NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

For Sale.

We have two sets of twenty five volumes each, of the 5th Edinburgh edition of the great Encyclopedia Britannica which we will sell at two thirds the publisher's price for the next ten days. This is an opportunity of a life time. See advertisement and description in this issue call at the VISITOR office and examine them.

Another sudden change in the weather—bad on the gripe sufferers.

The mayor had another quiet time this morning.

The Supreme court has now reached the 12th district. An early adjournment may be expected.

The Hargett street line of street cars will be running by the last of this week, or the first of next.

The beautiful bracing weather today, has brought out the Christmas purchasers in force. The stores have done a lively business.

Our worthy mayor and a delegation from Raleigh signed the bill to witness the launching of the war ship "Raleigh."

The "Paytrain" is on the way and will be here on the 23rd inst. It is a popular performance and we predict a large crowd.

Mr Isaac W. Hutchins, a well known and aged citizen of this county died at his home three miles east of Raleigh yesterday.

Printer's ink pays when invested in the VISITOR. Don't forget this, and come on with your Christmas advertisements.

The Enchanted Barrel will be presented at Metropolitan Hall on the 29th inst. for the benefit of St. John's Hospital.

Unless work is pushed more rapidly on the new Union Depot, it may not be finished by the Spring of 1892. Hurry it up.

The Board of County Commissioners will meet again on the 19th inst. to consider matters relative to the taxing of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

Another general exodus of colored people is expected in the spring of 1892. This is said to be caused from the shortage of crops and hard times generally.

The A. & M. College Alliance will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. Business of importance is to be considered.

Additions to the penitentiary are daily being made. Six convicts were added yesterday, three from Richmond and three from Duplin counties.

Sheriff Page says he is waiting with much anxiety for the people to settle. He is mighty lenient, but hopes that all the people will come forward with out trouble.

The attendance at the Agricultural and Mechanical college is daily increasing. It will soon be one of the most progressive and prosperous institutions in the South.

The legislative committee to examine the affairs of the Treasurer's office, are now engaged in the discharge of their duties. Of course they will find everything all right.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. C. H. Anderson, No. 5 Hargett street. He is offering some splendid inducements for the holiday trade, and the public will find at his establishment a first class line of goods. Call and see him.

One hundred hands in the shops of the Central railroad of Georgia were recently discharged, the object being to cut down expenses on the road. This is one of the leased roads of the Richmond and Danville system.

Rev. Jno. N. Cole, the preacher for Edenton street M. E. Church, arrived in the city this evening and is stopping with Mr. Jos. G. Brown for the present.

We are pleased to see our friend Mr. J. D. Thompson out again after quite a severe spell of sickness. Mr. Thompson is one of our efficient police and we cannot long afford to be without the services of such men.

Col. J. A. Dodson, Superintendent of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta railroad, is to be transferred to the Atlanta and Charlotte Air Line. Col. Dodson is from Greensboro, and is one of the best railroad men in North Carolina. We congratulate him on his promotion.

Rev. R. H. Whitaker is quite sick and has been for a number of days. He is seen on the streets so little of late that a failure to meet him does not cause the same inquiry that the absence of one accustomed to be seen would, and hence few of his friends know that he was sick. We hope he will soon be out.

We acknowledge our thanks to Mr. Moye, the gentlemanly and obliging Assistant Clerk of the Superior court for a list of the jurors drawn for the January term of the court. Accommodating officials are a blessing to the people generally, and where can any be found to fill the bill better than those now occupying the court house? The people of Wake are indeed fortunate in securing their services.

The catch of sea blue fish in the vicinity of Roanoke Island is reported to be enormous. The fishermen can not get boxes and barrels sufficient to pack them in for shipment. These sea blue fish are very seldom seen in our market for the reason that we have no sufficiently direct line of transportation to reach them, and most of them are shipped to northern markets. Some of them are carried to Edenton and to Washington.

Ordination.

The ordination of Bishop Lyman to the Priesthood will be celebrated in good style next Saturday and Sunday. Answers to invitations have been received from prominent gentlemen throughout the State, among them President Winston, of Chapel Hill. It will be an occasion of much interest.

"The Two Johns."

At the People's Theatre "The Two Johns" again tickled the risibilities of a large audience of Philadelphians. John Hart again appeared in his original part of Peter Johns, and was welcomed as an old friend come back again, and the Cassie Sisters pleased everybody by their graceful dancing. This well known and amusing play is sure to fill the People's all the week. —Philadelphia Times.

I. O. O. F.

Scaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. meets to night at 7 o'clock sharp. Much business is to be disposed of and every member earnestly requested to be on hand. All Odd Fellows cordially invited. THIM. Sec'y.

Died.

At the residence of her parents near the western limits of the city yesterday after a lingering illness, Miss Eva Watson aged 23 years. She leaves a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn their loss, with whom we heartily sympathize.

Dinner, Tea and Toilet Sets in great variety, and at bottom prices at dec 16 5t. Hughes'.

OUR PATRONS.

JOHN T. MORRIS & CO

Furniture is necessary, as well as food and raiment. What nicer present could there be for a friend than a nice piece of furniture, a good mattress or a comfortable lounge. Messrs. Jno. T. Morris & Co., in the Prairie building have a most complete line of everything in the house furnishing line which they are offering at such prices as will meet the approbation of the public. Give them a call. You will find them all right in every particular.

JOHN W. COLE.

What is a nicer present than a nice watch, a pair of earrings or some other piece of jewelry. At Mr. John W. Cole's you can find everything in stock that your heart can wish, and they can be had at the lowest rates. Mr. Cole is one of our best business gentlemen, and he is prepared to wait on you at all times and sell you to the best advantage. Call on him and make your selections, for your wives, daughters, sisters, cousins, aunts and sweethearts. You will not regret it.

The Pay Train

On Wednesday evening, December 23rd, we are to have at Metropolitan Hall the great actress, Miss Florence Bindley in her beautiful comedy drama, "The Pay Train." Miss Bindley is conceded by press and public, the cleverest soubrette now before the public, and it is marvelous to state, yet true, since the initial performance of this piece, it has never received an adverse criticism. Mr. E. M. Gotthold, the manager in advance of the company is not a stranger in this city. He was here during the exposition in 1884 at the time that the dead heroes of this State were brought from Virginia and reburied here—a subscription at that time being raised for that purpose. Mr. Gotthold in a very feeling letter in which he enclosed $10, stated that during the war he had fought on the opposite side, but loved a brave soldier, no matter whether on the opposite side or not. The press of this city published his letters and it won for Mr. Gotthold a warm spot in the hearts of our people. In the interest of his company that appears here December 23rd is his business now and he was busy last night and today shaking hands and renewing his old acquaintances.

Two Special Offerings.

Tomorrow we will give our customers both male and female an opportunity entirely new and unheard of. For the ladies we will offer tomorrow, one day only, any corset in our store at wholesale cost. Right here we would say, we have the largest stock of corsets in the city. For men we offer any hat in our store at wholesale cost; on tomorrow only. Now we know this old idea of selling goods at cost, has long been looked upon with suspicion and is a familiar old chestnut, but pardon us for using the term as we don't know any other way to express what we mean. There are one of the two things certain, those who believe this announcement will be profited, those who do not will only lose an opportunity. All who have followed our advertisements will know we don't advertise anything but truth.

On next Monday we will have a special sale of ladies kid gloves. See Sunday's papers for the announcement.

Yours truly,

D. T. SWINDELL.
