NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

A little warmer.

Cotton seed very scarce.

The street cars in Durham are about to suspend.

Mr. John T. Pullen has qualified as administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Mary Morehead.

The Mayor had a very quiet time this morning. No cases of importance before him.

We learn unofficially that the Masonic fraternity realized about $100 from their day at the exposition for the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Would it not be the correct thing for the street car managers to run a line to Pullen park. It certainly should be done by next spring.

It is said that there have been more burglaries committed in North Carolina during the past two months than ever before.

The Bureau of Information has been removed to the Mayor's office and all who have business with it can find Mr. A. L. Ferrell always ready to accommodate them.

The cotton receipts for the week ending yesterday afternoon were 1,385 bales against 1,879 for the corresponding week last year. The receipts from September 1st. to date were 12,991 bales against 22,489 for same period last year.

The alarm of fire last night between 8 and 9 o'clock, was caused from the roof of Messrs. Crocker & Upchurch's store on East Martin street taking fire. It was extinguished with but little damage.

Col. Thos. S. Kenan has received a congratulatory letter addressed to the citizens' committee of Raleigh from members of the Fifth Maryland Regiment returning their thanks for the late reception.

Arrangements are on foot for the presentation of a handsome gift to Bishop T. B. Lyman on the occasion of the semi centennial celebration of his ordination which occurs next month.

"Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow" Bradyceroline will stop the headache. wed 18 ct

Messrs. Yancey & Stronach will sell to highest bidder tomorrow at eleven o'clock, a large lot of personal property, viz: Wagons, buggies, carriages, carts, mules, horses, furniture, &c.

Now that it has been definitely decided to have the Baptist Female College in Raleigh, we hope that there will be as little delay as possible in pushing the work. Raleigh is the proper place for it. Nearly everybody admits that.

Mr. J. A. Spence of the firm of J. A. Spence & Bro., has purchased the house and lot on North Dawson street, formerly the property of Mr. W. H. Cole, and has made extensive improvements on it, which makes it one of the prettiest cottage residences in the city.

The address of Bishop Galloway delivered last night at Edenton St. Church has received the highest praise from all who heard him. He is indeed a fine pulpit orator, and from the beginning to the end of his discourse he engages the undivided attention of his hearers.

The Youth's Companion makes an Autumn gift of the beautiful painting, entitled "A Yard of Roses," to each of its five hundred thousand subscribers. Any others who may subscribe now for the first, and request it, will receive "The Yard of Roses" without extra charge while the edition lasts.

Every family should take this brightest and best of illustrated literary papers in addition to its local paper.

Attention is directed to the notice of sale of personal property by Messrs. Yancey & Stronach which takes place tomorrow.

There will be a recital at Peace Institute tonight under the direction of Misses Mc Ilwaine and Wade. The public are cordially invited.

25 bunches bananas to be sold at 75c to $1 per bunch tomorrow, at D. T. Johnson's. Phone 28.

The store on the south east corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets is being nicely painted outside and otherwise fixed up for Messrs. Williams & McGee, who will open a drug store next week

We hope our friend Mayor Badger will characterize his administration by an earnest effort in the matter of a centennial celebration for Raleigh next year. In this direction we think a suggestion from him to the Board of Aldermen will be productive of good results. Aside from patriotic considerations we will need something next year to buoy us up. We have had short crops and therefore we need some little hustling to spur things up. Let our worthy mayor aid promptly in the premises. The people are with him heart and soul in this matter.

HURRAH FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Col. L. L. Polk Unanimously Elected President of the National Farmers' Alliance.

Yesterday evening a dispatch was received by Mrs. L. L. Polk, from Indianapolis, announcing that Col. Polk had been unanimously elected President of the National Alliance. This morning the intelligence was still further confirmed by a special dispatch to the Progressive Farmer as follows:

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 20, 1891.—Col. L. L. Polk was yesterday unanimously re-elected as President of the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, by the Supreme Council. The vote in his favor was absolutely unanimous. No other nomination was made for the office of President, and when the vote came it was made by one great acclamation amid the wildest enthusiasm and most tumultuous applause. Last night at the Hotel English, President Polk was presented, by the California delegation, with choice fruits from California soil. The lobbies of the hotel were packed with people and the presentation was followed by short addresses from speakers representing every section of the country. All spoke on the line of general and absolute fraternalism. Sectionalism was buried with its face downward to scratch its way down to its merited home. MARION BUTLER

The Clarence Bennett Company.

"The reproduction of 'Monte Cristo' by the Bennett Company at Birch's Opera House on Saturday evening closed the engagement of that popular company in this city. Every seat in the house was filled with an audience that was wildly enthusiastic and appreciative from the first act to the last. In the performance, as has characterized the whole week's plays, the entire company excelled, and encore after encore resounded throughout the auditorium. The last act played, the curtain fell and the audience reluctantly left behind the best repertoire company that ever visited this city."

The inimitable production of "The Royal Slave" by the Bennett Company last evening kept the large audience in Birch's Opera House vociferously encoring from the rise of the curtain in the first act to its final fall. Mr. Bennett as "Agulla," did a great piece of work and was excellently supported by an excellent company.—Burlington Gazette.

Get an undershirt, 20c; a pair of drawers, bleached, 15c, at Swindell's.

The Lions Mouth.

Our dramatic loving friends can expect a rich treat next Saturday night at Metropolitan Hall, on which occasion, Mr. Frederick Warde, the accomplished tragedian will appear in the admirable play entitled "The Lion's Mouth." Mr. Warde, since the retirement of Edwin Booth, has been recognized, the world over, as the greatest American actor, in the emotional line, and his appearance in Raleigh may be considered quite an event in theatrical circles. That he will draw a tremendous audience can hardly be doubted, and hence all who desire comfortable seats should lose no time in securing them. Call at Robbitt's drug store and secure your tickets.

Married.

CONRAD—KROGH—At the residence of the bride's father, Col. Thos. B. Keogh, on Ashboro street, in South Greensboro, yesterday afternoon, Mr. Charles H. Conrad, a prominent business gentleman of Danville, Va., led to the hymenal altar Miss Kathryn Keogh. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. H. Stubbs, of the Episcopal church, in the presence of a select assemblage of invited guests.

After the ceremony the contracting parties left for a tour to the principal cities of the North and Northwest. The VISITOR most sincerely tenders its congratulations and wishes for the happy couple a long life of happiness.

DURANT—EGERTON—Yesterday afternoon Rev. C. O. Durant, pastor of Brooklyn Methodist church, was united in marriage to Miss Geneva Egerton, at Princeton, Johnston county, Rev. J. A. Cunningham officiating. The happy couple arrived in this city yesterday and are stopping at the residence of Mr. George H. Glass, on Morgan street. Our best wishes attend them.

State Temperance Convention.

This body assembled in Edenton Street Church Sunday School room yesterday afternoon according to an announcement. Rev. Dr. J. H. Weaver, presiding elder of Asheville district was made president, and Mr. B. H. Woodell, secretary. The objects of the convention were stated by Mr. N. B. Broughton and Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash. Mr. Broughton suggested an enrollment of the convention. Sixty members are embraced in the number, representing Raleigh, Goldsboro, High Point and other places. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Dr. J. W. Carter, R. H. Whitaker, E. A. Yates, J. H. Cordon and others. Last night Bishop Galloway delivered an address in the church building, a large crowd being present. The main feature of the address was the prohibition question which was handled in a most masterly manner.

Getting Our Ducks in a Row

We are martialing our forces and putting out the advance guards of pickets and in a few days we begin to shell the woods, and unless we have poor judgment we shall have the enemy on a dead run. A few stray shots like these are like dynamite cartridges exploded. A few things in season from a bankrupt sale:

50 dozen ladies scarlet vest, finest grade of Saxony wool, silk binding, at 50c. Are really worth $2 each.

Drawers or pants to match the vests, 75c pair. See them.

A lot of nice bleached drawers for men at 1c a pair.

Ladies rubber shoes, 15c

Undershirts, merino, 18c

Ladies all wool vests, white, 50c

Men's heavy undershirts, 17c

Men's heavy half hose, 5c

A nice lot dress gingham, 8c

A lot men's good shoes, 75c

The above is only a few stray shots and will be followed by the heavy sharp shooting and cannonading in quick succession.

Yours to command,
D. T. SWINDELL.

Surrendered.

The man Geo. Utley, who was brought here yesterday by Deputy Marshal. Jno. R. Upchurch, was under bail to appear at the next term of the Federal Court. Mr. G. B. Alford was his bondsman, but in view of the suspicion attaching to Utley on account of the Atkins murder. Mr. Alford had him arrested and released himself from his bond.

Our Centennial.

Raleigh is laid out by commissioners appointed by the General Assembly on the 4th day of April 1792. This being the case, it is presumed that the proper time for us to celebrate our centennial will be about that date. It is therefore not too soon to be talking up the matter, and looking forward to proper arrangements. Centennials seem to be the order of the day, and we see no good reason why Raleigh should not enter the list. We have enough to be proud of and sufficient energy in our midst to get up such a celebration as will reflect credit upon us as the capital of the Old North State. We hope that at the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen some initiatory steps will be taken in the premises. Let us begin in time and have such a celebration as all of us can be proud of.
