NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Several new residences are being erected in different parts of the city.

The chrysanthemum show has been a success.

The knowing ones say there is no rain in sight until after the full moon.

Large numbers of country people in the city today, and the merchants are doing a thriving business.

Sun's Phastasma next Wednesday night at Metropolitan Hall for one night only.

Thursday, November 26th, has been designated by the President as Thanksgiving Day.

The issue of the Greensboro North State for this week, will be the last from Greensboro. The next will be issued from Raleigh.

The Commissioner of Agriculture states that the prospects are for heavy sales of fertilizers during the coming year.

An accomplished detective force might be employed with advantage in Raleigh, during occasions when we are visited by unusually large crowds.

We are sorry to learn that the contributions to the Soldiers Home are not coming in as fast as might be desired, or to the extent the noble charity deserves.

There could not be a more propitious time for working on the new union depot, and it should be vigorously pushed. Certainly the building ought to be ready for us early in the coming spring.

It is claimed that a special in the Baltimore Sun, purporting to be the result of an interview with Governor Holt, did not properly represent the Governor's views. It is thought that Gov. Holt will take occasion to correct the statement.

When you eat too much,
When you drink too much,
When you smoke too much,
When you work too much,
Bradyrotine, no Headache.
nov11-6t.

There is some talk on the part of several financial gentlemen in on midst concerning a special arrangement for a building in case Rev. Sam Jones should pay us a visit next year. It has been suggested that a temporary house be put up on the lot at the corner of Hillsboro and McDowell streets, next to the Exchange Hotel. It would be a most admirable site.

Tomorrow at the Christian Church, will be the last services for this conference year, by the present pastor, and all members are requested to be present. A kind invitation to friends and acquaintances in the city, to attend. The VISITOR would deeply regret to see Mr. Foster leave Raleigh, but does not anticipate such a thing, though, perhaps, the wish may be father to the thought.

The very emotional play of Damon and Pythias, so well known in liter ary circles, was admirably performed at Metropolitan Hall last night, by our amateurs. The Damon of Mr. Walter H. Grimes and the role of Pythias as performed by Mr. James Anderson, were rendered in good style. There was a good audience in attendance, all of whom seemed to be well pleased with the performance. All the minor parts were well rendered.

A good joke is told on Rev. Sam Jones. His room at the Yarboro was next to the one entered by thieves yesterday morning. A friend remarked to him as he was leaving, that it looked a little suspicious that he should be going off so soon after the occurrence. He quickly replied "that good men were always persecuted," but that the surroundings did look a little suspicious.

6,000 Florida oranges at 25c a dozen at A. Dughli's.

A large number of Chapel Hill students attended the lecture of Rev. Sam Jones in Durham last night.

At 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon Rev. L. Branson will preach at A. D. Royster's store house, corner of Cabarrus and McDowell streets, opposite the gas house.

The Masonic fraternity are using every effort to make their day at the exposition a grand success. It will take place on the 18th, next Wednesday.

The new elevator at the store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., is now in operation and works most admirably in all respects. It will prove a source of much convenience to the proprietors as well as the public.

The Junior Mr. Mittlederfer, of Richmond, Va., who furnished the decorations for the exposition, and erected the welcome arch, is in the city. He tells us that although, by the terms of his contract, he is entitled to remove the arch, he has determined to give it to the city, so that it will remain in its present position. Mr. Mittlederfer has won many friends in Raleigh who will always welcome him to our midst.

For what we consider prudential reasons, we made no mention of the fact yesterday afternoon, concerning the robberies at the Yarboro Hotel in the morning in hope that it might be the means of ferreting out the thieves. We are now glad to note that no blame whatever can attach to the proprietor of the hotel, and that it is evident no employee of the house was in any manner connected with it. The thieves were evidently from a distance.

Masonic Day.
Arrangements have been perfected for Masonic Day at the exposition. Dr. W. S. Black will open the exercises with prayer to be followed by a vocal and instrumental concert by the children of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. Hon. A. H. A. Williams will be the orator of the day. Addresses will also be delivered by Hon. A. M. Waddell and Hon. C. C. Clark.

Tomorrow at Central Church
Tomorrow will be the last Sabbath that Dr. Nash will fill his pulpit in the present conference year at Central Methodist Church. The dedication services conducted by Bishop Galloway, will take place tomorrow week which will be the last Sabbath. A full congregation may be expected at Central Church tomorrow.

The New Schedule.
The new schedule over the North Carolina Railroad goes into effect tomorrow. The west bound train leaves Goldsboro at 3:45 p. m. and arrives at Raleigh at 5:30 p. m. Leaves Raleigh 6:40 p. m.
The east bound train leaves Greensboro at 10:30 a. m. and arrives at Raleigh at 1:25 p. m. Leaves Raleigh 1:35 p. m.

Not Natives.
Enough has been ascertained to warrant the belief almost to a certainty, that those who committed the burglary at the Yarboro House yesterday morning, by which Col. Wharton J. Green, his wife and Dr. B. W. Rurt, were robbed of valuables to the amount of $800, were not residents of this city, or, in any manner connected with the hotel. The robbery was beyond question committed by members of a gang from a distance, who came hither to ply their nefarious business. The matter was kept as quiet as possible yesterday, in the hope that the authorities might be the better able to ferret out the criminals. Every possible effort to do this will be made, although it must be confessed that the lack of anything like a proper description is wanting. That they made their exit from Raleigh at the first opportunity is evident.

Mayor's Court.
A hackman for leaving his team standing unattended, was fined $3 and cost.

Several other unimportant cases were disposed of by infliction of the usual fine and costs.

Meeting.
There will be a meeting of the committee of arrangements for the reception of the Fifth Maryland Regiment next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Persons having bills against the committee for supplies are requested to present them at the lowest figures.

Rev. Dr. W. A. Nelson.
This eminent divine, late pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, will fill the pulpit of that church tomorrow morning at 11 a. m., and Rev. Dr. Scott, of Virginia, will preach at 7:30 p. m.

Accident.
May Buslee, a little white girl about 12 years old, who resides just north of the bridge on Hillsboro street, came near meeting with a very serious accident late yesterday afternoon. She attempted to cross the street in front of a hack which was being driven quite fast, when she was knocked down, one of the wheels passing over a portion of her body. She was considerably bruised, but not seriously.

Reception.
Mr. B. L. Duke gave a most elegant and sumptuous reception recently to the members of the Presbyterian Synod in session at Durham. The caterer of the occasion was Mr. A. Dughli, our well known fellow citizen, who did the honors in his most approved style. There is no better equipped gentleman in North Carolina for such occasions, and he has made such a name as renders him almost a necessity for all social occasions.

Remember the Orphans.
Capt. J. B. Hunter, the manager of the Granville county exhibit, is making noble efforts to make Masonic Day, which is for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum a big day; but he can't do it all himself. He should be helped by all true philanthropists whether they be Masons or not. Of course it will be grand day, possibly the largest gathering of our own people during the exposition, but every Mason should seek to make it bigger. Every one should agitate, agitate, agitate.

Pensioners.
It will soon be time to distribute the pensions provided by law to ex-Confederate soldiers and widows. There has been much drawback in the way of preparation owing to the fact that the new pensions are largely in excess of those stricken from the rolls by the county boards. This increase will decrease the pro rata of each of the four classes, as follows: First class $80 annually instead of $71; second class $45 instead of $53.25; third class $30 instead of $35.50; fourth class $15 instead of $17.75. There are four hundred new pensioners which is the largest increase in any one year. Last year there were 4,200 pensioners of all classes. This year there are 4,580. Of class one there are 50; class 2, 241; class 3, 33; class 4, 395. The amount to be paid out this year is $83,000 against $87,000 last year.

Remember Our Carpet Sale.
We have selected from the general carpet stock patterns that we will not buy again, and some short lengths which we will close out for less than cost. These are not just a few "rug remnants" but some have enough for small rooms. One can now buy a good tapestry, body Brussels, velvet or moquette for less than they cost at the mills. Intending purchasers should come early and secure the pick of this lot.

How Will It Be?

We have heard it intimated that there are several propositions on foot for the removal of the Inter-State Exposition to some other point, next year, most prominently to Richmond, Va. We do not know how far the proposal has advanced, nor indeed are we advised whether the proposal has been made in direct form. Our desire is, however, that the exposition may be made permanent here, and, we hope that arrangements to that effect may be consummated.
