People in this township are coming up slowly with their taxes.

The fine weather brought a large crowd to the city today.

Rev. J. T. Bagwell will leave here next Tuesday for his new charge at Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Only three sheriffs have, so far, settled their accounts with the State Treasurer, in full.

The State Treasurer reports that no old bonds have been presented for exchange in some time.

The low rates of fair on the railroads will bring considerable crowds to the city during the holidays.

We deeply regret to learn that our honored fellow citizen, Judge E. G. Reade, continues quite sick.

If you want to go on the delightful trip to Cut with the N. C. Teachers, send in your names to Maj. E. G. Harrell. No time is to be lost.

The Union Depot is beginning to assume the air of a beautiful structure. It will be a still further ornament to our beautiful city.

The cotton receipts here the week ending yesterday, were 778 bales, against 1,189 for the same time last year. The receipts to date are 15,538, against 26,618 last season.

Lookout for new advertisement Monday. F. D. Smith is adding to his stock of Christmas goods everyday and he is expecting a full line Monday.

It is now said, that the tower of the new depot will not have a clock. This is bad. A clock is almost an absolute necessity for such a building. We hope that if the report is true, the matter may be reconsidered.

Would it not be a paying investment for some person or persons of means to start a tanning factory in this vicinity. It is none too soon to think about the matter. A great deal of fruit and vegetables are every year lost that might otherwise be the source of profit.

Mrs. Dr. L. L. Nash returned to her home in this city yesterday from Oxford, where she has been in attendance upon the silver wedding celebration of Rev. Dr. Black and Mrs. Black at the Oxford Orphan Asylum. She was delighted with the occasion and describes the floral display and the literary entertainment as very fine. The attendance was very large and indicated the esteem in which the Dr. and his most excellent wife are held.

Married

Cox—BRIDGERS.—On Thursday morning last, in Calvary Church, at Tarboro, Mr. Pierre Bayard Cox, son of Hon. W. E. Cox, was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Haywood Bridgers, daughter of Col. John L. Bridgers, a prominent attorney of Eastern Carolina. After the ceremony the party were received in handsome style at the residence of Col. Bridgers. The happy couple left for an extended northern trip, followed by the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Brother Manning, of the Henderson Gold Leaf, was in the city yesterday.

Charitable and Penal Institutions Visited.

The Wake county local board of the State board of public charities, composed of Rev. W. J. W. Crowder, chairman; P. A. Dunn and H. B. Jordan, has completed its visits for the present year to the penal and charitable institutions in Wake. Sheriff Page, Mayor Badger, Superintendent W. G. Allen, W. J. Hicks, W. J. Young and Dr. W. E. Wood, with their associates in office, gave the board a hearty welcome and cheerfully afforded every facility necessary for the most thorough information and investigation. The board says that the city, county and State are fortunate in having such worthy and well qualified men, with capable assistants, to wisely manage and control these institutions. The report of the board and a similar report from the board in each county will soon be in the hands of Capt. C. B. Denson, Secretary of the State board and through him a report will then go to the Governor as provided for by the legislature.

A Happy Event.

Quite a large crowd of Odd Fellows and their friends, including many ladies, were in attendance at Odd Fellows Hall last night, the occasion being the presentation of a beautiful portrait of Grand Sire Busbee to Seaton Gales and Manteo Lodges. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Cornelius B. Edwards. B. H. Woodell acted as Secretary. The following letter from Mrs. C. M. Busbee was read:

"MY DEAR SIR—Will you please present this portrait to Manteo and Seaton Gales Lodges, to be hung in their lodge room. I can never forget the sympathy and affection exhibited by the Odd Fellows of this city to my husband and myself during his recent illness. I trust that this testimonial of my appreciation will be accepted as a slight evidence of my lasting gratitude and with my warmest wishes for the continued and increasing prosperity of the order in this city."

Mr. J. G. Brown submitted some appropriate remarks on the reception of the portrait, and offered the following resolutions which were adopted by a rising vote:

WHEREAS, Mrs. Florence C. Busbee has presented to the Odd Fellow Lodges of the city of Raleigh, Manteo No. 8, and Seaton Gales No. 64, an oil portrait of her honored husband, and our Grand Sire, a man, who has, by a life of devotion to our beloved order, endeared himself to us individually and collectively.

RESOLVED, That we accept the portrait with many thanks, and give it the most prominent place in our Lodge room, that at all times, Odd Fellows may look thereon and be reminded of the noble example of devotion to the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth promised us by our Grand Sire.

RESOLVED, That while in his late sickness we all felt deeply for our brother, we recall with admiration the tender devotion of the young wife, who, by her cheerful resignation to the visitation of Him who doeth all things well, and in the trying days of sickness and doubt, by her many courtesies, added pleasure to the sad duty of the brethren, who watched at the bedside of our afflicted brother.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mrs. Florence C. Busbee, and the same be spread upon the minutes of Manteo Lodge, No. 8, and of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64. Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall accepted the portrait with appropriate remarks. Auditor Sanderlin also delivered a short address.

Mr. M. W. Reed, of Durham is in the city.

We had a very pleasant visit from our friend, Mr. Thomas Gattis from the southeastern part of the county today.

Our Patrons.

NEW YORK BARGAIN HOUSE.

Among the recent additions to the trade of Raleigh, is the New York Bargain House, of which Mess. H. A. Littman & Co., are proprietors. These gentlemen embarked in business here, but comparatively a short time since but by their energy, business tact and pushing enterprise, they have built up a large and constantly increasing trade. Their present place of business is at No. 205, Fayetteville street, but in a short time they will remove to the old site of the Racket Store, on Martin street. They have in store and are offering to the public one of the largest and best assorted stocks of goods ever brought to this market, and they are offering them at such low prices as to "astound the natives." Here can be found in great profusion everything in the dry goods line, from the smallest to the highest grades. They can show you some beautiful presents for your friends, and these presents are of such a nature as to render them useful as well as ornamental. We advise our friends not to overlook the New York Bargain House in their rounds for novelties.

WHITING BROS.

Everybody desires to look neat on Christmas. A man, no matter what his circumstances in life may be, wants to put the best foot forward and keep his head clear during the great and joyful season. In the way of clothing we can with the utmost confidence, advise our friends to call on Whiting Bros. This beautiful emporium of fashion is on Martin street, between Fayetteville and Wilmington streets on the south side. Here you can get anything you may desire in the furnishing line. Suits can be had for all prices from the highest to the lowest grades. They are in all respects just what they are represented to be. These gentlemen make a specialty of hats and shoes, of which they sell as many as any similar establishment in the city. Their trade is solid in all respects. They are solid men, full of energy, industrious and obliging. It is a pleasure to deal with them, and a suit from top to toe of their beautiful outfits, will make you feel better towards your selves and the rest of mankind. Just try them and you will agree with us in all particulars.
