NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

Last week of the exposition.

Mr. T. O. Williams of the EVENING VISITOR is quite sick.

Turkeys can now rest awhile and get fat for Christmas.

Many improvements are being made on Nash Square.

A splendid dinner was served at the Yarboro House yesterday.

The toy shop will soon be loaded down with gifts for the little ones.

The next in order is Christmas, and it will soon be here in all its glory.

Wilmington is to have a welcome arch for next week.

We are to have some splendid performances at Metropolitan Hall during December.

A grand centennial for Raleigh is the thing for next spring. Let us all begin to boom it up.

Cotton receipts continue quite heavy, but there is no material improvement in prices.

There was a considerable attendance at the exposition grounds today.

The attendance at the Agricultural and Mechanical College is still on the increase.

See notices of sale by F. H. Busbee, attorney for Eliza Donaldson Trustee and P. M. Wilson, Mortgagee.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Norris Dry Goods Store in this issue.

Bank examiner Alden has been sent out from Washington City to take charge of the affairs of the suspended First National Bank of Wilmington.

Next week is to be a grand time in Wilmington. It is "Welcome Week," and our "City by the Sea" will put on its best appearance.

Appropriate exercises were conducted at Murphy School yesterday. Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter delivered an address.

The market is crowded daily with the festive rabbit, 'possums, birds, &c. No lack of the good things of life if you have the wherewith.

J. Charles Richter, wholesale lumber dealer, 1826 Van Pelt street, Philadelphia, Pa., says: I can't speak too highly of Bradycerotine as a headache cure. nov 25 6t

What is to be the fate of the exposition? Is it to remain in Raleigh or go elsewhere? These are the questions to be settled.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Agricultural and Mechanical College at the office of the Department of Agriculture next Thursday, December 4th, at 10 a. m.

The alarm of fire this morning about 9 o'clock from box 28, was caused from the burning of some trash coal on the premises of the Yarboro House. No damage done.

We have received an invitation to attend the Second Annual Exhibition of the South Carolina Poultry and Pet Stock Association at Columbia, S. C., January 12 to 16th, 1892.

We hope the managers of the electric railway will consider it to their interest to soon extend the line in the Eastern suburbs. The extension to the West has proven we believe remunerative, and, we must think a like movement to the east will meet with satisfactory results.

Now is the time to commence advertising for Christmas. Don't wait until the time comes, because a large number of people buy sometimes before hand. The VISITOR is a splendid medium for city trade. It goes into nearly every household. Bring in your advertisements now.

Register of Deeds Mial has received the pension warrants from the State Auditor.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather yesterday, there were numerous huntsmen on the war path.

A reward has been offered by Gov. Holt for the incendiaries who set fire to the property of Mr. Jno. H. Ward, in Chatham county.

Go to the exposition grounds to-morrow. The admission fees will be principally devoted to St. John's Hospital and the Soldiers Home.

The fine collection of Florida exhibits are being sold at the exposition grounds. The sale will close tomorrow.

The Confederate veterans of Virginia propose to celebrate in becoming style, the birthday of Gen. Lee which occurs on January 19th.

At the session of the Baptist State Board of Missions held last Wednesday night, 120 State Missionaries were appointed.

Notwithstanding yesterday was Thanksgiving, there were no cases before the Mayor this morning. This speaks well for the morals of our people.

The best enjoyment to be had yesterday, was around the family fire side, with a blazing hearth, and some thing good to eat. Out door arrangements were all broken up.

We learn that there is an improvement in the condition of both the little boys recently injured by a falling tree. We sincerely hope they may soon recover.

Look out for burglars. They are operating extensively in different towns in the State. When you see a suspicious looking stranger around, keep your eyes on him. These scoundrels are evidently none of our folks.

The North State formerly published at Greensboro made its first appearance from Raleigh yesterday. It is well gotten up and contains much interesting reading matter. Mr. T. R. Purnell is the editor, and as he has had considerable experience in journalistic line, the North State will no doubt prove a success.

All the evidence is through with in the McDougald trial at Fayetteville, and the case is being argued. There is much diversity of opinion as to the verdict, although the circumstantial evidence is very strong against the prisoner.

"The Sea Queen" a splendid musical and farce company will appear at Metropolitan Hall next Wednesday, December 3rd. Among the members of the troupe are Adelaide Randall the famous singer and Billie Muldoon the famous champion wrestler.

Methodist Conference.

The N. C. Conference of the M. E. Church, South, met in Greenville last Wednesday morning with Bishop Galloway presiding, D. W. Bain was elected secretary and W. L. Cunningham, Geo. T. Simmons, N. M. Junney, G. S. Pritchard, E. L. Davis and W. L. Arendell were elected assistant secretaries. Twelve were admitted on trial; on traveling connection five; to be ordained deacons three.

Murder Case

At the coming Federal Court, which begins here next Monday, there is a murder case of much interest. It is that of the State vs. Zack Rhodes, a deputy marshal, who shot and killed a moonshiner in Onslow county last spring. The case was sent here from Onslow County Superior Court. His defense is that the moonshiner was attempting to kill him, and the man's wife set fierce dogs on him.

A Fiery Serpent with a two Edged Sword.

Never since the world began has there walked the earth a scourge or pestilence so terrible and destructive as credit. When you run a bill you are constantly in fear, you know not why, but you feel a most gnawing at your heart strings and you feel a constant overhanging danger and you always dread to see the collector come if you haven't no money. You must sacrifice honor by making promises which you know you cannot fulfill; hence you do just the thing Annanias and Saphyra did. If you have the money and pay the bill you feel you have been robbed and there is no pleasure in it. If you buy goods for cash and at Swindell's you feel quite different; you walk the streets in open day fearless of all men free and independent. No more dodging the blood hounds on your track with an account against you. Then dear friend, don't you know that when you trade for cash at a cash house like Swindell's you do not pay exorbitant prices. Have you ever thought how much more money it will take to run a bill than to pay as you go; the expensive accommodation will fit and furnish your entire house in one year; pay what you owe and quit the accursed practice. People often remark how expensive it is to live in Raleigh and the secret of the expense is in the prevailing habit of getting credit for everything; get out of the hole; trade at Swindell's and for cash, the difference will soon be apparent.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's parents near Wake Forest on the 25th inst., Miss Kiva Allen daughter of S. F. Allen, Esq. and Mr. Robt. H. Bishop, of Southampton County, Virginia. The parties left on the north bound train this morning for the northern cities.

Death of Mr. Joseph D. Joyner

Did in Franklinton, N. C., yesterday morning last. Mr. Joseph D. Joyner, of this city. Mr. Joyner was an insurance agent and real estate broker and was well-known in this community. He was a native of Franklin county, and he died at his former home in Franklinton. He had been in failing health ever since an attack of the gripe, which he had last winter. He was about 45 years old, a conservative member of the Baptist Church and a man who everybody esteemed. He was unmarried. He was Secretary of the Royal Arcanum, and a delegation of the order went down this morning to attend the funeral.

Married

Cross-Howle.—On Wednesday night last at Edenton Street Methodist Church, Mr. John W. Cross led to the hymeneal altar Miss Lola Howle, daughter of Capt. W. T. Howle. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall in presence of a large crowd. The attendants were as follows:

Miss Sadie Dunn and Mr. Fred Howle; Miss Mamie Carver and Mr. J. D. Turner; Miss Lillie Dunn and Mr. E. L. Fleming; Miss Mary Avera and Mr. J. F. Brown.

The flower girls were Miss Dora Satter and Miss Lillie Bradley. The ushers were C. G. Lee, J. P. Wray, R. K. Williams and A. F. Williams, Jr.

At the conclusion of the marriage the bridal party repaired to the Yarboro House where a reception was held and an elegant repast enjoyed. The contracting parties left for a tour to the Northern cities followed by the congratulations of a host of friends.
