NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

We make our bow again.

There never was a more quiet Christmas.

The enchanted barrel at Metropolitan hall this evening for the benefit of St. John's Hospital.

No accident in this immediate vicinity has marred the Christmas festivities.

See notice of Mr. W. H. Pace, administrator of Solomon Pace, deceased.

The King's Daughters Bazaar in aid of aged women has netted, thus far, over $100.

Mr. Frank Stronach has got the better of the grippe, but he says it is a bad customer.

The street cars have again resumed their schedules. It is hoped that they have come to stay.

The "Social Session" accompanied by the Black Hussar Band, will be here about the 13th of January. It will be a daisy performance.

We are glad to learn that the force of hands recently relieved at the R. & G. Depot here, will soon be re-instated.

Depositors in the Raleigh Savings Bank are requested to bring in their books in order that they may be written up and interest placed thereon.

Some one left a photograph of him self on the front show case at the store of Messrs. Berwanger Bros. The owner can get it by calling for it.

The grippe has its firm hold on our community. There is little or no abatement. In some cases entire families are down with it. It seems to respect no age, color or condition of life.

It has been decided to locate the Baptist Female College on the property known as the "Pullen-Adams" property selected over a year ago. Payment on the property has been completed.

Manager Egerton of the Western Union Telegraph office in this city, is authority for the statement that there will be no increase in charges. On the contrary there will be a reduction.

We are authorized to say, that the pantomime to be performed at Metropolitan Hall to night for the benefit of St. John's Hospital, will not be in the conventional sign language. It will be of special interest to the children and grown folks too.

The post office clerks have had a hard time of it during the past week, as have also the letter carriers. The mails have been unusually heavy, but the force in each and every particular have done their duty. And, right here, we want to say, as an act of simple justice, that no community in this country has more gentlemanly and obliging post office officials than Raleigh. From the highest to the lowest grade in the office, they all seem to be imbued with a spirit of accommodation, and leave nothing unturned to serve the public. This is nothing more than a deserved tribute, and they should cheerfully be accorded it.

The days are now on the up grade.

The howl of the politician will be soon heard loud in the land.

When the grippe leave us we will all be comparatively happy again.

The Enchanted Barrel tonight at Metropolitan Hall.

The D. Q. I's made a spasmodic parade on Christmas day. They were highly enjoyed, however.

There are all sorts of wild cat railroad deals in circulation today. More of it hereafter.

The formal decision in the merchants' purchase tax cases will not be filed until February.

One year ago the round house at the R. & G. Depot was destroyed by fire.

A large addition of students is expected at the Agricultural and Mechanical College the coming session.

It will take at least a week to get things to work in running shape for business again. It is always so after Christmas.

A colored man named Robt. Ranwold was found dead at Henderson yesterday afternoon. Foul play suspected.

Remember the "gilt sociable" at the Baptist Tabernacle tonight, for the benefit of the poor. Be on hand with your contributions.

"An revoir" to the Cuban party. May they have a pleasant trip to the "ever faithful Isle," and all return safe and sound to the "Old North State."

The collection for St. John's Hospital at Christ Church, on Christmas day, was $49 15. At the Church of the Good Shepherd the Christmas offering collection was $293.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad System amply reimbursed the Emma Juch Opera Company for the loss and damage sustained by them in their late accident. This is all right.

In answer to the question of Mr. A. Dughi as to the laziest bird, Miss Bessie May Smith guessed the "Cuckoo." Miss Bessie lives in Winston, and Mr. Dughi has sent her the prize, which consisted of a pretty canary and cage.

Now that the Christmas holidays are over, would it not be well for our city fathers to look after the matter of a centennial celebration for Raleigh next spring? We should by all means put the ball in motion. It won't do to let politics engage all of our attention in 1892.

This afternoon at 6.40 o'clock the first section of the Cuban party of teachers will leave Raleigh via Atlanta and Jacksonville. They will arrive at Havana on Saturday morning at sunrise and remain until Monday, January 11th returning to Raleigh on January 15th.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd last Sunday evening R. H. Battle, Esq., presented the organist, Prof. A. Pauli with a purse. At the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school the class taught by Mr. J. M. Broughton presented him with a very handsome lamp, and Mr. T. J. Bashford's class presented him with a teacher's bible. Mr. N. B. Broughton was re-elected superintendent of the school and the other officers were also re-elected.

Installed.

The following Masonic officers were installed last evening for the ensuing Masonic year: W. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218: J. C. Drewry, W. M.; E. McK. Goodwin, S. W.; R. C. Redford, J. W.; J. H. Alford, Sec'y.; J. A. Briggs, Treas.; N. R. Blake, S. D.; J. R. Terrell, J. D.; W. E. Faison and John Whitelaw, Stewards; R. H. Bradley, Tiler; Wm. Simpson, Marshal.

Hiram Lodge, No. 40: S. W. Walker, W. M.; W. S. Primrose, S. W.; G. F. Kennedy, J. W.; E. B. Thompson, Secretary; T. W. Blake, Treasurer; A. Betts, S. D.; W. N. Snellings, J. D.; W. M. Brown and C. M. Brestch, Stewards; C. D. Christopher, Tiler; M. Bowes, Marshal.

Accident.

On Sunday night, a well-known colored man, named Jack Norwood, was killed by a train on the R. & G. Railroad about 8 miles north of this city. An inquest was held, at which it was developed that Norwood had fallen asleep on the track, while waiting for some of his family. No blame is attached to the railroad.

Not Accepted.

It is a source of much gratification to know that the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church have declined to accept the resignation of Rev. Dr. Jno. S. Watkins. It appears that an arrangement has been made to secure an assistant who will have charge of the Blount Street Church, which will be a great relief to Dr. Watkins. Under these circumstances, it is hoped, that he will agree to remain.

Election of Officers.

At a meeting held last night, the members of Centre Lodge No. 3, K. of P., elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

The condition of Mr. Albert Hardie is reported as still improving.

1892.

Last Christmas it seemed as if our business could not get much larger, but it increases every year, and this year it is greater than ever.

It is very certain there are good reasons lying back of all this enlargement.

You can reason them out yourself.

We beg to say that our preparations for the coming Spring's business are nearly complete, and every effort will be brought forth to make the years business much larger than ever.
