A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

For Sale.

We have two sets of twenty-five volumes each, of the 5th Edinburgh edition of the great Encyclopedia Britannica which we will sell at two thirds the publisher's price for the next ten days. This is an opportunity of a life time. See advertisement and description in this issue. Call at the VISITOR office and examine them.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The shipping trade is heavy. The Revenue collections for the past week in Durham, were $14,345.10. The London Gaiety Girls will be at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night. There are 2,000 children enrolled in the graded schools in this township. The gobble of the turkeys is truly lamentable. The Governor is daily receiving a large number of applications for pardon.

Nearly every family in the city, has some of its members down with the grip, of more or less severity.

Sneezing and coughing are in order. Nearly all you meet are suffering.

The street cars resumed their trips about noon today and it is now hoped that there will be no further interruption.

Read the attractive advertisement of Mr. Jno. W. Cole. He has one of the cheapest and most select stocks of everything to be found in the jewelry line in Raleigh.

The London Gaiety Troupe will appear at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night. There will doubtless be a crowded house.

The festive goose will come in for its share of executions at Christmas. Stuff him with sage and onions, and there is nothing better, provided you get him tender.

The streets this afternoon have much of a holiday appearance. The merchants generally, are doing a thriving trade.

Hundreds of anxious little hearts are beating anxiously. They think the time is a long time off. A few years, however, and their little minds will change. Then "old father time" will speed by quickly enough.

The clothing, hats and gent's furnishing goods of the New York Bargain House are being moved today to the old stand of the Racket Store on East Martin street. Remember this and give them a call.

The quarterly conference of Edenton Street Methodist Church will be held tonight at the Branson House, instead of at the church, as was announced from the pulpit yesterday.

Col. W. J. Hicks, architect and warden of the penitentiary returned this morning from a somewhat extended trip in the eastern part of the State.

Capt. R. H. Powell, of Henderson, who has been critically ill with typhoid fever for some time, was this morning thought to be better.

See notice of O. W. Bevers, executor of Isaac W. Hutchins.

Mr. John W. Brown is quite sick. Mr. E. S. Brown is sick.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Bobbitt, who has been quite sick for several days, we are glad to state is somewhat better today, though still confined to his bed.

We are pleased to learn that a dispatch was received today by Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hardie, giving the gratifying intelligence that their son, Mr. Albert Hardie, was better.

Appointment.

We are pleased to note that Col. Thos. B. Keogh, of Greensboro, has been appointed chief of the Forestry division of the World's Fair. He will take a pride in looking after the timber exhibits from North Carolina.

Accidents.

This afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock, a street car on Fayetteville street, when on its downward trip at the corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets, struck an open wood wagon drawn by one horse, driven by Mr. H. G. Morris an aged gentleman residing near Cary. The horse started off and Mr. Morris was thrown to the ground sustaining contusions on the leg and face and bruising his breast some. The injuries are not serious, but it was a narrow escape.

We deeply regret to state that Mr. P. C. Hardie has received a dispatch announcing that his son, Mr. Albert Hardie had met with a serious accident in Memphis Tenn., where he was engaged on a street railway. It appears that he fell from a construction wagon, a distance of fifteen feet, fracturing his skull. It is feared the result will be fatal. Mr. and Mrs. Hardie have the deepest sympathy of our entire community in their sad affliction.

The Pay Train.

The above beautiful comedy drama will be produced at the Metropolitan Hall on Wednesday December 23rd, and we have no hesitancy in saying that a rare treat is in store for our theatre goers. The company is a most excellent one headed by the charming soubrette Miss Florence Bindley, who is supported by a cast of rare excellence. The scenic effects are marvelous and must be seen to be appreciated; several of the most prominent ones are, the interior of a Coal Mine in full operation; The Realistic Boiler Explosion and Wreck of the Incline Plane Truck, which dashes to the stage from the dome filling the stage with smoke and debris as natural as the real thing itself; the most phenomenal of all is the Railroad Effect, a full train of cars dashes across the stage at full speed, and is uncoupled in full view of the audience; the Pay Car is immediately lighted up, showing the action in the car; the company carries a full Electric Dynamo for this purpose. This drama is conceded by press and public to be the most realistic of all mechanical dramas.

One Cent Each.

On Friday, Jan. 1st., 1892, we will sell the remainder of our stock of ladies felt hats at ONE CENT EACH. There will be about one thousand of these hats, and one cent will buy you a nice felt hat, on Jan. 1st, between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m. You ask why we do this: well, we want to do some fool thing to begin the new year, as we expect to do many fool things during the next year. In the mean time you can buy some things awfully cheap at our store. We have a big lot of Chenille curtains to offer to you at prices altogether unheard of. Our carpet stock is being slaughtered. We have no price on carpets. Bed blankets have no price. Some fine French dress robe patterns at 25 per cent less than cost. Men's heavy boots $1.50 a pair and thousands of things for less money than anywhere else.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.
