NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

Strangers have thinned out here considerably in the last few days.

One more night like the last, and skating will be in order.

What do the robins do now, poor things?

Cotton continues to come in quite freely notwithstanding the prices are low.

Several minor cases were disposed of by the mayor this morning, mostly for over indulgence.

The "Fast Mail," is booked for Metropolitan Hall next Saturday night.

Appeals for the tenth district are being heard before the Supreme Court this week.

It is reported that several marriages are booked for the near future in this city.

There are no contagious cases reported in Raleigh for the month of November.

J. Charles Richter, wholesale lumber dealer, 1826 Van Pelt street, Philadelphia, Pa., says: I can't speak too highly of Bradycrine as a headache cure. nov 25 6t

Let us all boom up a fair during the Christmas holidays for the benefit of the Soldiers Home.

Wilmington is decorating freely for her welcome week. It will be a glorious occasion for our "City by the Sea."

We hope that steps will be taken to prevent the frequent interruptions to the street cars, owing to bad working of the machinery at the motor house.

Many of our citizens are on the look out for the first news as to who will fill the pulpits of the Methodist Churches in Raleigh, during the next year.

Mr. F. B. Busbee is in Wilmington to look after matters connected with the Park National Bank of New York, and other institutions relative to the failure of the First National Bank.

The Board of Aldermen will meet in regular monthly session next Friday night. We modestly suggest that they talk about a centennial for next year. It is not a whit too soon.

Dr. F. J. Haywood informed us today that the thermometer at his residence last night registered 118. He says this was lower than at any time last winter. It was a cold night, and no mistake.

The small boy was devising ways and means this morning for dead-falls, but alas, for human expectations, old "Sol" today has melted the beautiful snow considerably. "Not a sparrow falls to the ground without His special knowledge."

A gentleman well versed in such matters told us this morning that the past few months has been a time of unusual prosperity with the mechanical portion of the community, and that this was the special case in regard to builders, painters, etc. This is good news.

A curious question is being discussed in the various young men's associations of the State. It is, whether a city man is greener in the country, than a country man in the city. It is a knotty subject, and one that we would like to see unravelled.

We are reliably informed that the North State was not removed to Raleigh, merely as a campaign paper. It is owned by a joint stock company and will be a permanent fixture of our city. The owners will endeavor to make it a first class family journal, with a political annex at proper times. The cash plan of subscription has been adopted, and will be rigidly adhered to.

Another cold wave is predicted, but it is expected to be a clear one.

The United States Circuit Court will not be formally opened until tomorrow.

The "Sea Queen" Company which was booked to appear here next Wednesday night, has cancelled its engagement.

It is not expected that the McDougald murder case, at Fayetteville, will go to the jury until tomorrow afternoon.

The Railway Commission will be in session here tomorrow for the purpose of agreeing upon a report to the Governor for the past nine months.

John Briggs and Carl Stone, the two little boys recently injured, are much improved and can now be considered out of danger.

The "Fast Mail" which is to be performed here next Saturday night, is said to be one of the most exciting plays now on the road. The scenery is splendid and the mechanism unsurpassed.

There is still no tidings of the missing woman—Levy Perry's wife—and fears are entertained that she has strayed off and perished in the woods from cold. It is, indeed, a sad case.

Mr. Jasper McRary, who has been to Lexington, N. C., to attend the bedside of his sick mother, returned today. He reports her as much better.

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant church for the District of North Carolina, will convene in Raleigh, Randolph county, on Wednesday next, Dec. 2d, Rev. Walter A. Burch will preside.

There is much interest centering in the meeting of the World's Fair Commissioners here this week. It is generally expected that some action will be taken to provide for North Carolina's exhibit at the "big show," although no definite line of action seems to be mapped out.

The gap from the junction of the Albemarle and Raleigh Railroad to Washington, N. C., is about completed. If there is not some speedy action taken to extend the road to this city our people will be much in their own light. If it did nothing more than reduce the price of oysters it will be a much needed item.

If there is a dealer in Raleigh who expects to work up a good holiday trade without letting the public know what he has for sale, it is more than likely he will find himself mistaken. People are even now looking over the papers trying to find out where they can be suited. Don't hide your business under a bushel. Let people know who and what you are, and what you have to sell. This is the main way to avoid assignments and the sheriff's hammer. Be warned.

What promises to be one of the best attractions of the season will be given at Metropolitan Hall next Saturday evening. Lincoln J. Carter's magnificent scenic production, the "Fast Mail." This is said to be a melodrama of more than ordinary merit, while the scenic and mechanical effects equal anything that has ever been given in this city. There is a representation of an engine room on a Mississippi steamer, showing the furnaces under the boilers in active operation. A realistic train of cars shoots across the stage with wonderful effect. The scene representing the Niagara Falls is said to challenge criticism and beggars description. The moonlight on the Falls, and the roaring of the plunging waters, the mist arising from the seething current make the scene as realistic one as it would be possible to make it. The play has an absorbing plot and the lines are all strong. There is plenty of humor to relieve the pathos, and altogether it is hard to get a play of more perfect symmetry. The members of the producing company are said to show a good conception of the author's ideas, and they portray with them commendable accuracy.

The Executive mansion is to be heated by steam.

The exposition grounds presented a somewhat deserted appearance today.

The Winston Salem Guide, which started a few months since has suspended.

Prof. Prosho, who leads the Durham band during the exposition, is organizing a brass band in Winston.

Maj John C. Winder has returned from a business trip to Atlanta, Ga.

Col. L. L. Polk returned to the city yesterday afternoon. He is looking in fine health.

This is the last day on which taxes can be paid without costs, according to law, and lots of folks have not paid. The sheriff will treat you all right, no doubt, if you come up, and he is anxiously waiting.

Why not run the electric street car line to Pullen Park. It will be a delightful retreat for our citizens next spring and summer, and there should be a speedy way of reaching it. What is the use of a nice park on the suburbs with no way to get to it.

We hear that General Bradley T. Johnston will devote much time in gathering data relative to the authority of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. We have much confidence in Gen. Johnston's ability, and we hope that he may be able to so substantiate the claims of the declaration, so that it may not longer be a matter of doubt, even among the most skeptical.

Take it "all in all," yesterday was about as rough a winter day as is often found in this climate. The "blizzard" set in Saturday night and continued almost without intermission during the day. It rained, hailed, snowed and blew. It was the shank end of a northwestern "flare up." We don't relish such things so far down in "Dixie," and the scarcer they are the better our folks like them.

Appointment.

Mr. T. Palmer Jerman, Jr., has been appointed clerk in the Executive department to succeed Mr. P. W. Capehart, resigned. Mr. Jerman will, no doubt, make a most excellent officer.

Froze to Death.

A negro at Henderson was froze to death on Saturday night. When he was found Dr. W. T. Cheatham was called and administered medical aid. A second death from the same cause was reported but particulars were not given.

Lost.

Between Deboy's store and Otey's barber shop a roll of bills—$14. Reward if returned to this office.

Seven Hundred.

Seven hundred dozen men's fine black and Lisle thread black and solid colors regular 25 and 35 cent goods and the lot is placed at 15 cents a pair at

D. T. SWINDELL'S.

Appointments

The following dispatch giving the appointments of the Methodist Conference was received this afternoon: For Edenton Street Church, Rev. J. N. Cole. For Central Church, Rev. J. B. Hurley. Rev. L. L. Nash, D.D., goes to Wilmington.

Ordination Celebration.

There will be a celebration of much interest at Christ Church, in this city, on the 19th and 20th of December, and much preparation will be made for the event. It will be the semi-centennial of Bishop Lyman's ordination to the priesthood. On Dec. 19th there will be communion services and addresses. On the 20th ex-President Kemp P. Battle will deliver an address on the prayers of the church, with particular reference to the works of Bishop Lyman. On the occasion, the congregation of Christ Church will present the Bishop with a pastoral staff as a token of esteem.

Figs.

The raising of this delicious fruit is becoming an important industry in North Carolina, and there is a great demand for choice varieties. In order to supply the demand as far as possible, large numbers of cuttings are being sent out daily from the Experiment Station near this city. There are over thirty varieties being distributed, and the supply is fast running out. Prof. W. F. Massey will kindly furnish particulars.

Won the Prize.

It will be remembered that, some time since, the Standard Music Company, of Winston, N. C., offered a prize for the prettiest, and finest baby, physically, exhibited at the exposition. The award has been made and the selection was little Mildred, the eight months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woodall who carried off the prize which is an organ worth $125. We can well imagine that the parents are the proudest couple in Raleigh. We sincerely congratulate them, and hope that their sweet little child may live to enjoy the credit of infantile triumph.
