NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

The tenth district will be called in the Supreme Court next Monday.

A large party of northern gentlemen are in the city.

The Alliance warehouse at Greenboro, will be ready by next spring.

Go to the exposition grounds next Thursday and make a big day of it.

There was another rest today for the mayor. He had a very quiet time.

A large number of our citizens have gone to the N. C. M. F. Conference at Greenville, Pitt county.

A new flag staff has been put on the Agricultural building to be used by the State weather bureau.

A first class opera company is in contemplation at Metropolitan Hall early next month.

The upper story of the Adam's building could be arranged nicely for a theatre. We believe it could be made a complete success.

Rescue engine house is decorated in mourning in memory of Mr. Walter R. Womble, who was chairman of the committee on fire department.

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Virginia Midland Railroad, held in Winston. Col. A. B. Andrews was re-elected president.

Let all who can spend Thanksgiving day at the exposition grounds. The programme will be an interesting one.

Three sheriffs brought convicts to the penitentiary yesterday afternoon. One from Lenoir, two from New Hanover, and nine from Caswell.

There will be a meeting of the State Board of Agriculture held in this city, on Wednesday next, December 2d, at 4 o'clock p. m. The meeting will take place at the Agricultural building.

Edenton street church has raised during the past year $1800 for pastors salary; $275 for the presiding elder; $898 for the conference fund; some money for building; arranged a debt of $1500 and contracted some years since.

How would it do to put down the price of admission to the exposition grounds next Thursday to 25 cents. There are many people in Raleigh who have not had the time or money to spare to visit the grounds, and Thursday being holiday, it will be a fine chance for them.

"Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow" Bradycrotine will stop the headache. wed 18 6t

Mr. Geo. N. Walters, our progressive merchant tailor is doing a very nice business. We are glad to learn that the very best trade of the city are patronizing him liberally. We would suggest that the holidays are near at hand, and it will be wise for those wanting suits to leave their orders early.

Deputy Sheriff J. A. Taylor, of Granville, who went to Lake City, Florida, to capture Walter Daniel who is wanted for rape, returned without him. He had been turned over to the Georgia authorities to be tried for burglary.

The work of the fire department yesterday, at the burning of Mr. Riddle's kitchen, is commended on all sides. A high wind was prevailing at the time, but the fire was subdued with but little loss. Our noble firemen are equal to all emergencies.

There have been several important additions of late to the exposition. Yesterday some exhibits were brought from Jackson county, consisting of specimens of Kaolin, and a bowl, pitcher and cup made therefrom. They are of beautiful design and finish.

Mrs. D. W. Whitaker, of Durham, is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. D. W. Bain left today to attend the Methodist Conference.

Mr. D. L. Schively is in the city, visiting his family on Polk Street.

The timbers of the roof of the new Union Depot are being put in place. It is expected that Thursday next will be observed as a general holiday in Raleigh.

We were pleased to see our friend, Maj. A. M. Lewis, on the streets today.

Moonshiners are getting more numerous and bolder in many sections of the State.

Mr. James N. Green, of Chatham, a brother in law of Rev. B. C. Allred, of this city, died last Sunday.

We regret to learn that our young friend, Derward Blake, is confined at home from sickness.

Work is fast progressing on the street car track of the Blount Street line and the cars will resume their trips in a day or so.

Revs. Dr. Cuninggim, Cordon, Nash, Allred, Burton, Wilson and DuRant, left yesterday afternoon to attend the M. E. Conference at Greenville.

The mail train from the east now arrives here at 1:55 p. m., and the accommodation train arrives at 5:45 a. m. Both trains leave here going west upon the same schedule as heretofore, at 6:40 p. m., and 2:05 a. m.

Remember that next Saturday has been set apart at the exposition grounds, for the benefit of the Soldier's Home and St. John's Hospital. Both are worthy institutions.

The wind yesterday blew down many trees, fencing, &c., in the vicinity of the city. Aside from the sad accident to the sons of Messrs. Briggs and Stone, we hear of no serious casualties.

Notice to Rescue Company.

Members of Rescue Fire Company are requested to meet promptly at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, at their hall to participate in the burial services of the late W. R. Womble. Members with uniforms especially requested to turn out. By order of the foreman, R. E. LUMSDEN.

Not so Bad.

Although the farmers have had a bad year and find money scarce, we should remember that these drawbacks will come occasionally, and we must learn to bear them philosophically. It is a matter of fact that our people manage remarkably well to tide over bad luck, and this they will do now. The merchants and business men, of course, feel the depression as well as the farmers, but it only requires a little extra exertion to keep up. It is hardly the case that two poor crops come together, and better times are ahead.

The Late Accident.

We regret that we cannot give a favorable report of the condition of the two lads who met with the accident in the northern part of the city, yesterday. We learn this afternoon that although the physicians have so far been unable to make a close examination, it is discovered that the lower limbs of the little son of Mr. Fab Briggs, is so paralyzed, that in connection with the injuries in the head fatal results may follow. As regards the condition of Mrs. Stone's son, it can be said to be still very critical, with hopes however, that he will recover, although several days may elapse before a decided opinion can be given.

Get your oysters for Thanksgiving day from A. E. Jordan, opposite post-office.

Pony in the State.

I am offering for sale very cheap, one of the nicest and gentlest ponies in the State. A child eight years old can handle him safely. D. T. SWINDELL

I. O. O. F.

Special meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock sharp, for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for the burial of brother W. R. Womble. Funeral to take place at 10:30 o'clock. Members of the lodge earnestly requested to attend. Manteo Lodge cordially invited to participate. THIRM Sec'y.

Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last evening to take action relative to the death of Mr. W. R. Womble.

On motion of Alderman Stronach, a committee of five was appointed to prepare suitable resolutions regarding the death of Mr. Womble. Alderman Stronach, House, Lee, Rowes and Lewis were appointed on the committee.

The board decided to attend the funeral in a body.

On motion of Alderman Lee, the engine house and apparatus were ordered to be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days.

Don't forget the poor next Thursday. Give them something substantial to be thankful for.

A Huge Gourd.

The New Berne Journal is responsible for the following:

"On Mr. Sol Gornto's land, one gourd vine covered an area of one quarter of an acre of ground, ran over the top of a building thirty feet high, and bore 206 grown gourds, at the counting, which was in September, and had as many young ones that were counted at the time, only the grown ones were counted, and remember, only one vine which had three branches or runners to it.

Report.

The following is the report of Messrs W. S. Primrose and E. G. Harrell, Chairmen of Masonic Committees, in regard to the receipts at the exposition last Wednesday. 668 whole tickets, $334; 14 half tickets, $3.50; 116 complimentary, 14 season, $25 orphans and employees; 1037 persons on ground; total, $37.50. One-fourth receipts $ 4 37, for the Orphanage, to which were added $17 contributed in boxes on the grounds gave $101.87, which amount was paid to Dr. Black, the Superintendent, before he left the Exposition grounds.

The New Berne Journal says Tuesday, Nov. 17, will be memorable because of fires. At Chattanooga six four story brick business houses were destroyed that were valued at $50,000. In Brooklyn a row of tenement houses were burned that were worth $30,000. Firemen displayed remarkable courage and saved many lives. Wild rumors were circulated of whole families being lost in the fire, but the rumors proved groundless. On the same morning St. Louis was ablaze with the most disastrous conflagration that has visited it in many years. The loss cannot be less and may exceed a million dollars.
