NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

For Sale.

Two complete sets of Encyclopedia Britannica, can be had reasonable. Apply at this office.

The last exhibits have been removed from the exposition grounds.

The new hotel is being pushed forward in good style we are glad to see.

The W. C. T. U. held a meeting this afternoon at Mrs. J. W. Carter's.

Work on the Tarboro road is fast progressing and will soon be completed to the township line.

There is a very heavy mail now passing through the post office, owing to the approach of holidays.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College will close for the Christmas holidays tomorrow week.

The 'grippe' is almost an epidemic in St. Louis. Whole families are reported down with it.

To have the paving finished out at the Fayetteville street junction with the cross streets is certainly a cause of congratulations.

Rev. Dr. Cunningham, the Presiding Elder preached at Edenton Street Church in the morning and Dr. Corde at night.

The new preacher, Rev. J. B. Hurrely had good audiences yesterday, both morning and night at Central Methodist Church, and the people were well pleased with the discourses.

It now turns out that the maniac bomb thrower who sought to destroy Mr. Russell Sage a short time since, was the only son of a very quiet, unobtrusive and highly esteemed old couple at Somerville, Mass., whose name is Norcross.

William G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. and A. M., will meet in regular communication tonight at 7:30 p. m. It is the time for the annual election of officers. A full attendance of the members is requested. Visiting brethren are invited.

The Milton Enterprise is a new newspaper venture entered upon by the Enterprise Publishing Company, of Milton, N. C. Democratic in politics, fair in purpose and aggressive in policy is what the editor claims for his paper as a ground for expecting patronage.

We have two sets of twenty five volumes each, of the 5th Edinburgh edition of the great Encyclopedia Britannica which we will sell at two thirds the publisher's price for the next ten days. This is an opportunity of a life time. See advertisement and description in this issue. Call at the VISITOR office and examine them.

There is something so attractive about gold, whenever we hear of it in any shape it is certain to attract our attention. It is now stated that a rich vein has been discovered near the old Portis gold mine in Nash county which has been worked for about 100 years, and this is to considerable extent attracting attention.

K. of P.

Phoenix Lodge No. 34, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. Every member requested to be present. Work in 3rd degree. Post Chancellor will deliver a lecture on the 2nd rank.

Closed

Owing to the death of Mrs. L. O. Lougee, the Bazar held by the ladies of the Baptist Tabernacle, at Moseley's dining rooms on Fayetteville St. will not be opened until Wednesday.

Mantle Mirrors.

Pier Mirrors, Toilet Mirrors, Tripligate Mirrors, Revolving Mirrors, Shaving Mirrors, and all the new odd shapes in novelty Mirrors, together with a well selected stock of attractive ornaments and useful articles at Watson's Picture and Art Store.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Wm. M. Russ is in the city.

Mr. T. F. Causey has quite a sick child at his home on north Halifax street.

Mr. Wiley Cooper on north Halifax street, is sick.

Mr. W. H. Hood, who has been in the Superior Court Clerk's office for the past twelve months, has tendered his resignation, to take effect the 1st of January, 1892. We hope Mr. Hood in changing his base has strengthened it.

We are glad to see Mr. E. B. Barbee out on the street again. It might be better, however for him not to get out too soon, for the grippe has a great way of making a second call when the slightest occasion is offered.

The Board of Agriculture vs. the Durham Fertilizer Co.

The following speaks for itself.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 14, '91. EDITOR VISITOR:—Dear Sir:—In view of erroneous and misleading accounts, I desire to send below a true statement of the recent fertilizer suit; and would be glad to see it appear in your columns.

Very truly,

H. B. BATTLE, Director.

The Board of Agriculture last June, at Oxford, seized a lot of the N. C. Official Farmers' Alliance Guano, manufactured by the Durham Fertilizer Co., for being below its guarantee. At the trial of the case last week, the Durham Co., claimed that the sale was complete, and that they had nothing to do with the fertilizer.

On this point the judge decided in their favor, and the attorneys for the Board of Agriculture entered a non-suit and took an appeal to the Supreme Court. The question of the fertilizers being below their guaranteed claim, the pith of the whole case, was not tried.

Death of Mrs. L. O. Lougee

Mrs. Augusta A. Lougee, aged 42 years, died at her residence corner of Davis and Person streets, today 12:40 o'clock. In the death of this good woman the husband L. O. Lougee, Esq. and his children will be joined in their grief by a very wide circle of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Lougee has been sick only a short while and her death has caused a great shock. But she was prepared for the change and is now forever at rest. In her life she exemplified the highest type of Christianity by seeking the happiness of others rather than her own.

She was one of the most active members of the Baptist Tabernacle Church and the efficient President of its Ladies Mission and Aid Societies.

She will be missed by husband, children, relatives and friends and by scores whose lives she has helped and made brighter. We extend the sympathy of our whole community.

The funeral services will take place from the Baptist Tabernacle tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Our Patrons.

BERWANGER BROTHERS

For years past this mammoth house has been one of the institutions of our city. A stranger rarely leaves Raleigh without, at least, giving Berwanger Bros a call, even if they do not desire to buy, such are the attractions presented, that it constitutes a good show. Piled up from top to bottom can be seen the rarest specimens of the fashions of the day. Suits of all descriptions, at all the ruling low prices of the day. Just now, they are creating a great furor in Raleigh by the announcement of a grand special sale, which for low prices, has never been excelled here. It is certainly a matter of surprise, what they can make of a man in the way of dress with so little outlay. For a few dollars they can make the transformation so great that it would puzzle even your dearest and nearest friend to know you. The proprietors are clever gentlemen, and they will have none but the same kind of people to wait on you. No better place to obtain a handsome and useful present for yourselves, your children or your friends. We must not omit to say, that in the special line of overcoats they are just paralyzing the senses of those who call.

Remember the place. It is at the corner of Fayetteville and Market Place, better known as the Fisher building.

WOOLCOTT & SON.

For variety of stock in all the departments, there is no place in the city that surpasses that of Messrs. Woolcott & Son, on the South side of Martin, between Fayetteville and Wilmington streets. It is indeed an emporium of wonders, where can be seen all the novelties of the Christmas season, from the cheapest toy upwards. If you have in view the bestowal of any present to relatives or friends, you may rest assured you can be suited at this establishment. There is an experienced and polite set of clerks, both ladies and gentlemen to wait on you, and they will take particular pains to show you around. These gentlemen are never behind the times, and if you fail to pay them a visit you may regret it.

H. V. WAITT.

The goods at this establishment, formerly that of D. S. Waitt, deceased, is being closed out by the Executrix at prices astonishingly low. Here can be found everything pertaining to gentlemen's wear in profusion, the goods are being offered in all respects at a sacrifice, and all in need should call and make their selections. Remember the place. It is on the east side of Fayetteville street, opposite the post office.

To the Sore Heads, Fogies and Know Nothings.

All who come under this head we would speak a sympathetic word to. There are many of this class in Raleigh. Persons who are content to drift in the same old ruts in which their grand parents drifted; this class never accomplish anything, they are dead lumber in the community, they have a real dollar so seldom that they want their old acquaintance to know it, so they put right off to one of these high priced stores and are particular to let Mr. A. B. or C know they have again the privilege of handling American money. Mr. A. B. and C. knows you are a FOOL and he makes you pay for being a fool. He knows you have no business buying his high priced goods. He knows you could spend your money to much better advantage at Swindell's. Mr. High Price does not care for you as he knows at best your day is passed that your star of wealth has disappeared. He knows you are on the list of dry rot. Now take this advice. Go with your little money where a dollar will do double duty. Go to Swindell's, there you will get all and more than a dollars worth. We don't expect this as a matter of friendship or favor, but it is business and you owe it to yourself. Two car loads of trunks at Swindell's this week. Yours truly,

D. T. SWINDELL.
