NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The snow indications continue. Small dwellings are in enormous demand.

The sheriffs are coming in rather slowly with their taxes.

The grippe is gradually decreasing in Raleigh.

Very few claims for direct taxes are now coming in.

The docket for the Criminal court next week is piling up considerably.

Cotton is coming in slowly and there is no improvement in prices.

Nathan Moore, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and cost by the mayor this morning.

The cotton compress has handled about 33,000 bales of cotton this season.

There was not an item of fresh news to be gathered at the different departments in the capitol today.

Hon. A. H. A. Williams who has been quite sick, will be able to attend in his seat in Congress next week.

It is thought that our merchants will be quite cautious in purchasing spring stocks this year.

It is reported that one of our large business firms will retire from business soon.

The cold wave came on schedule time and it was in all respects fully up to the mark.

Travel on the railroads has been unusually heavy during the past month.

The latest estimate of the loss by the Mt. Airy fire is about $100,000, with an insurance of less than $50,000.

The seventh annual meeting of the Capital Club will be held in the parlors of the club house on Wednesday evening next.

The street cars are again hung up. This time the cylinder at the power house is frozen up. It is not known when the running will resume.

Great preparations are being made for the fish and oyster fair at New Bern next month. It will be formally opened by Gov. Holt.

Yesterday was undoubtedly the coldest day of the season. The wind blew a gale most of the time and was very severe. More moderate weather is predicted for tomorrow.

A dispatch received in this city Saturday afternoon announces the safe arrival of the North Carolina excursionists in Havana. They are all delighted.

The proposition to have a grand May day celebration is gaining in popularity. It will be a fitting prelude to the centennial and will put our people in the humor for that event.

Merchants should not forget to give in their purchase tax. It should be remembered that there is no discretion in the matter. The Supreme Court has fixed it.

Engineer White, who whistled so loud and long at the power house of the electric railway on the night of the 31st ult., has been discharged and gone to his home in Baltimore.

The clerk of the Superior Court is busy fixing up for court next week.

A Social Session will soon be held at Metropolitan Hall. It will be a ludicrous and breezy time.

Sheriff Page is getting very tired of waiting and will have to soon make a formal demand for taxes.

There will be a partial eclipse of the Moon on May 11th and on the 25th of October, both visible here.

Postmaster Shaffer was trying his hand at clerking today in the registry department. He seems to get there all right.

The Lenten season will be late this year. Ash Wednesday will be March 7th and Easter Sunday will be April the 17th.

The new State Bank of Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Henderson, has started out in business with a capital of $150,000.

Representative Bunn and Williams are pushing the matter of a Federal building for Durham with energy. They should have it, by all means.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners commenced today. There was but little done mostly of the usual routine character.

Several illicit distilleries have recently been seized in Durham and Person counties. We hear that the officials will make a general attack all along the lines, very soon.

Let there be a big delegation from our city on the occasion of the launching of the "Raleigh" at Norfolk. It is a high compliment to the City of Oaks and should be duly appreciated.

We hope the Board of County Commissioners will not adjourn without some action looking towards an index for the county. It is an absolute necessity and should not be longer delayed.

Every official will be elected this year from constable up to president of the United States, with the exception of clerk of the Superior Court. The election of this officer takes place in 1894.

Mrs. James A. Bryan, a lady well-known in social circles in Raleigh, died in Brooklyn, near New Bern, last Friday night. She was a daughter of Hon. Chas. Shepard and a niece of Hon. Rich Speight Donnell.

It is now confidently promised that the through connection with Atlanta over the Seaboard Air Line system will be completed in a few months. Then Raleigh will be on a direct line between the North and South.

So far as is publicly known our fellow citizen, Col. A. B. Andrews, has not accepted the position of 1st Vice President of the Richmond & Danville system. If it involves his removal from Raleigh, we hope he will not accept.

Messrs. S. & D. Berwanger announce today that they are "painting" the town red, and so they are, for they have put down their suits and overcoats far below anything ever heretofore seen in Raleigh. In fact, no such bargains have ever been seen here. Call and see for yourself. You will be astonished.

Mr. Fred Woolcott has been admitted as a partner in the well-known firm of Woolcott & Son. He is a young gentleman of well-known business qualifications and popularity. No firm stands more deservedly high in Raleigh, and we predict for it continued prosperity.

To Patriarchs.

Litchford Encampment, No. 26, I. O. O. F., will hold its regular meeting to night at 8 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of installing officers and work in the degrees. Also other important business. Every member is earnestly solicited to be on hand. Visiting Patriarchs extended a cordial invitation. SCRIBE

Thanks for One.

Mr. E. M. Uzzell, printer and binder, corner Martin and Wilmington streets, has gotten up a very neat office desk pad for the New Year. If you want nice printing done, call on him.

Graded Schools.

The State Convention of graded schools has recently been in session at Charlotte with a good attendance. It is said that the association has been growing in numbers each year. There are now sixteen towns in North Carolina which have graded schools and most of them are in a flourishing condition.

Especially Tomorrow.

Your attention is called in an especial manner to the special sale of ladies rubber shoes on tomorrow. Last rubber shoe sale of the season. On tomorrow will offer at 20c a pair three or four thousand pair ladies and misses rubber shoes; child's sizes 15c a pair. Tomorrow, Tuesday, Jan. 5th, at SWINDELL'S.

Oxford Female Seminary.

Prof. F. P. Hobgood has again taken charge of this institution of which he has been formerly President. We wish him the most abundant success. It is one of the most prosperous seminaries in the State.

Attention Rescue Company

Regular monthly meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Installation of officers for the present year to take place.

Special Sale of Millinery Goods.

Next Saturday we will have a special sale of millinery goods, ribbons, plumes, feathers, ornaments, jets, hats, &c. All untrimmed felt hats go at 25c each. There are French felt and American felt ladies, misses and children's hats in the lot. This is a sweeping sale of all millinery goods next Saturday, at SWINDELL'S.

No Double Charges.

The Charlotte News is authority for the statement that there has been another adjustment of the Western Union Telegraph rates. There seems to have been a misunderstanding in regard to the new schedule. There are now no double charges and the average rates are cheaper than ever before.

Personal Mention.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Minnie Shaw is better.

Mr. Kemp Merritt the associate clerk in the registry department of the post office is sick with the grippe.

We regret to learn that the condition of Mr. Albert Hardie who was recently hurt, at Memphis is not so good.

We had the pleasure of seeing in the city, today our friend Mr. W. H. Lyon, of Goldsboro, formerly of Raleigh. Mr. Lyon we are glad to say is doing a thriving business. He surely deserves it.

Another fine lot of Oranges from Mr. J. S. Carr's grove in Florida just received at A. Dugh's.

Y. M. C. A.

At a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, held yesterday evening at the Christian church, much interest was manifested, and it was agreed to make the association a permanent thing for Raleigh, if possible. About 40 of the best business men were present, and several made very strong talks in favor of the association.

A meeting will be held to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock at the Sunday School room of the First Presbyterian church, and every member of the association and all who are interested in it are earnestly requested to be present. The purpose of the meeting will be reorganization. Let there be a good attendance.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Cloverdale Dairy.

In consequence of the lamented death of Mr. J. Horace Davis, the Firm of Davis & Bradshaw is dissolved from this date.

JOHN BRADSHAW.

December 31st, 1891.

Having taken into partnership Mr. Nathan Tyson, an experienced dairyman from Wisconsin, the business of the late firm will be carried on as heretofore in the name of Bradshaw & Tyson, who will continue to supply their patrons with their celebrated gilt edge butter and separated cream, either direct or through Messrs Eberhardt & Pesend.

I take this opportunity of thanking the public for their liberal support of the late firm and to request the continuance of the same. Telephone 118.

JOHN BRADSHAW.

Be sure you get Turner's N. C. Almanac for 1892—the Old Reliable. The only standard State Almanac.

Honest School Shoes.

The holidays are now over and children are about to begin school again, and to provide one's children with school shoes that will wear well and not cost too much is a matter worth considering. We can supply an honest shoe for children's school wear at very reasonable prices—$1, $1.25 and $1.50. We have of course finer shoes than these, but we do not hesitate to say that better shoes than these were never shown in Raleigh at the prices.
