NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Christmas Eve.
Cold wave expected.
Don't eat too much.
"The Star of Bethlehem."
The old year is tottering fast.
New resolutions soon be in order.
"And He shall be called a Nazarine."
Nothing before the Mayor today.
All the banks will be closed tomorrow.
The old year is fast waning with its joys and sorrows.
Here's health to yourselves and families.
Enjoy yourselves but do so in moderation.
They say that Santa Claus will come in a whirl wind tonight.
Amid all your joys, remember the poor.
No paper until Tuesday afternoon next.
On Earth Peace, Good will toward men.
Santa Claus will be here tonight on schedule time.
"I know that my Redeemer liveth and will stand at the latter day upon the earth."

"For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour which is Christ the Lord.
Think over the past and make new resolves for the future.

By next Christmas we will have a new hotel and we hope a first class opera house.

Capt. John R. Ferrall has been appointed a justice of the peace. He will make a good one.

The Richmond and Danville freight depot will be closed tomorrow and on the first day of January.

The Supreme Court judges, living at a distance, will go home for the holidays.

Little Jack Horner, sat in a corner eating his Christmas pie,
He put in his thumb
And pulled out a—Chestnut.

Don't let the festivities of the season make you forget the matter of taxes. Sheriff Page is anxiously waiting.

Cashier Bowden, of the First National Bank of Wilmington, deceived the government. The bank will hardly pay depositors twenty five cents on the dollar.

The street cars seem to be hung up high and dry. This is peculiarly unfortunate, as the lines would undoubtedly have done a large business during the holidays.

The trustees and board of stewards of Central Methodist church are called to meet together at the church on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present as important business must be considered.

"Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon His Kingdom to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this."

It is understood that the Supreme Court has decided the merchants purchase tax cases from New Hanover, in favor of the constitutionality of the tax. This had been anticipated.

A pair of ladies shoes were lost yesterday afternoon between Heller's shoe store and the residence of Mr. C. H. Beine. Reward if returned.

Reduced rate tickets on account of the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons, at Raleigh will be sold January 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good to return until January 18th inclusive.

A tremendous crowd of colored people were here today from the surrounding country; all looking bright and happy, and preparing for Christmas. Happiest folks in the world.

If there is one day above another upon which children should be happy, it is Christmas day, it being specially their own. Whether in the midst of plenty or in the depths of poverty, every effort should be made to make the day one of sunshine and happiness for them.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge tonight at 7 o'clock, sharp. Members earnestly requested to attend as business of importance is to be transacted. A cordial invitation to the members of Manteo Lodge and visiting brethren. THEM, Rec. Sec.

The Christmas tree given to the Sunday School by the Christian church last night was well attended and the recitations and songs rendered were done well. Old Santa Claus and his lady made everything pleasant to the children. Everything passed off well.

Tomorrow being a legal holiday there will be no money order or registered letter business transacted at the post office. The general delivery window will be open from 9 to 10 a. m., and from 3 to 4 p. m. Carriers will make no collections or deliveries, but will serve their patrons at their window from 3 to 4 p. m.

Christmas Tree.

The Rescue horses, Charlie and Henry, have each been presented with an adorned Christmas tree.

Fresh Cut Flowers.

Roses, Carnations, Hyacinths, and other choice flowers. Bouquets and Baskets made up at short notice.

H. STEINMETZ, Florist. It

Manteo Lodge, No. 8, J. O. O. F.

The members of Manteo Lodge, No. 8, are hereby notified to meet at their lodge room this evening at 7 o'clock to make arrangements for the funeral of our deceased brother, Past Grand, Frank Jones.

By order of the Noble Grand,
GEO. L. TONNOFFSKI, R. S.

Died.

This morning at five minutes to 2 o'clock, Mr. Frank Jones, of typhoid pneumonia. The funeral services will be held at the Baptist Tabernacle tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Jones was about 34 years old. He was a member of the Rescue fire company.

Resigned.

Rev. Dr. Jno. S. Watkins, who for many years has been the beloved pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in this city, has tendered his resignation to accept a call to Spartanburg, S. C. Our people will deeply regret to lose Dr. Watkins from our midst.

Attention Rescue Fire Company.

Every member is ordered to assemble at Rescue Hall tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp, in full uniform for the purpose of attending the funeral of our deceased comrade Frank Jones. By order of

R. E. LUMSDEN, Foreman.

Christ Church—Christmas Day.
Full morning service with Holy Communion at 11 a. m. (Offerings for St. John's Hospital.) All invited.

Catholic Church

The services at the Church of the Sacred Heart will be peculiarly interesting tomorrow. First mass at six o'clock, a. m., sermon and holy communion and second mass at 6:45 a. m. High mass and sermon at 10 a. m. Pews all free. Public invited. Services conducted by Rev. Father Francis. O. S. B.

Teachers Assembly.

The Executive Committee of the Teachers Assembly have decided upon Morehead City as the permanent place for meeting. The new executive committee will meet in Raleigh Dec. 29, to prepare the programme for the next session of the Assembly June 21 to July 2, 1892. A number of specially valuable and attractive features have already been secured for the meeting and the outlook is for the biggest and best session of the Teachers' Assembly yet. The Atlantic Hotel will be managed this season solely by the owners of the property and they will secure the most experienced hotelist in this country to manage the house under their direction.

Christmas Proverbs.

Christmas fills up many a lean stocking.

Good will to all men and most of the women.

Pride and the price of turkey must have a fall.

Santa Claus doesn't forget even the bad boy.

All old cotton stocking will hold as much as a silk one.

The bad boy can become very good around Christmas time.

Best presents of all—The full stomach and contented mind.

On Christmas day punish no child. Beat nothing but the drum.

Turkeys will now be cut low in the neck and gored at both sides.

On Christmas morning every child has a right to rise at 8 o'clock.

One Cent is the Word.

Seven thousand times we were asked this morning if we were going to sell ladies felt hats at one cent each on the first day of January next. Well, we never advertise anything we do not mean, and we shall sell ladies felt hats on Friday, Jan. 1st at one cent each from 9 to 12 o'clock in the forenoon. One cent, one cent, one cent each for ladies' felt hats. Yes, we know Dr. Wood has a room with barred windows, but we are not going there till after these hats are sold at one cent each. We have the best bargains in trunks we ever had. Give your friend a nice trunk Christmas, but get the trunk at Swindell's. We have fifteen or twenty very fine French pattern Dress Robes, this fall's purchase, these we will sell at about half price. Christmas cards, jewelry, perfumery, toilet soaps, kid gloves, silk handkerchiefs and many Christmas goods at

D. T. SWINDELL'S.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Chas. B. Scales, of New York, who is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Waters, on the corner of East and Polk streets, is quite sick.

Attorney General Davidson has gone to Asheville to spend the holidays.

Miss Annie L. Jones, who has been sick with the grippe is much better and hopes to be out soon.

Gov. Holt returned to the city yesterday.

We are glad to see in the city our friend, Mr. Hal W. Ayer, who will spend the Christmas holidays with his relatives and friends. He is looking remarkably well.

Mr. F. W. Faucett, of Macon, Ga., is spending the holidays in this city.

Dr. W. T. Hodge is quite sick with the grippe.

Mr. W. A. Eudy, of Pennsylvania is in the city visiting relatives.
