NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Slush everywhere.
We are promised some very bad weather yet, in this month.

The Cuban party will soon be home and tell us all about it.

The demand for fertilizer's tags continues quite brisk.

The Mayor has had another unimportant day.

Judge T.C. Fuller's nomination was confirmed by the United States Senate, yesterday.

The merchants came up pretty well yesterday in the matter of listing their purchase taxes.

It is thought that the report of the Railroad Commission to the Governor will be ready by February 1st. It is now in the hands of the printer.

A "Social Session" tomorrow night at Metropolitan Hall. Let the house be crowded. It is the funniest play now on the road.

Rev. Dr. A. W. Miller, for the past thirty years, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Charlotte, died last Sunday afternoon.

Send in your contributions to the poor. They can be left at the Savings Bank, with Mr. Jno. T. Pullen Cashier.

A large number of prominent Masons are here, to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge which commences in this city tonight.

Rev. Father Francis, O. S. B., for sometime pastor of the church of the Sacred Heart in this city, has been transferred to Charlotte to take charge of St. Peter's Church there in place of Rev. Father Gross, resigned. Read the notice of Messrs. H.A. Littman & Co., of the New York Bargain House who have continued their special sale of shoes until tomorrow. Don't forget it.

The Supreme Court will examine applicants for license on Friday and Saturday, January 29th and 30th. Call of appeals from the first district will commence on Monday, February 1st.

The annual meeting of the Raleigh Building and Loan Association will take place tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the mayor's office. The election of seven directors and secretary and treasurer will take place.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon and family have gone to Wilson, to which place Dr. Cordon was assigned by the late conference as pastor of the M. E. Church. His daughter Miss Laura will remain in Raleigh as a pupil of Peace Institute.

Work on the Louisburg road progressed rapidly up to the commencement of the present bad spell of weather. Superintendent MacMackin has had some fine service done in the way of Meadmaking. About 40,000 loads of stone have been put down, and it will be one of the best roads in North Carolina.

Music and humor will hold high carnival at the Opera House on Wednesday, Jan 13th, when Sprague's Company of comedians, augmented by the famous Black Hussar band and Star Orchestra present their latest comedy success, "A Social Session." The play is said to be intensely funny and to possess rare charms of originality, while the scenes and situations follow one upon the other with a naturalness and unique humor that fairly captivates the audience. Few comedies have embodied in them so many delightful melodies, and the attention of the listener is absorbed from beginning to end. The company carries a superb orchestra that is an attraction in itself and necessary to a smooth and perfect production of the play.

Pneumonia wether.
Sheriff's coming in fast.
Pedestrianism today was a difficult business.

Large numbers of negroes are leaving the eastern part of the state to work in the turpentine regions of South Carolina and Georgia.

Heavy falls of snow are reported in different sections of the country. In Greensboro, it fell to the depth of six inches last Saturday night.

Married.

SMITH-FAISON.—At noon today Christ Church was the scene of a brilliant event, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith, Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, to Miss Annie Badger Faison, daughter of our well known fellow citizen, Col. Paul F. Faison. The ceremony took place in the presence of a large assemblage and was conducted according to the beautiful ritual of the Episcopal Church, by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshal, Rector. Mr. Fred Kidder acted as best man, and Miss Mildred Badger Maid of Honor. The following young gentlemen acted as ushers: Thos. Badger, Jr., Sam'l. F. Telfair, W. P. McGehee and W. Bartel Wise. After the ceremony the contracting parties left on the east bound train for a bridal trip to Cuba, followed by the best wishes of hosts of friends. The VISITOR extends its most cordial congratulations and hopes that the happy couple may go through life amid all the enjoyments allotted to mortals on earth.

What They Say.

The Durham Sun of yesterday has the following allusion to a very happy event which recently occurred in Raleigh:

"They say that Josephus Daniels, of the State Chronicle, was met on the streets of Raleigh Saturday and the smile on his face was noticed very particularly and excited curiosity. We don't wonder that Joe felt proud and happy. As comes the dew drops and soft morning light to the delicate petals of the rarest exotics, so came a sweet little girl baby to his household on that morning. She was so bright, and pretty, and promising that she awakened the keenest sense of pride. We have not learned the name of the little lady, but she is the dictator in the Chronicle's editorial circle just now. But, as old Rip Van Winkle might have said, here's to her good health, and her parents, and may they all live long and prosper."

Synopsis of the Weather for the 24 Hours Ending 8 P. M. Yesterday.

A storm exists over the Gulf which is moving slowly eastward, and is causing precipitation over the entire country east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio River.

A high area over New England causes the prevailing winds on the Atlantic coast to be easterly and brings the vapor laden air from the ocean over the land.

A clearing condition with a severe cold wave is advancing from the northwest, but will be retarded by the storm from the Gulf.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity on Tuesday, slightly warmer, continued rain. Rain also probable Wednesday forenoon.

January for Wraps

This month will be a good one in which to buy wraps. One reason is, that there will yet be considerable time in which to use it, another reason, that we do not wish to carry a single garment over until next season, consequently we will save you so much on the price of a wrap that you will consider yourself fortunate in being able to buy a garment of this kind. Think of buying a stylish long garment, well made and of the best material at 50 cents on the dollar. This we will do for you right now.
