A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

For Sale.

We have two sets of twenty five volumes each, of the 5th Edinburg edition of the great Encyclopedia Britannica which we will sell at two thirds the publisher's price for the next ten days. This is an opportunity of a life time. See advertisement and description in this issue. Call at the VISITOR office and examine them.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

There are fifty two convicts in the Wake county work-house.

The Railway Commission will meet again next Monday.

The thermometer registered 20° this morning at 9 o'clock.

The Mayor continues to have a very quiet official time.

The "Pay train" on the 23d at Metropolitan Hall.

A few more such nights as last, and there will be good skating on the ponds.

The funniest performance of the season at Metropolitan Hall tonight. Don't forget to take in the "Two Johns."

It is stated that complete reports from the railroads on the tickets issued for the expedition, have not thus far been made.

The old wave put its appearance last night in first class state. We hope the visit will not be of too long duration.

See advertisement of a lease of two lots on the Saunders property by Wm. J. Saunders, Real Estate Agent, &c.

The committee on the special field crops exhibited at the late State fair has completed its report, and awarding the premiums.

The net earnings of the penitentiary for the fiscal year, ending Nov 30th, was $16,856.88. This is a good showing and reflects much credit upon the management.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Gordon received a telegram today announcing the death of a member of his church in Wilson. He left this afternoon to officiate at the funeral.

Mr. John O. Davis could not give bail, as it was understood that he would when our report closed yesterday, and was last night committed to jail. A second warrant has been sued out and it is said that other cases may develop.

The Philadelphia American says: There was another large and enthusiastic audience at the People's Theatre last night, when J. C. Stewart's popular comedy, "The Two Johns" came back and repeated the success I had made when it was first presented on the same stage. The farce is bright and lively and a good deal better than when it was last seen here. John Hart has been reinstated in his original role of Peter Johns, and Quinn Phillips, a comedian new to Philadelphia, but who bids fair to become well liked here, played the vis a vis part of Philip Johns. Then there was Alice Florence, a good soprano; the European character dancers, the Castle Sisters and a lot of other good specialists including Robt Magee, Nellie Patrick, J. W. Lipee, C. Hartley, M. J. Harrington and Miss M. Aubrey."

Closing Exercises

The exercises at Prof. B. D. Barber's school at Apex, will take place tonight. It is a very flourishing institution, and the occasion will be one of much interest.

Funeral Services

The funeral services of the late Miss Luisa D. Watson, took place this afternoon from the First Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter officiating. There was a considerable crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives in attendance.

Governor's Reception.

Last night the Governor's mansion presented an array of fair ladies and chivalric gentlemen, the occasion being the revival of the time honored custom of receptions. The Governor received in the parlor and was aided by Mrs. Holt, Mrs. A. W. Haywood, Mrs. C. B. Wright and Mrs. Land. A nice collation was served followed by dancing. It was a most enjoyable occasion.

Five Dollars for a Loaf of Bread.

In order to attract attention to the wonderful merits of Sugar Coated Yeast, and at the same time do good the Sugar Coated Yeast Co., offer a prize of five dollars for the best loaf of bread made by any bread maker of Raleigh or vicinity, with Sugar Coated Yeast, which is now for sale by the best grocers. Directions for use wrapped around each ball. Terms of competition: One loaf of bread, with maker's name, to be sent to W. B. Mann & Co., Tuesday, Dec. 23d by 3 o'clock. Awards will be made at once by three competent lady judges, and the result published. The competing loaves will be distributed to the worthy poor, unless the makers want them. Who is the best bread-maker in Raleigh.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. A. S. Merrimon is quite sick. Mrs. R. G. Lewis and Mrs. F. E. Patrick, have returned from their European tour.

Mr. Ed M. Ennis is quite sick at his home, on North Salisbury St.

Hubard, the little son of Mrs. M. F. King is sick with the grippe.

Rev. E. Pope, of Chalk Level, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. A. S. Lewter has gone to Florida on a protracted visit.

Miss Jessie Hall, of Charlotte, is in the city visiting Miss Ida Snelling.

Mr. Jno. T. Patrick, who has been in Washington, D. C., for the past few days, passed through the city yesterday on his way to his home at Pine Bluff.

Owing to the sickness of Rev. Dr. J. A. Cunningham and the absence of Revs. Mr. Cole and Mr. Hurley, there will be no love feast at Central Methodist Church tonight. The young men's prayer meeting will be held instead.

Fine Shoes.

Our shoe stock is equal to any shoe stock in Raleigh in quality, and is the largest in quantity, and you can save from 25c to $1 a pair on shoes. By buying from me in large quantity and direct from the manufacturers we are able to give a better quality of shoes for the price of inferior shoes at other places. All who are prepared to know, will admit the Bearing shoe for ladies, to be the most complete fitting shoe yet produced, and for men Reynold's shoes are superior to any.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.
