NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A few days of sunshine will help out wonderfully just now. Tomorrow, it is expected, will be much colder.

Next Sunday will be clear and cold—so the weather men say.

Some clear, cold weather, would be welcomed just now.

Steps are being taken for another warehouse in the city.

The session of the Grand Lodge of Masons in 1894, will be held in Wilmington.

Rev. Dr. Watkins is improving, but owing to the inclement weather is not yet able to be out.

Col. Keogh says that North Carolina will have a good building at the Chicago exposition.

Poles for the extension of the electric street car lines to the new Union Depot are being received.

A proposition is on foot to establish a local electric light company here by the Ball Electric Company.

The new dynamo, to replace the one recently injured at the gas and electric light works, will be here in a few days.

Superior Court Clerk Thompson says the jurors drawn for next week need not attend, as the docket is about exhausted.

Rev. Yan Phon Lee, a Chinaman and graduate of Yale College has been empowered by Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash, pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. church, of Wilmington, to lecture for the benefit of that church.

Send in your contributions for the poor to Mr. John T. Pullen, at the Savings Bank. There is some very cold weather ahead and much suffering can be prevented by timely action.

Samuel Peronica, the Italian who used to go about our streets crying "cocoanut candy, peanut candy, five cents only," died in Savannah, Ga., a few days since.

At the doll's reception at the church of the Good Shepherd, yesterday afternoon, Miss Mary Smedes received the prize for the prettiest doll, and Miss Gypsy Weir the prize for the ugliest.

And now, the town clock is out of order. It don't strike. We need a new one and ought to have it. It is a necessity for our people; the present concern is getting worthless and not at all in keeping with a city like Raleigh. Won't the board of aldermen order a new one? They ought to by all means.

As the docket of the present term of the Superior Court is about cleared, we take the occasion to return our most sincere thanks to Mr. Moye, the gentlemanly and efficient deputy clerk of the court for valuable favors rendered the VISITOR in the matter of furnishing proceedings. We assure him that his kindness is duly appreciated.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Blakes' livery and Exchange stables in this issue. Mr. Blake keeps constantly on hand a nice line of carriages, pheatons, bugles and driving horses, good saddles for ladies or gentlemen. Special arrangements can be made. Mr. Blake is one of our most accommodating men and he will act fairly and squarely on all occasions. Call and see him.

The Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D. D. pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Wilmington, N. C., is expected here tomorrow and will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church of this city on next Sunday morning and evening. Dr. Hoge is regarded as one of the finest preachers in the southern states.

There is a slight advance in cotton. The town clock resumed its striking today.

Work has been resumed at the Egypt coal mines.

Rev. R. B. Hester, died in Granville county yesterday morning.

The State Treasury is fast being replenished by the different sheriffs.

There are 1,300 children in attendance on the Graded schools of Winston-Salem.

The February term of Wake Superior Court will be for the trial of civil cases.

The State Geologist says that active field work will not commence until May 1st.

About all the attendants upon the Grand Lodge of Masons have left for their homes.

Mayor Badger is having an easy time just now, so far as the trial of offenders is concerned.

It is stated that Judge Walter Clark has sold his fine farm on the Roanoke river.

The North Carolina Code and digest, which is being printed by Messrs. Edwards & Broughton will soon be out.

The walk through Moore Square is in a miry condition. Could not the city authorities have a coating of gravel laid on it.

The proposition to reduce the acreage in cotton seems to be finding favor. It should be carried out.

Most of the country people who have been in attendance on the Supreme Court this week, have gone home.

The exact shortage in the broken First National Bank of Wilmington has been ascertained to be $226,000. It is thought that Cashier Borden "will never come back."

Handsome bills, of the Fifth Annual Fish, Oyster and Game Fair at New Berne have been posted here. The fair will open Feb. 22d and continue until and including the 27th.

Mr. G. A. Jones the courteous and genial editor of the Old North State returned to the city yesterday from an extended trip down in eastern Carolina.

The Street Car Stoppage.

Mr. Hall, the Superintendent of the electric street car line called upon us today and stated that the delays and stoppage of the running of the cars in the city was occasioned by the breaking down and practical giving out of the two old engines in use. The company which is building two large engines for the car company's service agreed in their contract to keep the old engines repaired up so as to keep running until they could finish the new ones. They have failed to do so, as they were in a worse worn out condition than they supposed at the time of making the contract. These old engines were overworked during the exposition and practically worn out. The time fixed in the contract for furnishing the new engines was 60 days, about 25 or 30 of which time has expired, so we may expect the cars to start in about 35 or 40 days. Be patient.

A Fancy Sign.

The Commercial and Farmers' Bank building has been decorated with a new and beautiful sign, painted by Mr. J. P. Dahlborn the new sign painter who has for the past two months made his headquarters at 109 1/2 Fayetteville street in this city. With its elegant scrip letters in gold leaf and black ground, this sign is undoubtedly one of the finest ever put up in Raleigh and a credit to the Commercial and Farmers' Bank as well as to Mr. J. P. Dahlborn the painter.

It was announced that the amount of $1,422 had been pledged, and the result of the canvass, thus far, is very gratifying. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. W. R. Gales, Assistant Secretary.

The sum of $100 in addition to the $1,422 was pledged conditionally.

Pounded.

Last night Mrs. Hurley, wife of Rev. J. B. Hurley, the new pastor of the Central Methodist Church, arrived in the city with her child, and was handsomely pounded by some of the members of the church. It was a very pleasant and agreeable occasion.

January for Wraps

This month will be a good one in which to buy wraps. One reason is, that there will yet be considerable time in which to use it, another reason, that we do not wish to carry a single garment over until next season, consequently we will save you so much on the price of a wrap that you will consider yourself fortunate in being able to buy a garment of this kind. Think of buying a stylish long garment, well made and of the best material at 50 cents on the dollar. This we will do for you right now.
