NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

See advertisement of cheap homes. See notice of Armistead Jones, administrator of D. G. Fowle.

And now it is said that designs are being prepared for an opera house.

The fall term of the Supreme Court will probably adjourn next week.

The D. Q. I's are getting ready for a big turn out.

Old man "Santa Claus" will soon be in his glory.

The Graded schools of the city closed yesterday for a Christmas recess of two weeks.

Don't forget that the "Pay Train" will be the great theatrical attraction on Wednesday next. 23rd Inst.

It is said that a daily paper under the auspices of the State Alliance will be established in this city, early next year.

The weather folks says that a heavy northeaster is heading this way. Hope it will not reach us, and will not tarry long if it does.

Let everybody put their shoulders to the wheel and boom up the World's Fair at Chicago. North Carolina should be well represented.

The bank examiner has declared that the First National Bank of Wilmington is insolvent and suggests the appointment of a receiver. This looks rather bad for the depositors.

Don't be behind and get left. Let the people know what you have to sell, and you will sell it. You will hardly do so unless you advertise.

The McDougald trial at Fayetteville is to be published in pamphlet form, at the office of the Fayetteville Observer. It will include the charge to the jury, with pictures of Judge McIver and the attorneys on both sides.

The Directors of the Durham Farmers Alliance Tobacco Manufacturing Company have declared a dividend of ten per cent to the stockholders. This is ahead of government bonds.

A great many persons who would otherwise ride on the street cars are shy of doing so, because of the fact that the weather is too cold for an airing in an open summer car in mid winter. It really seems that the company are much in their own light in this matter.

In these times of gripe and pneumonia, a person would only be inviting a doctor's bill to attempt such indiscretion. Let us hope that some better arrangements can soon be made.

Bologna sausage at C. C. Ball & Co's.

W. B. Mann & Co., are prepared for Christmas. Call and see their splendid stock of everything good in the Christmas line.

Entertainment.

On the night of the 29th inst., Mr. John Mitter a deaf mute and a teacher at the Institution for the deaf and dumb and the blind, will give a pantomime exhibition at Metropolitan Hall for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. Mr. Mitter needs for the occasion a velvet costume, and if some person will lend him one, it will be duly appreciated. He is five feet seven inches tall.

Interesting Services.

There was a large attendance at the church of the Good Shepherd this morning at 11 o'clock, the occasion being the observances in honor of Bishop Lyman, who delivered an address as did also Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall. There were many Episcopal Clergymen present from different sections of North Carolina. Tomorrow evening there will be joint services of the two churches in Christ Church at which interesting exercises will be had.

A Sad Death.

Mr. Edwin Turrentine, a well-known gentleman residing near Chapel Hill, in Orange county, died a few days ago, from hydrophobia, caused from the bite of a hog. The animal had gotten out of its pen when he attempted to get it back. The hog became enraged and bit Mr. Turrentine on the foot causing a slight wound; while plowing in a field shortly afterwards he was taken with the disease. When found he had lacerated the flesh on his arm and chewed his tongue in a frightful manner. Mr. Turrentine belongs to a family well-known in Raleigh, who will deeply regret to hear of his sad death.

Personal Mention.
