A new safe for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

For Sale.

We have two sets of twenty-five volumes each, of the 5th Edinburgh edition of the great Encyclopedia Britannica which we will sell at two thirds the publisher's price for the next ten days. This is an opportunity of a life time. See advertisement and description in this issue. Call at the VISITOR office and examine them.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

See advertisement of desirable residence for rent.

See notice of A. W. Haywood, as signee of E. D. Smith.

The Supreme Court has heard all the arguments for the session.

Mr. M. Utzman has shown us a col-lard measuring four feet three inches across.

"Artist and Model" is the attraction at Metropolitan Hall tonight, by the "London Gaiety Girls."

There are several northern gentlemen on a visit to the city. They all say it is a beauty.

About fifteen prisoners are in jail awaiting trial at the coming term of Wake Superior Court.

The various liquor saloon keepers in the city have signed an agreement to close on Christmas day.

Mr. G. Rosenthal has been elected Secretary of the School Committee in place of Mr. Thomas H. Briggs.

The examinations at the A. and M. College closed today. Most of the students will go home to spend Christmas.

A convention of Commissioners of Agriculture of the Southern States will meet in Memphis, Tenn., January 8th, 1892. The object is to consider the reduction of the cotton acreage.

J. M. Broughton & Co., have in this issue a few facts for the new year which it is important for our friends and the public generally to read. Let all in want of homes ponder over what these gentlemen have to say.

A Christmas entertainment will be given at the Christain Church tomorrow (Wednesday) evening. A Christmas tree, music, recitations, etc., such as will be entertaining. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Our columns are crowded, as will be noticed, with advertisements, incident to the holiday season. This, of course, causes a shortage in our reading matter which must necessarily continue for a few days. We throw ourselves on the indulgence of our readers, feeling assured, that in the emergency they will bear with us.

Rev. Dr. Nash came up from Wilmington yesterday. He is looking well and is in good spirits notwithstanding the burden placed upon him in his appointment to Fifth Street Church, Wilmington. He has taken hold in his new charge with a will and has already raised three thousand dollars on the indebtedness of the church. His friends here are glad to shake him by the hand.

Sociable.

There will be a donation sociable at the First Baptist Church tonight. All the members of the church are cordially invited to be present. Clothing, groceries and money will be gladly received and distributed among the poor.

Assignment.

Yesterday Mr. E. D. Smith, dealer in toys, etc., made an assignment yesterday to A. W. Haywood, Esq. The preferred creditors are W. H. Holliman $1,000, Citizens National Bank $500.

Election.

The following are the officers elected by Litchford Encampment for the ensuing term: Chief Patriarch, C. G. Koonce; Senior Warden, R. L. Burkhead; High Priest, A. J. Williams; Junior Warden, J. T. Farmer; Rec. Scribe, J. S. Keith; F. Scribe, P. Thiem, Jr.; Treasurer, Geo. H. Glass.

Durham Directory.

Durham will soon have a full and complete city directory, gotten up by Capt. N. A. Ramsay. That it will be well done, goes without saying as he is a gentleman of first rate business qualifications and will see that nothing is left undone to make the enterprise a complete success.

Florence Bindley and "The Pay Train."

On Wednesday evening Miss Bindley will present her beautiful play "The Pay Train." The story is one of intense interest and so constructed as to please the masses. Pathos and comedy are equally divided and tears and laughter alternate, the scenic effects are the most realistic ever produced on any stage, more especially the great railroad scene in which a complete train crosses the stage and is uncoupled in full view of the audience. This complete piece of stage mechanism has never been accomplished by any other company. This scene differs from the railroad effects introduced by other companies in this manner, all other companies have their train profile and dare not uncouple them, while "The Pay Train" effect is boxed and action takes place in the cars. The oldest railroad mechanics in the country has pronounced this the acme of realism.

OUR PATRONS.

W. S. UZZLE.

This gentleman has organs, sewing machines, etc., either of which would make handsome and useful presents for Christmas. Give him a call, at 12 East Hargett street.

C. H. ANDERSON.

Mr. Anderson at No. 5 Hargett street carries a large and varied assortment of dry goods, shoes, etc., which he offers to the public at the lowest prices. Some splendid bargains can be had. Give him a call.

MORRIS WATTS

No man is complete in his toilet (unless he wears a full beard), who does not indulge occasionally in a clean shave. There is no place in Raleigh where this can be done in better style than at Morris Watts' establishment on Fayetteville street, opposite the market. Call and see him and he will have you fixed up all right.
