Children have already begun to write to Santa Claus, asking him to bring them toys. They generally name the articles they want, and Old Santa usually pleases them—if he can.

The Mayor this morning discharged with good advice, a man arrested for being drunk on the streets. He was a new comer to the city. A case of drunk and disorderly conduct was fined $8 and costs.

There will be an important meeting of the Board of Health at the Mayor's office tonight at 7:30 o'clock. It is earnestly requested that all the members be present. By order of Dr. James McKee, President of the Board of Health.

The correspondence on the subject in our issue today, is from one of our most practical and observing citizens. Others will follow. Let the Board of Aldermen attend to the matter at once. The tour begins at Goldsboro on Wednesday, December 30th, at 3:15 p. m., and all members of the party must leave home in time to make this train, as it is the only one that will make connection with our steamer at Port Tampa, Florida.

Circuit Court.

If You Did You Would.

If you realized how much money could be saved by trading at Swindell's in one year, you would not spend any money at any other store but Swindell's. We sell heavy winter underwear for a little more than half of what you pay at other stores for the same quality of goods, and nice clothing for men and boys. You can save at least one-third of your money and get the same class of goods. Ladies and mens fine shoes are sold for a great deal less money than other stores ask for them, and in dress goods, we are away down under anything you can possibly find in price while the quality is the same. We have a lot of men's very heavy bleached cotton flannel drawers at 34c, as good as you can buy at 50c, a lot of mens fine heavy red wool drawers at $1, the same as you pay $1.75 for anywhere, a lot of children's shoes, heavy leather tips at 35 cents, regular 55c goods, and we could go on and fill these pages full of articles. We are selling away under any one else.

SWINDELL'S.

The Emma Juch Company.

No event in amusement circles has ever created more interest than the appearance of the Emma Juch Opera Company at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night. It will be such an event as will draw forth the largest and most select assemblage ever seen on a similar occasion in Raleigh. It will demonstrate that the people of our city appreciate to the fullest extent a higher order of amusements. We would advise all who wish to witness the performance of one of the finest operas to secure seats early.

A special train will be run from Wake Forest tomorrow to enable the teachers and students of the College to attend the Emma Juch Opera performance.

It is now stated that the decision in the merchants' purchase tax cases will not be rendered until after Christmas holidays.

A much appreciated Christmas present will be one of Hughes' Grand Rapids or Crown Jewell carpet sweepers.
