in Durham.

Don't forget the chrysanthemum show. It is for the benefit of St. John's Hospital.

Prominent people here from all parts of North Carolina, and many from other States.

The grand ball tonight at Stronach's auditorium is all the talk. It is expected to be a big affair.

Rev. Sam Jones will lecture at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night. Special rates on all the railroads.

Stronach's auditorium will be in a blaze of glory tonight with the brave men and fair ladies of the land.

This is a grand day in the history of Odd Fellowship in North Carolina. May the noble order long continue to flourish.

Is it not about time for our Governor to think about a thanksgiving proclamation? It looks like the President is about to forget it.

The telegraph office in this city for the past day or so have had an immense amount of work to handle. They "get there" however in good order.

In conformity with the requirements of the Railroad Commission, the express companies have arranged their schedules to go into effect Jan. 1st, 1892.

Even the "probabilities" were defied in the weather today. It looked, indeed, like Providence was on the side of the Maryland boys. There never was a prettier day.

Col. Faison, chairman of the penitentiary board, and Col. Hicks, warden, are at Wilmington looking after the leasing of land for a convict farm. They expect to employ 100 convicts.

At the exposition grounds today Rev. G. W. Sanderlin was master of ceremonies on the part of the Odd Fellows. Addresses were delivered by several prominent members of the order.

It is a credit to our city that during the great crowds on the streets last night and today there have been no cases of disorder. Everybody seemed pleased with themselves and mankind generally.

It has been suggested that an electric road between Durham and Raleigh might be a good idea. Perhaps it is, as it would give the Durham folks a chance to do some good shopping occasionally in the metropolis.

At a meeting of the trustees of the institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, held last night, Miss Etta Sykes, who for some years has been cashier at the store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., was unanimously elected matron vice Miss Una Bailey resigned.

We learn that Mr. George, of the electric street car service, expresses himself as highly pleased with the outlook, both from the present and a future standpoint. The street cars have come to stay, and it will prove a paying enterprise. There is no reason to doubt it.

In a few weeks more the exposition will come to an end. Great crowds, representing the different sections of North Carolina have been here, and yet nothing has been done looking to placing our State in its true light at the Chicago Exposition. Can't this matter receive some attention? We hope that our patriotic Governor will take the initiative.

Odd Fellows here from all over the State.

Biggest day of all at the exposition grounds.

Another cotton factory is in prospect for the near future.

Sheriff Page is ready to write receipt for taxes at all hours.

The crowd at the fair grounds today can be safely estimated at 15,000.

The ten cent circus is looming up as a special feature in the near future.

Numbers of graded school children from Durham took in the Exposition today.

Said Pasha will be repeated at Metropolitan Hall next Saturday evening.

The 78th annual session of the Synod of North Carolina is in session in Durham.

Durham is here in force today. Our western suburb evidently appreciates us.

The young ladies of St. Mary's School had holiday today in honor of the great occasion.

Auditor Sanderlin reports that the amount to be paid out this year for pensions is $83,000 against $57,000 last year.

A train of eight coaches loaded to their utmost capacity arrived in the city from Durham about 9:30 o'clock this morning.

There was nothing stirring in the departments at the capitol today. Nearly all the officials were doing the honor at the Exposition grounds.

Attention is again directed to the drain running across the sidewalk on Hillsboro street just north of Sanders street, on the west side. It should be stopped.

Rev. Mr. Norman closed his four years' pastoral service at Centenary Church, Winston, last Sunday. It is thought that he will be sent by Conference to this city.

The Safety deposit boxes in the new Commercial & Farmers Bank are said to be of the best patterns in the world. They are pronounced absolutely burglar proof.

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the African M. E. Church will convene in St. Paul's church (colored) on Monday next the 18th inst. Bishop W. J. Gaines will preside.

Accounts of the reception of the Maryland regiment in the city may be expected in the Baltimore papers. Correspondents of the Sun, American and Herald are engaged in writing up the affair.

The tone, temper and delivery of Gov. Holt's reception speech last night is receiving the highest praise on all sides. It was just such a speech as might have been expected from our patriotic executive.

Contrary to general expectation no opinion was handed down in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon in the merchants purchase tax case. It is looked for with much interest by the commercial community.

As the troops passed St. Mary's school today on the way to the Exposition grounds they were greeted by the young ladies with cheers, waving of handkerchiefs &c. "None but the brave deserve the fair."

The football game yesterday afternoon between the University and Wake Forest, ended with a score of 6 for University and 4 for Wake Forest. Another game is decided upon for the 21st.

An interesting discussion on the Sub-Treasury plan will take place at the Rocky Mount fair next Friday. It will be conducted by Hon. A. H. A. Williams in the affirmative and Mr. H. C. Bourne, in the negative.

When you eat too much,
When you drink too much,
When you smoke too much,
When you work too much,
Bradycrotine, no Headache.

Judson College.

Next Friday the 18th inst. has been set apart as the Judson College day and a large delegation will be present from Hendersonville, the seat of the Institution.

Blumenburg Company.

Our readers must not overlook the fact that this celebrated company will give an entertainment at Metropolitan Hall to-night. It comes here with the highest endorsement from the press and public, and we hope they will be greeted with a crowded house.

Compromised.

The long contested will of the late Mrs. Mary Morehead has been compromised, by the terms of which the University of North Carolina comes in for a bequest of about $40,000. Judge Strong and Mr. A. W. Haywood have been selected to draw up the decree, which will be presented to Judge Whitaker next Saturday for his signature. The estate is very large, being estimated between $250,000 and $300,000.

The Weather.

A secondary depression exists over North Carolina and Virginia, the main storm being central in the northwest. Rain has fallen along the Atlantic coast. Cloudy weather prevails everywhere except in Texas and Louisiana.

A clearing condition has appeared in the Gulf which will produce fair weather in the Southern States today.

In the vicinity of Raleigh the weather today will be cloudless and slightly cooler. Tomorrow will also be fair, slightly warmer.

Baling Cotton.

The Goldsboro Argus has the following important hint, which it would be well for our farmers and capitalists to think about:

Editor McClure, in his speech at the exposition, said that baling cotton destroyed one tenth of its value. If this is true it is an important item in the manufacture of cotton, and it cannot be long before the cotton will be manufactured where it is raised, and thus prevent the enormous waste of one tenth its value in the process of baling, and save the great outlay for bagging and ties. When it is fully learned, we should think that there would be a half dozen instead of one cotton factory in process of erection in our town. Suppose our business men look into this matter.

For St. John's Hospital.

Don't forget to patronize the exquisitely beautiful chrysanthemum show two doors below Tucker's store, on Fayetteville street. Refreshments such as you want will be served at all hours during the day and night. During the show flowers will be sold privately and will wind up with an auction sale tonight of what remains. Now don't forget that you will be served and gladly waited upon by lovely and beautiful young ladies of the city. By all means go and thus help St. John's Hospital while having a magnificent time yourself. The Fifth Regiment and their friends, Odd Fellows, the colleges, the Durham Band and all others are respectfully invited to attend.

Special Carpet Sale.

Right now in carpet season we will begin a special sale of this seasons goods. They are not patterns, but designs that we will not duplicate again this fall, and we are going to sell them at prices so you can certainly afford to buy. They have been taken from the regular stock—reticketed, and we have marked them much below value. The prices we will offer them at, in many instances, will not near represent the first cost. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Good For North Carolina.

At the Piedmont Exposition just closed in Atlanta, Ga., there was a type setting race. There were 22 printers entered in this contest—representing North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee. The type selected was small pica, and the number of hours worked was ninety six--which included setting, distributing and correcting proof. The highest number of ems set 91,711—making an average of over 945 ems each hour. When the type and place are taken into consideration this was a fine average for twelve days. R. B. Elam, of Charlotte, won the first prize which was a Gordon job press. The proprietors of the Atlanta Constitution job office got up the match and in addition to paying for the composition—gave prizes amounting to nearly one thousand dollars.

Business was combined with pleasure today. Our country friends brought in a large quantity of cotton, reaching perhaps over two hundred bales.
