NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The weather again looks a little threatening.

It will soon be time for the political cauldron to commence boiling.

See notice of mortgage sale of land by W. N. Jones, attorney.

The cotton receipts continue very light. The compress has but little work.

Wires are fast being strung for the new West Hargett street line of electric cars.

Lookout for chicken thieves. They are on the war path in several sections of the city.

There will be a large attendance at the New Berne fish and oyster fair from Raleigh.

The prohibitionists will hold a State Convention in Greensboro. February 24th.

A general quiet prevails in municipal circles. It is rare that the mayor has a case of any importance.

The Seaboard Air Line has received two first class passenger engines from the Richmond locomotive works.

The corps of fertilizer inspectors has started out from the Agricultural Department for the season.

Ray L. Royce's splendid company is booked for Raleigh on February the 2d.

Our friend Dughi is not to be outdone in the way of novelties. He has a parrot that speaks both English and Italian.

The students of the State University have adopted a new game called "Hare and Hounds." It is said to be full of exercise.

A gentleman from the country said today that Neuse River and other streams had gotten down to their usual condition.

You could not spend an evening of amusement better than at Metropolitan Hall tonight. The play is a good one.

The report of the Railroad Commission which it was expected would be ready by the 1st of February, will not be out before the 10th of that month.

Most of the grippe sufferers are said to be getting better. We hope the disease is on the eve of departure.

Much material is still being received for the new hotel on the corner of McDowell and Martin streets. We are pleased to learn that the work will be pushed with all possible dispatch.

At the matinee tomorrow afternoon at Metropolitan Hall the admission to any part of the house will be 15 cents for children and 25 cents for adults. East Lynne will be performed.

Rev. J. I. White, of Durham, who was recently tendered the pastorate of the Baptist church at Asheville, has agreed to accept. He resigned his position as pastor of the church at Durham last night.

Over half of the sheriffs of the State have settled with the Treasurer. When we consider the short crops and the general cry of "hard times," this is doing even better than usual.

Last Wednesday the Grimsley-Abernethy case was called in Greene County Superior Court and the defendant Grimsley pleaded guilty of an assault. The Solicitor then moved a suspension of judgment which was granted, and the matter ended.

Let us hope that the matter of an auditorium will not be allowed to slumber with our people. Just think of it. If we had a proper building for her reception, most probably our people would have received the rare treat of a performance from the great Bernhardt now on a Southern tour.

Fertilizers.

Analyses of fertilizers will be made at the experiment station as soon as samples can be taken by the official inspectors. The result will be sent out every two weeks. Those desiring them must make special application.

Married.

ALLEN-DAVIS.—At the residence of the bride's father, Hon. J. J. Davis, in Louisburg, N. C., on Thursday morning, January 21, 1892, at 10:45 o'clock, by the Rev. E. H. Green, Mr. James M. Allen, of Louisburg, to Miss Mamie H. Davis. The marriage was strictly private, only a few friends of the family being present.

State Sunday School Association.

The Executive Committee of the Sunday School Association of North Carolina has issued a call for the Sunday School workers of the State to meet at New Berne on the 29th, 30th and 31st day of March, in their eleventh annual State Convention. Mr. Wm. Reynolds, of Peoria, Ill., will be present as will also other prominent Sunday School workers.

Synopsis of the Weather at 8 P. M., Yesterday.

The clearing condition is moving off the middle Atlantic coast. Generally fair weather continues to prevail over the United States except in the extreme northwest where a new storm has appeared. The winds in the Mississippi valley have shifted to southerly and the temperature is rising.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity, fair weather, slightly warmer.

Raleigh Building and Loan Association.

At the recent meeting of the stockholders of this association the following were elected as Directors: Julius Lewis, A. M. Powell, F. W. Hable, C. B. Edwards, J. M. Broughton, W. J. Ellington and E. S. Cheek. At a meeting of the directors held last night C. B. Edwards was elected President, Julius Lewis, Vice President, J. O. Lougee, Secretary and Treasurer and W. N. Jones, Attorney. We are glad to state that this local association is doing well, having applications for more money than they have to loan. Steps are being taken to begin another series of stock about the first of August, and if our working people are wise they will invest their earnings in this association, for by thus investing a little money at stated times in an institution that benefits alike the borrower and the investor they will in a few years have accumulated quite a sum of money that otherwise would have been spent and nothing to show for it.

There are mechanics in this city today conducting their own business and employing quite a force of operatives who can testify to a Building and Loan Association as being the means by which they were first enabled to save money and get enough funds ahead so as to embark in business.

No better ham on the market than "Harveys Monumental" small sizes, 12 1/2 cents lb, at D. T. Johnson's.

Not so Funny.

When a crowd of youngsters are caught in the act of putting a piece of wood on the railroad track merely for the fun of seeing the cow catcher knock it off, thereby endangering the lives of innocent people, it is time to cry a "halt" and put such boys in a place where their wicked propensities cannot be carried out. A house of correction in this and other counties is badly needed. Such an occurrence took place last Tuesday afternoon near Apex, and the boys have been arrested. They should be taught a severe lesson.

$1.50.

Ask for our ladies $1.50 buttoned shoes. You will say they would be cheap at $3.

The Baldwin Melville Co.

This company commenced a three night's engagement at Metropolitan Hall to a good house. The play of the "Son of Monte Cristo" was most admirably rendered and was greeted with hearty applause. Tonight will be presented the "Well's Fargo Messenger," a charming comedy. Let the house be crowded. Remember popular prices prevail—15, 25 and 35 cents.

$2.00.

Try one pair of our ladies $2 shoes. They are as stylish and will wear as well as any $3 shoe in the market.

Death of Thomas Rainey Fentress, Esq.

It is with the deepest regret we announce the death of this venerable and well known citizen, which took place at his residence on Fayetteville street this morning at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Fentress was born in Princess Anne county, Va., on the 14th of Feb., 1816, and was therefore at the time of his death nearly 77 years old. He came to Raleigh a long time prior to the late war, and was for many years a prominent merchant. For many years he was a member of what was formerly known as the Board of Commissioners of Raleigh, and served with much fidelity. He leaves an aged widow and five children to mourn their loss, namely: Mr. Herbert L. Fentress, Miss Blanche Fentress, Mrs. E. M. Nadal, of Wilson Mrs. W. F. Taylor and Mrs. S. C. White. In 1898 Mr. Fentress had an attack of paralysis which rendered him an invalid. It is thought that a renewal of the attack ended in his death this morning which occurred without a seeming struggle.

The deceased was in all the relations of life a most estimable gentleman, and it can be said that he goes to his reward with the highest affection of a host of friends.

Mr. Fentress was a Master Mason and will be buried by that fraternity. The time of the funeral will be announced hereafter.

$3.75.

Ask for our gents $3.75 shoe. They are as good as any $5 shoe in the market. Every pair warranted.
