NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Snow at last.

Oh, dear, what can the matter be with the street cars?

There will be no meeting of the Governor's Guard tonight.

The "Social Session" Wednesday night at Metropolitan Hall.

See notice of sale of land by R. T. Gray, Trustee.

There are about eighty cases to be disposed of on the docket of the present term of the Superior Court.

Very little business doing in the city today. The bad weather has kept many persons at home.

There are new arrivals daily at the Agricultural and Mechanical College. There are now about 110 students in attendance.

President Battle of the Chapel Hill University is in the city. He reports the institution in a most flourishing condition.

An examination of the affairs of the railroads in the north eastern part of the State will probably be made by the railroad commission this week.

C. H. Anderson has just received a full line of shoes from $1 to $5 per pair for ladies and gentlemen No 5 E. Hargett street.

Wood and coal thieves are about in some sections of the city. The rascals should be watched, and, if necessary treated to a little peppering.

The members of the West Market Street Church in Greensboro, are making arrangements for building a new church on an eligible site just purchased.

Regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 213, A. F. and A. M., will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock, for work in the 3d degree. Visiting brethren cordially invited to attend.

The new officers of the George Meade Post of the Grand Army of the Republic, were installed last Friday evening. Our friend, Mr. Chas. H. Beine was chosen commander. A splendid selection.

It has been decided by the Executive Committee of the Agricultural Society, to hold the next annual State Fair from Tuesday, October 18th, to Friday the 21st.

We hope there will be a large crowd in attendance from this city to witness the launching of the Raleigh at Norfolk next month. It will be an occasion of peculiar interest to our people.

Caswell Sturdivant, Esq., an old and highly respected citizen of the eastern part of Wake county died yesterday morning, aged 88. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from his residence.

Tomorrow at 12 o'clock, at Christ Church, Mr. Ed. Chamber Smith, Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, will be united in marriage to Miss Annie Faison, daughter of Col. Paul F. Faison.

Read the advertisement of Mr. C. H. Anderson, No. 5, East Hargett street. This gentleman is carrying the best and cheapest line of shoes ever brought to this market. He also has a splendid line of gingham and calico, of the choicest styles. Call and see him. His stock cannot be surpassed for variety in Raleigh.

Messrs. S. & D. Berwanger, with their characteristic energy come to the front today in announcement full of consistency. They tell the people to "strike while the iron's hot," and present some plain and unvarnished truths for their consideration. There has never been such a slaughter of prices as is now going on at this celebrated house, and our people will be much in their own light if they do not take advantage of it. Call and see them.

It is said that Col. Polk, of the National Alliance, will soon issue a long address.

The architect's edition of the Scientific American is a tastily gotten up and valuable issue of that progressive and reliable journal.

Master George H. Williams, on Saturday last, near the residence of Mr. William Boylun, killed a large chicken hawk, the wings of which measured four feet from tip to tip.

The citizens relief committee on Friday and Saturday were engaged in sending out wood to those who were in great need of the same. In order to carry on this work money must be had. Mr. Pullen at the Savings Bank will be glad to receive contributions.

Married.

Mr. E. D. Smith and Miss Mamie Carver, both of this city, were married in Greensboro last Saturday evening. The happy couple returned to the city yesterday afternoon.

Funeral Services.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Broughton was held last Saturday afternoon from the Baptist Tabernacle, Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall officiating, assisted by Rev. Dr. Thos. E. Skinner and Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter. There was a large attendance. The interment was made in Oakwood Cemetery, the following gentlemen acting as pall bearers: Messrs. W. H. Holloway, L. H. Adams, S. V. House, W. R. Dicks, J. H. Alford and Henry Mitchell.

Cabbage by the barrel daily at D. T. Johnson's.

"Something different" is said to apply in comparing "A Social Session" with the average farce comedy. It is said to be different inasmuch as there is a thread of a plot and a general consistency, a reason for everything that is done that obviates the necessity for horse play, and does away with that straining for a laugh effect so noticeable in the majority of popular farce comedies. The dialogue is bright and funny, and the situations and scenes so unusual that the audience is kept continually convulsed with laughter, and the fun is of a quality that does not require any hard thinking to appreciate. The play was written for laughing purposes only, and can be aptly and correctly termed a laughing success.

30 barrels Virginia Pippins received today, 25c a peck. Special price to the trade, by the barrel.

Personal Mention.

Mr. John Devereux, Jr., is quite sick.

Mr. H. A. Gudger, of Asheville, is at the Yarboro.

Dr. J. B. Richardson, of this county, is extremely ill.

Maj. John W. Graham is in the city.

Mr. Jos. G. Brown, Cashier of the Citizens' National Bank is sick.

Mr. J. T. Patrick was in Wilmington last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Mosely who have been on a visit to Durham, have returned to the city.

Mr. J. R. Brown, formerly manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in this city, left this afternoon for Washington City, his former home where he will hereafter reside. Mr. Brown has more recently been in the service of the R. & D. Railroad Co. in Mr. Lipps office, and his many friends here will regret his departure from our midst.

State vs. Charles Cawthorne,—submits—judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. George Jackson—Trial progressing.

Enterprise, Energy and Determination.

These triplets are legions of wonder. They create and sustain the world's power; we hold ourselves indebted to these three words for all the success which we may have in all our business career, and we shall ever roll this sweet morsel under our tongue as we travel up the highway of successful mercantile career. We have been told by some that we were too independent. Who respects the groveling worm? Our lofty aspirations teach us to reach high and forbid that we crawl in the dust. We know that we are enabled to sell goods lower than other merchants, hence our business increases as it rolls like a ball of snow. During the present year we shall endeavor to show some wonderful effects in the mercantile arena. We hold up the serpent; look on and be healed. All carpets at cost from now on.

Yours truly,

D. T. SWINDELL.

Union Meeting.

The meeting held at the First Baptist church last night in the interest of the Y. M. C. Association, was well attended considering the bad weather. We are glad to state that the preliminary step resulted in much good and gives promise of abundant future success. The meeting was opened by Dr. Lewis, who explained the object in view, and speeches of a highly interesting character were made by Mr. W. R. Gales, one of the State Se retirees, and Mr. Southgate of Durham. The sum of about $40 was pledged for the cause. This is very encouraging under the circumstances, and we hope the good work may go on to complete consummation. It is a subject that should enlist the most cordial sympathy of all our people.

Yours truly,

D. T. SWINDELL.

January for Wraps

This month will be a good one in which to buy wraps. One reason is, that there will yet be considerable time in which to use it, another reason, that we do not wish to carry a single garment over until next season, consequently we will save you so much on the price of a wrap that you will consider yourself fortunate in being able to buy a garment of this kind. Think of buying a stylish long garment, well made and of the best material at 50 cents on the dollar. This we will do for you right now.

MIDWINTER.

WRAPSTO SELL

WE HAVE A MOST SUCCESSFUL wrap season, probably the most satisfactory one we have ever experienced, and now with January—thoughts of cold weather—we wish to remind our patrons that they can buy first class garments at prices much

BELOW VALUE!

TO THOSE WHO REQUIRE anything in the way of wraps, we advise them to buy this month—buy while there is still time to use them—and to save, in some instances, as much as half in the price.

Long Garments.

We still have a limited number of the lot of long garments at just HALF PRICE.

Now one word about children's school Cloaks. If there is a parent in this city who has not yet bought all the CHILDREN'S WRAPS they need for this winter, then see what we can do for them. A very good garment for a very little price.
