NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The mayor had a few trivial cases to dispose of this morning.

They have left us alone in our glory.

Next Wednesday is Masonic day at the exposition.

Rev. Sam Jones at Metropolitan Hall to night.

Now let us get up a big boom for Masonic day.

It is about time we should be hearing from ex-President Cleveland.

See notice of sale by A. W. Shaffer, mortgagee.

A large crowd is in attendance at the exposition grounds today.

Cotton receipts today estimated at 200 bales.

The Fifth Maryland boys have come and gone. Their memory will long linger in our hearts.

The chrysanthemum show of Forsyth county opened at the exposition today.

A meeting of the stockholders of the R. & G. and R. & A. A. L. roads was in session in this city today.

There are seventy one ministers and forty six ruling elders present at the synod in Durham.

Mr. S. M. Blount, of Washington, N. C., delivered an address at the exposition grounds today.

The Virginia delegation left for their homes today. They are delighted with their visit in all respects.

It will be next in order to get ready for Raleigh's centennial next year. We should have it by all means.

Mr. David H. Jenkins, son of the late State Treasurer Jenkins, is to be married on the 19th inst. to Miss Sallie Huggins, of Wilmington.

The dress parade yesterday afternoon was witnessed by a large concourse of people. It was admirably executed in all respects.

The bequest of $43,000 to the University by the will of the late Mr. Mary Morehead will place the old institution on a still higher grade.

A perfect lull exists at the capital in the way of news. Even the applications for direct tax have almost ceased.

The stock of paper makers fire works, etc., in the city, has been exhausted. A new supply will have to be gotten for Christmas.

It is now stated that an effort will be made by the Richmond, Va. Chamber of Commerce and the business men of that city generally to get the Inter-State Exposition next year.

On the part of our citizens it is but just to say that our friend A. B. Stronach just spread himself in the reception of the Maryland boys. He has made his mark with the Baltimore boys and no mistake.

The Maryland boys this morning had a most hilarious time in an innocent way. They paraded the streets, with cow bells, tin horns, mock drums and all sorts of fantastic devices. Fire crackers were used in profusion. No interference was made with them and they virtually had the freedom of the city. All right. They are a glorious set of fellows. Long may they live and kindly may they ever remember us.

When you eat too much,
When you drink too much,
When you smoke too much,
When you work too much,
Bradyrotine, no Headache.
Nov 11 6t.

We learn that it is in contemplation to order several new coaches for the electric street railway to take the place of the summer cars. In fact there are several improvements contemplated. Raleigh will soon have one of the most perfect lines in the United States.

There will be a total eclipse of the moon next Sunday night.

La Grippe is prevailing in Greensboro.

The balloon ascensions yesterday were very successful.

Several towns in the state are holding chrysanthemum shows.

There are now 147 students at the Horner school in Oxford.

The ten cent circus will put in its appearance here next Monday night.

Daymon and Pythias tomorrow night at Metropolitan Hall, by the Amateur company.

The Warren Guards were in attendance yesterday and attracted much admiration.

The knowing ones say that we are to have pretty weather until the moon falls.

The Supreme Court is fast disposing of the docket. The 7th district will be called next Monday.

Pick pockets who usually go with large crowds seem to have given us the go by during the visit of the Maryland troops.

The Vance Guards at Henderson fired a salute in honor of the Fifth Regiment as they passed on their way to Raleigh.

It is rumored that a force of hands will be put to work next week fixing up the track, &c., of the Hargett street electric railroad.

All honor to our efficient police for the excellent order preserved here during the great rush of the past day or so.

There will be several important criminal cases before the Federal Court which meets the latter part of this month.

It will soon be time for aspiring politicians to commence putting their houses in order. The VISITOR, however, can look on with perfect complacency.

The Baptist chapel, near the Agricultural and Mechanical College, is fast improving in the way of numbers. It will soon have a considerable congregation.

Nothing succeeds so well as success. The reception of the Maryland Regiment has challenged the admiration of all, and "Tar Heel" hospitality will now become proverbial.

Hargett street, between Wilmington and Fayetteville streets, is badly in need of repairs. It is getting to be a most important thoroughfare and we hope it may soon receive attention.

The Express companies have arranged their rates in conformity with the regulations of the Railway Commission. We suppose these rates will be published for the guidance of the public. They should be.

The Fifth Maryland Regiment left about noon today for Baltimore. They were escorted to the depot by the Governor's Guard and a committee of citizens. They were warmly greeted as they marched through the streets. May they have a safe arrival home.

Unless the fountain in Moore square is kept in better order, it will become a nuisance. It seems to be constantly choked up, thus forming a pool of water directly in the path of pedestrians. It should be attended to.

Among others, the highest credit is due to Mayor Badger and Chief of Police Hearty, for their indefatigable efforts to render the visit of the Marylanders agreeable. These gentlemen well sustained the reputation of the "City of Oaks," for which they deserve the thanks of the entire community.

A road congress is proposed to be held in Pittsburg, Pa., on the 23rd inst. North Carolina ought to be represented, and we modestly suggest that Gov. Holt appoint delegates. If we can learn to have better roads in our State, we should take part in it.

The Ball.

The grand event of the reception of the Maryland troops was the ball given last night at Stronach's auditorium. It is estimated that there were two thousand persons present including spectators. The dancing commenced at 10:30 o'clock and was kept up until a late hour. The ladies were out in force, and with their beautiful costumes and lovely faces lent the highest charm to the occasion. Everything went on as happy as a marriage feast.

Baptist State Convention.

There are 100 delegates in attendance on the Baptist Convention. Dr. R. H. Marsh was chosen President. Vice Presidents—Rev. Dr. Thos. H. Pritchard, John C. Scarborough, Dr. John Mitchell, Dr. Thos. Hume. Recording Secretary—N. B. Broughton. Assistant Secretary—N. B. Cobb. Corresponding Secretary—Rev. C. Durham. Trustees—Dr. C. Durham, C. M. Cook, W. H. Pace, T. H. Briggs, L. R. Mills. Auditor—W. N. Jones. Treasurer—J. D. Boushall.

Rev. Sam. P. Jones.

This distinguished evangelist will deliver his celebrated lecture "Get There" at Metropolitan Hall tonight. It will be a treat rarely enjoyed by the people of Raleigh. No man in this country has obtained such a hold on the people, and there is a wide spread desire to hear him among all classes of our people. He is a genius in the true sense of the word. His fame has reached the uttermost parts of the civilized world, and his name has become a household word. The house will no doubt be crowded to its utmost capacity. There is only one Sam Jones in the world; go and hear him.

Oysters and Ice Cream.

They are having a merry time at Moseley's old dining hall. The oyster and ice cream supper given by Ruth Lodge, D. of R., last night, was a great success. The tempting bivalves were served in the finest style by a corps of charming young ladies. The hall was handsomely decorated with autumn's choicest floral gifts and draped with the colors of orange and black. The music furnished by the string band was delightful and added greatly to the occasion. We do not say too much when we say that ALL who attended were immensely pleased and departed well satisfied and refreshed both mentally and physically. Quite a snug little sum was realized. The hall will be open again tonight and the same fair hands will serve you in the same pleasant way if you attend. Prof. Bland has consented to give some of his musical imitations of birds which will be well worth going to hear. He enjoys quite a reputation in this line. Remember the proceeds are for worthy causes—the Odd Fellows' Orphanage and the Lodge. Don't fail to go tonight to Moseley's old-dining hall, on Fayetteville street.

Those Carpets

Remember that a portion of our carpet stock has been marked down. These are Tapestry and Body Brussels, Velvets and Mquette carpets. Some are short lengths while others have plenty for medium sized rooms. Many of these are priced at less than cost.

Do not forget our auction sale of glassware, china, etc. to be held Saturday, November 14th, next door to our Wilmington street entrance. Sale at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Norman.

The congregation of the Centenary M. E. church of Winston have presented Rev. Dr. Norman with a full set of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and Mrs. Norman with a solid silver table service. In reference to Mr. Norman's successor, the Sentinel says:

"It is not known definitely when the new pastor for the Centenary M. E. church will arrive. It is understood that an effort will be made to secure the appointment of Dr. Creasy, who closes his fourth year at Wilmington, for the pastorate here. Mr. Creasy has the reputation of being an able man all round. If the appointment is made it will necessitate his transfer from the Eastern to the Western Conference."

Shoe DEPARTMENT!

In our Shoe Department, while catering to the wants of all or nearly all, and those who we do not cater for are the persons who want a shoe so low in price as not to be good, and shoes that are not good we do not care to sell. Of all articles which enter into our daily personal wear the shoe is probably the last to practice poor economy upon. While of course we keep shoes at a great many different prices, we do not lose sight of the fact that we must sell a good shoe or lose much of our shoe custom. We do not lose many in this way, but we do gain customers, for

SHOE

DEPARTMENT.

Our new shoe department is larger than ever before, and we warmly recommend it to those who want reliable footwear at moderate prices.
